The Potent Dead Henri Chambert-Loir,Anthony Reid,2002-03-31

The dead are potent and omnipresent in modern Indonesia Presidents and peasants alike meditate before sacred graves to exploit the power they confer and mediums do good business curing the sick by interpreting the wishes of deceased forebears Among non Muslims there are ritual reburials of the bones of the dead in monuments both magnificent and modest This is the first book to assess the indigenous systems of belief in the spirits of ancestors A unique team of anthropologists historians and literary scholars from Europe Australia and North America demonstrate the continuing importance of the potent dead for understanding contemporary Indonesia At the same time they help us understand historic processes of conversion to Islam and Christianity by examining the continuing interactions of the spirit world with formal religion The Potent Dead is a collection of studies by leading scholars of Indonesian culture history and anthropology that examines the death practices and rituals of tribal groups in Indonesia It covers an important area of cultural and social history in Indonesia with pieces linking the death practices of so called tribal groups with historical changes in the country from on going changes in Islam to the roles of forms of modernity Contributors Henri Chambert Loir Elizabeth Coville James Fox Danielle Geirnaert Rodolfo Giambelli Claude Guillot Christian Pelras George Quinn Anthony Reid Minako Sakai Anne Schiller Bernard Sellato Klaus Shreiner For sale in Asia Australia and New Zealand by NUS Press Singapore The Death of Comrade President Alain Mabanckou, 2020-09-01 A poignant and riotous tale of family and revolution in postcolonial Africa from the winner of the French Voices grand prize and finalist for the Man Booker International Prize Pointe Noire a bustling port town on Congo's southwestern coast is host to Alain Mabanckou's astonishing cycle of novels that is already being hailed as one of the grandest funniest fictional projects of our time His novels have been twice short listed for the Man Booker International Prize and have been described as beautiful Salman Rushdie brutally satiric Uzodinma Iweala containing fireworks on every page Los Angeles Review of Books and vividly colloquial mischievous and outrageous Marina Warner Mabanckou's riotous new novel The Death of Comrade President returns to the 1970s milieu of his awarding winning novel Black Moses telling the story of Michel a daydreamer whose life is completely overthrown when in March 1977 just before the arrival of the rainy season Congo's Comrade President Marien Ngouabi is brutally murdered Thanks to his mother's kinship with the president not even naive Michel can remain untouched And if he is to protect his family Michel must learn to lie Moving seamlessly between the small scale worries of everyday life and the grand tragedy of postcolonial politics Mabanckou explores the nuances of the human soul through the naive perspective of a boy who learns the realities of life and how much must change for everything to stay the same Investigating Death in Paradise Robin Andersen, 2023-04-04 First televised in 2011 Death in Paradise remains one of the most popular shows in the U K The detective series is frequently ignored panned or belittled by television critics but viewers disagree Bringing in more than eight million viewers a season it is accessible in more than 235 global territories This first book length assessment of Death in Paradise offers a fresh take on the popular BBC drama The book positions the show within broader contexts that illustrate its origins and timeless appeal from the first conceptualizations of paradise in ancient cultures to the creation of the classic detective story in the 1920s The detective inspectors on Death in Paradise come from a long line of fictional eccentrics who excel at finding quirky clues seeing surprising connections and employing help from other officials and agencies Through exploration of these narrative elements and more the author reveals deeper themes of justice inclusion and environmentalism Imagining the American Death Penalty Birte Christ, 2025-04-29 Imagining the American Death Penalty traces the US American cultural imaginary of capital punishment through popular visual representations from the 1890s to the twenty first century The book focuses on three generic and historical clusters of representations early film from the 1890s through Intolerance 1916 crime film noir of the 1950s and 1960s and legal TV series from the 1990s through the early 2000s The book makes two central arguments First it demonstrates that an increased concern with the death penalty in popular media does not mean that these texts promote an abolitionist agenda their cultural work is ambiguous at best This ambiguity is always contingent upon both the affordances of the particular genre and medium in question and on political legal discursive context The book explores both in detail Early film is enchanted with its own representational possibilities due to the progress of technology and in analogy with the progress in execution technique specifically the electric chair In film noir genre conventions and the legal back and forth before and after Furman predicate ambiguity In legal TV series the genre s ensemble casts and its focus on conversational exchange invite open debate The second argument is that popular visual representations consistently whitewash the death penalty The book demonstrates that this is the case because the most common narrative around executions in film and TV is to cast the condemned man as a hero who defies the violence of the state gains dignity by accepting his fate and faults and in some ways triumphs over death The American imaginary until very recently did or could not imagine Black men to possess that measure of agency that it attributed to its white heroes      Nuttall's Death Camas (Zygadenus Nuttallii) as a Poisonous Plant Charles Dwight Marsh,A.
