Seato The Failure Of An Alliance Strategy:

SEATO, the Failure of an Alliance Strategy Leszek Buszynski, 1983 SEATO Leszek Buszynski, 1983 Conflict and Confrontation in South East Asia, 1961-1965 Matthew Jones, 2001-09-06 In the early 1960s Britain and the United States were still trying to come to terms with the powerful forces of indigenous nationalism unleashed by the Second World War. The Indonesia Malaysia confrontation a crisis which was as Macmillan remarked to Kennedy as dangerous a situation in Southeast Asia as we have seen since the war was a complex test of Anglo American relations. As American commitment to Vietnam accelerated under the Kennedy and Johnson administrations Britain was involving herself in an end of empire exercise in state building which had important military and political implications for both nations. In this book Matthew Jones provides a detailed insight into the origins outbreak and development of this important episode in international history using a large range of previously unavailable archival sources he illuminates the formation of the Malaysian federation Indonesia's violent opposition to the state and the Western Powers attempts to deal with the resulting conflict.

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation Ang Cheng Guan, 2021-09-09 A History of the Manila Pact and the Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation SEATO from its establishment in 1954 until its dissolution in 1977. The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization SEATO has received meagre scholarly attention in comparison to other key events and global developments during the duration of the Cold War due to its perceived failure early in its existence. However there has been a renewed interest in the academic study of the organization. Some scholars have argued that SEATO was not an outright failure. New literatures have also shed in detail the workings of SEATO such as operational level contingency plans and counter insurgency plans. This book aims to reconstruct a comprehensive life cycle of SEATO using declassified archival documents which were unavailable to scholars studying the organization from the 1950s through the 1980s and provide a nuanced assessment of it. In addition in recent years there is also an emerging interest in the possibility of a multilateral military alliance in Asia for instance the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue morphing into an Asian NATO. As such it is therefore crucial to study how previous multilateral alliances in the context of Asia were formed how they functioned and subsequently dissolved. A groundbreaking reference on a key element of the United States Cold War strategy in Asia which will be a valuable resource to scholars of twentieth century diplomatic history.

Malaysia Army Weapon Systems Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Weapon Systems IBP, Inc., Whose Ideas Matter? Amitav Acharya, 2011 Whose Ideas Matter is the first book to explore the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system from the perspective of local actors with Asian regional institutions as its main focus.

Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D. Henry, 2022-05-15 In Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D Henry argues for a more sophisticated approach to alliance politics and ideas of interdependence. It is often assumed that if the United States failed to defend an ally then this disloyalty would instantly and irrevocably damage US alliances across the globe. Henry proposes that such damage is by no means inevitable and that predictions of disaster are dangerously simplistic If other allies fear the risks of military escalation more than the consequences of the United States abandoning an ally then they will welcome encourage and even praise such an instance of disloyalty It is also often assumed that alliance interdependence only constrains US policy options but Henry shows how the United States can manipulate interdependence to set an example of what constitutes acceptable allied behavior Using declassified documents Henry explores five case studies involving US alliances with South Korea Japan the Republic of China the Philippines Australia and New Zealand Reliability and Alliance Interdependence makes a substantial contribution to our understanding of how America's alliances in Asia function as an interdependent system
