Animal and Shaman Julian Baldick, 2012-10-22 Animal and Shaman a comparative study of the indigenous pre Christian and pre Muslim religions of Central Asia describes a common inheritance among the beliefs of the various peoples who have lived in Central Asia or have migrated from there Scythians Huns Mongols Manchus Finns and Hungarians Shamans holy men and healers among the pagan faiths relied heavily on animal sacrifices to create spiritual purity and to nourish the soul and as a result animals and spirituality were locked in a mutually dependent embrace Julian Baldick demonstrates that in pagan times there were remarkable common features in the forms of worship and spiritual expression and that these similarities were largely based on the roles of animals in the different cultures of Central Asia He shows that these have not only survived in the myths and legends of the region but have also found their way into the mythologies of the West This analysis will be of importance to historians as well as to cultural and social anthropologists Jacket
