Frederik, Kimberley Bell Marra, Catherine A. Schuler, 2017-05-18 The interdisciplinary essays in Showing Off Showing Up examine acts of showing a particular species of performance that relies on competition and judgment active spectatorship embodied excess and exposure of core values and hidden truths Acts of showing highlight those dimensions of performance that can most manipulate spectators and consumers often through over the top heightening and skewing of presentation Many forms of showing and of heightened performance however operate more enigmatically and covertly while still profoundly affecting the social world even if our reactions to them are initially flippant or unconcerned because it s just a show Examining a wide range of examples from dog shows to competitive dancing to carnivals to striptease the essays illuminate how such events variously foster competition exaggerate a characteristic and reveal hidden truths There is as much to be learned about the power of showing through subtlety and underlying intentionality as through overt display The book s theoretical introduction and 12 essays by leading scholars reveal how diverse particularly efficacious genres of showing are theoretically connected and why they merit more concerted attention especially in the 21st century Tourism

Kokai, 2017-06-28 Drawing on cultural associations with bodies of water the spectacle of pretty women and the appeal of the concept of family friendly productions performative aquatic spectacles portray water as an exotic fantasy environment exploitable for the purpose of entertainment In Swim Pretty Jennifer A. Kokai reveals the influential role of aquatic spectacles in shaping cultural perceptions of aquatic ecosystems in the United States over the past century Examining dramatic works in water and performances at four water parks Kokai shows that the evolution of these works and performances helps us better understand our ever changing relationship with the oceans and their inhabitants Kokai sorts the regard for and harnessing of water in aquatic spectacles into three categories natural tamed and domesticated and discusses the ways in which these modes of water are engaged in the performances through an aesthetics of descension

Ultimately this study links the uncritical love of aquatic spectacles to a disregard for the rights of marine animals and lack of concern for the marine environment Colonialism, Culture, Whales Graham Huggan, 2018-08-09 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com
