Now as the two men near the end of their ten-year odyssey with only the Himalayas to cross into India, the secret society makes its long-awaited move to bring Chandragupta Maurya back as King of India during British independence in 1948. The two best friends have survived jungle plane crashes and a Japanese prison camp. However, can a woman who looks like Vale be killed in a plane crash? Stop Mike's return home or Raj finding his destiny on that mountain peak      Silencing Shanghai Fang Xu, 2021-06-24 Silencing Shanghai investigates the paradoxical and counterintuitive contrast between Shanghai's emergence as a global city and the marginalization of its native population captured through the rapid decline of the distinctive Shanghai dialect. From this unique vantage point, Fang Xu tells a story of power relations in a cosmopolitan metropolis closely monitored and shaped by an authoritarian state through policies affecting urban redevelopment, internal migration, and language. These state policies favor the rich, the resourceful, and the highly educated while alienate the poorer and less educated Shanghainese geographically and linguistically. When the state vigorously promotes Mandarin Chinese through legal and administrative means, Shanghainese made the conscious yet reluctant choice of shifting from the dialect to the national language. At the same time, millions of migrants have little incentive to adopt the vernacular given that their relation to the state has already firmly established their legal, financial, and social standing in the city. The recent shift in the urban linguistic scene that silences the Shanghai dialect is ultimately part of the state-led global city building process. Through the association of the use of national language with realizing the China Dream, the state further eliminates the unique vernacular characters of Shanghai      Where the Locals Go ,2014 Examines the places and activities around the world that captivate their residents from regional festivals, undiscovered local restaurants, and lesser-known art galleries to quiet places to sit and watch another world stroll by      The Directory and Chronicle for China, Japan, Corea, Indo-China, Straits Settlements, Malay States, Siam, Netherlands India, Borneo, the Philippines, and Etc ,1920      Chinese Management ShouQuing Wang, 2005      Deciphering Chinese School Leadership Allan Walker, Haiyan Qian, 2017-10-23 With existing educational leadership models and theories being predominantly western-influenced, this book aims to provide more insight into school leadership in China. It pioneers building research and practice-informed knowledge and unravels the complexities that characterize the scholarship context and practices of school leadership. School leadership in China is presented through four sub-purposes: investigating how Chinese school leadership is conceptualized in the international and Chinese literature; exploring the shifting context within which Chinese school leaders enact their leadership; and examining key policies that have shaped the
