Shaping A Future Characteristics Congregation:

The Science of Congregation Studies Leslie J. Francis, David W. Lankshear, 2022-01-01 During the past two decades the Science of Congregation Studies has blossomed significantly in the UK as well as within the USA and Australia In this illuminating and thought provoking volume Leslie J Francis research group draws on the Signs of Growth Survey conducted throughout the Anglican Diocese of Southwark to illustrate how the strength of combined qualitative and quantitative research methods can draw on the insights of psychological theory sociological theory and empirical theology to illuminate pressing questions of relevance to the sociology of religion psychology of religion practical theology and pastoral studies Individual chapters discuss the missing generation of young people the greying generation aged seventy and over how occasional churchgoers express belonging and commitment connections between psychological type and religious motivation and the distinctive characteristics of growing congregations

Church and Estate Thomas F. Rzeznik, 2013-06-20 In Church and Estate Thomas Rzeznik examines the lives and religious commitments of the Philadelphia elite during the period of industrial prosperity that extended from the late nineteenth century through the 1920s The book demonstrates how their religious beliefs informed their actions and shaped their class identity while simultaneously revealing the ways in which financial influences shaped the character of American religious life In tracing those connections it shows how religion and wealth shared a fruitful yet ultimately tenuous relationship

Reinventing Anglicanism Bruce Norman Kaye, 2004 Anglicanism world wide faces huge problems in the post Empire era Churches that were originally founded as colonial and missionary outposts by Great Britain and the United States have now become autonomous Anglican provinces and what used to be a predominantly white Anglo Saxon group of churches in the northern hemisphere has become a truly global community most of whose members live in Africa Asia Latin America and the Pacific Using the experience of the Anglican Church in Australia Bruce Kaye tracks the modern story of Australian Anglicanism and reconsiders key elements of the New Testament the English Reformation and the ongoing theological tradition that relate to this story

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 31 Ralph W. Hood, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, 2020-11-30 Volume 31 of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion A Diversity of Paradigms showcases two approaches to the socio scientific study of religion It includes a special section within which authors draw on data collected about congregational life in the Australian National Church Life Surveys from 1991 to present These studies give voice to minority groups and children While findings include the strengths of ethnic diversity and the positive experiences of young churchgoers they also highlight that full inclusion in local church life is far from being realized A second section explores the application of feminist approaches within the sociology of religion In their struggle for equality for women feminist scholars developed methodologies to challenge the marginality of any othered group This section showcases how use of these methods challenges hierarchies within knowledge

Making Disciples Sylvia Wilkey Collinson, 2007-01-01 The Christian faith community regards the making of disciples as a prime directive of Jesus himself though this theme is not dominant in contemporary models of teaching in the church This investigation seeks to develop a theory of discipling and to test its congruence as an effective educational strategy with the objectives of modern Christian faith communities After briefly examining the discipling model of teaching as practiced in the world of the Ancient Near East a detailed study of New Testament texts investigates the practice of discipling by Jesus and his followers and in the church of the first century An understanding of the concept of discipling is gained by gradually refining its definition as the study progresses through a contemporary examination of other informal models of education Religious and educational research findings are explored to enable the validity of the discipling model to be determined Finally the definition is used as a benchmark to examine various contemporary educational theories within the community of faith In contrast to the schooling model discipling has been shown to be an effective model for teaching attitudes values and behavior as well as knowledge and beliefs in today's church Its emphasis on commitment to learning relationships within a nurturing community and active involvement in the mission of Christ to the world and its capacity to adapt to differences in age culture ability and interests make it a model of teaching worthy of much greater attention by the Christian faith community

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 26, 2015-08-25 This volume includes a wide range of papers that explore individual and institutional aspects of religion from a social science perspective The special section has articles from research groups in Europe the USA and Australia on clergy work related psychological health stress burnout and coping strategies The general papers include studies on coping strategies among Buddhists gender differences in response to church decline teenage participation in religion social capital among Friends of Cathedrals psychological profiles of clergy education effects on Roman Catholic deacons and an analysis of prayer requests Together these papers form a valuable collection indicating the depth and vibrancy of research in these fields Contributors are Tania Ap Sion Rachel Blouin Christine Brewster the late Deborah Bruce Cheng Clara Michelle Giuseppe Crea Benjamin Doolittle Joseph Ferrari Leslie J Francis Philip Hughes Patrick Laycock Steve McMullin Judith Muskett Gemma Penny Russell Phillips Rae Jean Proeschold Bell Kelvin Randall Mandy Robbins Jenny Rolph Paul Rolph Greg Smith Sam Sterland Andrew Village Kay William Cynthia Woolever and Keith Wulff      The Impact of Church Consultancy Ian G. Duncum, 2019-01-14 This book follows the journey of ten churches who underwent church consultancies and explores in depth both the consultancy and its outcomes Pre consultancy and post consultancy snapshots four to five years apart of vitality indicators and attendance figures using National Church Life Survey and other data are used to compare these with churches that have not undertaken church consultancies Theologies of church consultancy church health and church growth are also developed and examined intersecting with a wide body of literature including contemporary ecclesiologies Consultancy outcomes are examined in detail This includes interviews with pastors of some of those churches reflecting on their perceptions of whether and how the church consultancy impacted the health and growth of their church Conclusions are drawn about the efficacy of church consultancy in influencing the health and growth of churches as well as contexts for the best use of church consultancy This is a significant book for denominational leaders theological lecturers pastors and church leaders as they encounter lack of health in churches and seek ways forward for greater health and impact in their local communities      Congregations Carl Ellis Nelson, 1988-01-01 C Ellis Nelson has collaborated with and collected the works of ten leaders experienced in congregational affairs to design and produce a resource that helps ministers and lay leaders understand the dynamics of congregations The result is an engaging collection that will help pastors and church leaders invigorate their congregations      Charting the Faith of Australians Philip Hughes, 2016-05 The last 50 years have seen more rapid change than at any time in human history Changes in technology have changed every aspect of life from contraception to computation from communication to community formation These changes have affected the ways in which Australians have sought meaning in their lives from the fulfilment of duty to the maximisation of subjective wellbeing They have affected deeply the role that religion has played in life with the focus moving from the preservation of tradition to personal spirituality Over the past 30 years the Christian Research Association has charted these changes It has done so through the examination of census and survey data and through interviews with thousands of individuals It has examined these changes in youth culture and rural culture and has explored the impact of migration and the rise of the Pentecostal and charismatic movements It has suggested ways in which churches and schools might respond to these changes Part 1 of this book tells the story of these changes and how the Christian Research Association has charted them Part 2 contains contributions from various researchers discussing how the Christian Research Association has served the churches Part 3 explores some extensions of and parallels to the work of the Christian Research Association in relation to religious institutions migration and other research The story told in this book is a personal story for Dr Philip Hughes the senior research officer of the Christian Research Association from 1985 to 2016 But it is also a story of global significance as Christian and other religious institutions grapple with changes to their place in society and their roles in changing perceptions of life

Jeff Woods, 1995-12-31 Each congregation must evaluate itself in light of its own mix of gifts backgrounds talents and opportunities Presenting the best of evaluation theory past and present Woods shows clergy and lay leaders how to engage in mutual evaluation not judgment of ministry mission and community as a shared responsibility The goal is building up the congregation A special chapter provides commentary from church evaluation experts Roy Oswald Alban Paul Light ABUSA denominational staff and Jill Hudson PCUSA judicatory executive on dilemmas congregations face in evaluation

Exploring a Heritage Anne-Louise Eriksson, Göran Gunner, Niclas Blåder, 2012-11-08 From a historical perspective similarities among the Lutheran churches in Denmark Iceland Norway and Sweden are easily understood But these previously homogeneous northern societies built on a Lutheran tradition with close ties between church and state are now considered to be among the most secular in the world as well as being impacted by a growing presence of other religions These changes present a major challenge to the churches concerning how to relate to the state and how to be a folk church The goal of this volume is to explore how Lutheran identity presently shapes churches in the north What are the burning issues engaging these churches at the beginning of the third millennium Are there signs that they are affected by the global emergence of a theology and practice commonly known as Neo Pentecostal or Charismatic What is the situation for women in these churches embedded in societies ranked among the world's most egalitarian In what ways does their Lutheran heritage influence how these churches shape themselves today The point of departure for this study is not a predetermined normative understanding of what a Lutheran church is or should be but the fact that the churches presented here represent what Lutheranism is today in this part of the world Contributors include Anne Louise Eriksson Steinunn Arnthrudur Björnsdóttir Solveig Anna Boasdóttir Niclas Blader Carl Reinhold Brakenhielm Thomas Ekstrand Arnfriur Gu mundsdóttir Goran Gunner Harald Hegstad Hjalti Hugason Roger Jensen Halvard Johannessen Peter Lodberg Benedicte Hammer Pr stholm Karin Sarja Ulrika Svalfors Merete Thomassen Marie Thomsen Marie Vejrup Nielsen and Else Marie Wiberg Pedersen
