Legal Constraints on EU Member States in Drafting Accession Agreements Narin Idriz,2022-06-22 Do Member States of the EU have a free hand in drafting Accession Treaties or are there legal constraints on their primary law making powers in this regard That is the main question this book addresses It argues that such constraints do exist and seeks to identify them thereby providing a number of insights into the nature of the EU s legal order The point of departure as well as the main focus of the study is the proposed permanent safeguard clause PSC on the free movement of persons in the Negotiating Framework for Turkey Legal provisions rules principles and norms that might constrain Member States in this regard are identified with reference to the PSC The book examines constraints on Member States stemming from three sources of EU law Association Law based on the existing legal framework built on the EEC Turkey Association Agreement Part I EU Enlargement Law comprised of past practice and existing EU rules on enlargement Part II and the foundations of EU Constitutional Law Part III which constrain Member States whenever they act within the scope of Union law both as primary and secondary lawmakers Part III reveals what the Court of Justice of the EU considers to be the essence or the very foundations of the Union's legal order which it protects against encroachment This is similar to what some constitutional courts do to protect the inner unity or basic structure of their constitutions The findings of this book can be applied to the accession of any candidate state It also sheds light on important implications for future treaty amendments and for identifying possible limits to differentiated integration

Cooperation and Enlargement: Two Challenges to be Addressed in the European Projects—2022 Ghislaine Pellat, Jovan Zafiroski, Marian Šuplata, 2023-11-10 In this book the ERECO PGV 1 network wishes to make an overview of the cooperation implemented by and in the European Union and to describe the concrete forms they have taken The issue is to analyze the internal European cooperation between economic actors politicians and EU citizens at different levels but also to focus attention on the external cooperation neighborhood policies external policies and collaborations with international institutions NATO OECD WTO etc Carrying uncompromising attention on this issue means rethinking the European project in light of today's challenges From the very beginning the EU was based on and called for forms of multinational cooperation bilateral internal and external at different levels involving economic actors public actors local authorities and civil society The frameworks for this cooperation as well as for the successive enlargements of the EU were drawn up in the context of European negotiations in particular during discussions on the European Treaties European values standards and rules are embodied in the texts of agreements resolutions and European directives and Treaties signed by all member countries They establish the functioning of European institutions and the framework of democratic life in Europe The emergence of current crises Brexit COVID 19 migration crisis non respect of rule of law rules refusal of certain member countries to apply the European Charter of Human Rights etc is questioning the project of the European Union and introduced the challenges which should be overcome by the proposal of the new project able to face the internal complexity of the Union and to answer to the pressure of a conflicting international context What remains of the European ideal affirmed in the treaties of 1957 1992 and 2007 How to re-enchant the common project Yet the European Union remains attractive to new candidate countries How do they read the integration conditions into the EU with regard to their own projects

Russia and the European Union Cynthia A. Roberts, 2007 Russia and the West have avoided renewed confrontation despite many post Cold War crises but illiberal trends in Russia rule out any prospect of developing a mutual agenda for closer integration Russian engagement with the leading Euro Atlantic institutions on a special but still subordinate nonmember basis remains a clever yet suboptimal substitute Such relationships as this monograph about Russia and the European Union explains tend to produce shallow collaboration symbolic summitry and costly standoffs Closer cooperation is blocked by an ongoing dispute over terms which is rooted in asymmetries in power ambivalent preferences uncertainty about the distributional costs and benefits of deeper engagement and Russia's continued unwillingness or inability to lock in the liberal domestic structures necessary to make credible commitments Moscow's renewed self confidence and geopolitical ambitions bolstered by sustained economic growth and high energy prices complicate the bargaining and further strain these special relationships which persist for lack of a realistic superior alternative

Post-Crisis Growth and Integration in Europe E. Nowotny, P. Mooslechner, Doris Ritzberger-Grünwald, 2011-01-01 Against the backdrop of the financial crisis that unfolded in 2008 this book deals with policy challenges going forward focusing in particular on the ongoing catching up process in Central Eastern and South Eastern European CESEE countries Whilst having emerged relatively unscathed from the crisis the CESEE economies nonetheless need to adjust to the new external conditions they will encounter In this respect decision makers are faced with multiple sources of uncertainty will post crisis growth be the same as pre crisis growth What will be the future role of financial integration growth financing and exports What are the particular challenges facing monetary policy makers and the banking sector in the region On these issues and related topics the book provides a multi disciplinary assessment combining the views of high ranking central bankers and other policy makers commercial bankers and academics Economists and students of economic policy and European integration from central commercial and investment banks governments international organizations universities and research institutes will find this book of great interest and importance especially those working on Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe

Against Islamophobia Arno Tausch, 2007 In this book the author presents optimistic socio liberal conclusions about Islam in the world system Countering some alarmist voices in the West neither migration nor Muslim culture are to be blamed for the contemporary crisis but the very nature of unequal capitalist accumulation and dependency that is at the core of the world capitalist system For one the analysis is based on current thinking on Kondratiev waves of world political development inherent in recent work by IIASA and the NATO Institute for Advanced Studies Analyses are also presented on the framework of the debate on cross national determinants of human well being in the world system While the author is cautiously optimistic about a socio liberal non interventionist policy alternative he has come to the conclusion that present patterns of global governance modeled around the neo liberal Washington Consensus and American hyperpower are doomed for failure A new socio liberal global consensus on global migration global order and global governance could emerge instead Economic Globalization and Governance Luís Brites Pereira, Maria Eugénia Mata, Miguel Rocha de Sousa, 2020-10-16 Reflecting the diverse and profound changes triggered by the latest wave of economic globalization this book highlights various governance responses at national regional and global levels The topics covered are wide ranging and include economic history and development European integration exchange rate arrangements industrial and labor economics international cooperation and multilateralism and public choice The book is divided into three parts The first part which contains contributions by Barry Eichengreen and Marc Flandreau is devoted to economic history The second part examines open economy macroeconomics with a focus on Europe including contributions by Jurgen von Hagen and Paul Krugman The third part presents contributions to international political economy and related interdisciplinary topics This Festschrift is written in honor of Jorge Braga de Macedo Professor Emeritus of Economics at the Nova School of Business and Economics and a distinguished Portuguese academic whose work has an impressive global reach The contributions written by a selection of international authors deal with his oeuvre covering the wide range of topics broached in this book as his publication record amply attests

Shiells,2003-11-01 In view of disappointing levels of inward foreign direct investment FDI this paper examines capital flows into the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS countries and investigates the main impediments to a more favorable investment climate Direct investment inflows have generally been related to natural resource extraction or energy transportation infrastructure projects large privatization transactions and debt equity swaps to pay for energy supplies Low FDI inflows despite strengthening macroeconomic performance has reflected a weak investment climate particularly owing to incomplete structural reforms IMF staff working on the countries concerned cited burdensome tax systems widespread corruption extensive state intervention coupled with weak legal and regulatory frameworks and incomplete structural reforms as the main impediments

Euro Adoption in Central and Eastern Europe Ms.Susan Schadler,2005-04-18 Eight central and eastern European countries the Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Slovak Republic and Slovenia officially joined the

European Union EU in May 2004 This auspicious milestone marked the beginning of the next major step for these countries in their move toward full integration with the EU adoption of the euro Seeking to consider the opportunities and challenges of euro adoption the papers in this volume by a noted group of country officials academics representatives of international institutions and market participants offer insight on the various dimensions of euro adoption in these eight new EU members how they should prepare whether an early move is optimal and what pitfalls may occur along the way The Political Economy of the Eurozone in Central and Eastern Europe Krisztina Arató,Boglarka Koller,Anita Pelle,2021-06-30 The idea for this volume came from the enigma that some Central and Eastern European CEE European Union EU member states have been keen to join the Eurozone while others have shown persistent reluctance Moreover the attitudes towards joining have seemingly not correlated with either the level of economic development or the time spent as part of the EU nor with any other rational reason such as the level of integration into the EU real economy or the level of trust in the EU on the part of the public Therefore at first sight the answer to the question why in why out remains rather unclear The attractiveness of the currency union has nevertheless not disappeared for the CEE countries Despite the Eurozone crisis of 2010 13 it was during that time that the Baltic states introduced the euro Then after a few years of inactivity Croatia and Bulgaria successfully applied for membership of the exchange rate mechanism in July 2020 amid the economic crisis caused by the coronavirus COVID 19 pandemic At the same time the three Visegrad countries still using their national currencies Poland Czechia and Hungary no longer have a target date to join the monetary union This volume aims to discuss these issues from horizontal aspects and through country studies with contributions from expert authors from or closely related to the CEE region
