Intimacy Martin Fisher,2012-12-06 Intimacy is a complex and heterogeneous concept that has generated a variety of definitions theories and philosophies over the years Al though there is much disagreement about the essential meaning of the term there seems to be a consensus that intimacy whatever it may be is of central importance in human relationships and specifically in the theory and practice of psychotherapy One approach to intimacy focuses on an intrapsychic conception Intimacy occurs when an individual achieves full self knowledge and is fully in touch with his or her feelings and wishes From this viewpoint an intimate act occurs when a person is willing to share these feelings and wishes with another so that self disclosure becomes an important index of intimacy This definition also implies that intimacy need not be reciprocal so that a therapeutic relationship can achieve a good deal of intimacy without the therapist engaging in self disclosure An alternate approach to intimacy stresses the interpersonal nature of the concept Intimacy is seen as the product of an interaction and can only occur between people Each one is able to touch something meaningful in the other whether at a conscious behavioral level or an unconscious and inferential level Therapists seeking intimacy in these terms would probably be a good deal more active and consider it more important to reveal something of the substance of their own persons if not the facts of their lives Infertility and Intimacy in an Online Community Paulina Billett,Anne-Maree Sawyer,2018-09-29 This book explores an online support group for women who are infertile Offering a close up view of the women s identities and emotions as they navigate the roller coaster world of infertility a range of questions are addressed How do the women seek support How do they offer support to one another How are intimacies produced in the online space Through narrative analysis of online journals and posts the authors examine the impact of infertility on women s perceptions of their bodies their struggles with medical professionals on their relationships with family and friends and the challenges that a diagnosis of infertility presents to couples Infertility and Intimacy in an Online Community will appeal to social scientists students from a range of health science disciplines counsellors and health professionals and women and men who are dealing with infertility

The Intimate Male Linda Levine,1983-12 The Ground Between Veena Das,Michael Jackson,Arthur Kleinman,Bhrigupati Singh,2014-04-21 The guiding inspiration of this book is the attraction and distance that mark the relation between anthropology and philosophy This theme is explored through encounters between individual anthropologists and particular regions of philosophy Several of the most basic concepts of the discipline including notions of ethics politics temporality self and other and the nature of human life are products of a dialogue both implicit and explicit between anthropology and philosophy These philosophical undercurrents in anthropology also speak to the question of what it is to experience our being in a world marked by radical difference and otherness In The Ground Between twelve leading anthropologists offer intimate reflections on the influence of particular philosophers on their way of seeing the world and on what ethnography has taught them about philosophy Ethnographies of the mundane and the everyday raise fundamental issues that the contributors grapple with in both their lives and their thinking With directness and honesty they relate particular philosophers to matters such as how to respond to the suffering of the other how concepts arise in the give and take of everyday life and how to be attuned to the world through the senses Their essays challenge the idea that philosophy is solely the province of professional philosophers and suggest that certain modalities of being in the world might be construed as ways of doing philosophy Contributors Jo o Biehl Steven C Caton Vincent Crapanzano Veena Das Didier Fassin Michael M J Fischer Ghassan Hage Clara Han Michael Jackson Arthur Kleinman Michael Puett Bhrigupati Singh
