The Church As Learning Community Norma Cook Everist,2010-10-01 Norma Cook Everist contends that it is meaningful to say that in ministries of administration outreach and pastoral care the church is functioning as a learning community Whenever and wherever Christians are being formed into the image of Jesus Christ through ministry there Christian education is taking place Christian education is the name we give to that process of formation Building on this central insight Everist has written a major new introduction to the tasks and practices of Christian education Part 1 of the book focuses broadly on what it means to be the church in the world Part 2 shows how being a learning community requires ongoing growth in faith throughout the span of life Part 3 shifts focus to the church as it moves into the community and world

Cultivating Competence Sarah B. Drummond,2025-08-19 Institutions demand that leaders attend to a vast array of concerns on a daily basis In an increasingly diverse wired and fast paced leadership landscape where problems are deep seated and complicated no one can manage leadership alone Leaders must attend to their own leadership development just to keep their heads above water They must also delegate their authority and entrust it to those around them That said handing over authority to those who lack adequate preparation can cause harm to the community It can also burn out a person who could have contributed meaningfully to the community over years or decades Delegation without preparation represents a failure of a leader to protect a community s assets The institutional leader must model that leadership can and must be learned over time through various disciplines that all start with taking leadership seriously Then they must provide opportunities with however light a touch leads to positive results for those in their care to grow in leadership They must assume that even those who walk in the door with knowledge and experience are not ready for leadership today for it is changing fast for everyone Living in Christ Stephen W. Hiemstra, 2020-04-20 Our journey in Christian ethics starts with God in whose image we are created Creation begins with birth and continues as we mature Our character matures shaped by the example of Christ under the mentorship of the Holy Spirit through the family and the church Christian leaders reach full maturity once they are able to mentor others we are blessed to be a blessing Living in Christ focuses on explaining not justifying Christian ethics At a time and in a place where people scoff at developing a theological understanding of their faith and refuse to teach Christian morality ethics is almost a lost art At the heart of the ethical dilemma is a tension between theological principles that can only be resolved the guidance of the Holy Spirit How do you practice forgiveness for sinners who refuse to confess their sin and force you to bear its consequences In this context ethics is less a philosophical discipline than a recognition of our own limitations as Christians and the need for divine intervention Ethical thought and action always involve interpretation under the guidance of the Holy Spirit It is thus ironic that a book on Christian living should have an outward focus on God rather than an inward focus on what to do and not do This interpretative element colors how we view character formation the community of faith leadership and the many special issues that arise in daily life Hear the words walk the steps experience the joy Writing Theology Well 2nd Edition Lucretia B. Yaghjian, 2015-09-24 A working guide for students conducting theological writing and research on theology and biblical studies courses this book integrates the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology to provide a standard text for the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it also encourages excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts This 2nd Edition includes new chapters on Writing Theology in a New Language which explores the linguistic and cultural challenges of writing theology well in a non native language and Writing and Learning Theology in an Electronic Age addressed to distance learning students learning to write theology well from online courses and dealing with the technologies necessary to do so My Life Journey: Both Upwards and Downwards Barbara B. Troxell, 2025-02-24 In this book Barbara shares her personal experiences as a leader in parish and campus ministries as a spiritual director as a retreat leader as a seminary professor and in the development of inner authority and professional opportunities among clergywomen She also affirms her deep appreciation of many kinds of music throughout her life
