An Illustrated Pocket Guide to the Sharks of the World David A. Ebert, Sarah Fowler, Sarah L. Fowler, 2014-06-16
Sharks are probably the most misunderstood animals on the planet We all still have a lot to learn about these fascinating creatures which are sadly more seriously threatened with extinction and in greater need of conservation and management action than any other major group of vertebrates We have produced this guide not just because we and so many other people love sharks It is also because their identification whether of living animals fishery catches or body parts sold at markets is an essential tool to support shark conservation fisheries management and international trade regulation prevent further depletion of stocks and enable their recovery the first pocket guide to all 501 shark species all species illustrated and described handy compact format with concise text a six page guide to shark teeth identification an eight page guide to the identification of the shark fins most commonly encountered in the fin trade Colour plates are by Marc Dando from the hugely acclaimed Sharks of the World A Fully Illustrated Guide Sharks and Their Relatives Merry Camhi, 1998 Sharks and their relatives the rays and chimaeras are the diverse group of cartilaginous fishes that have evolved over 400 million years Historically considered of low economic value to large scale fisheries today many of these fishes have become the target of directed commercial and recreational fisheries around the world and they are increasingly taken in the by catch of fisheries targeting other species This report emphasizes the widely acknowledged need to improve shark fishery monitoring expand biological research and take management action It serves as an introduction to the ecology status and conservation of the sharks and their relatives for a general audience Shark fisheries can only be managed sustainably and shark populations remain viable with the introduction of new conservation and management initiatives 5th International Marine Conservation Congress E. Christien Michael Parsons, Edward Jeremy Hind-Ozan, Leslie Cornick, Mariana Padron, Jason Paul Landrum, 2022-03-29
