Sharon Lockhart Teatro Amazonas:

Sharon Lockhart Sharon Lockhart, Dominic Molon, Norman Bryson, Museum of Contemporary Art (Chicago, Ill.), 2001 With essays by MCA curator Dominic Molon who concentrates on the artist's transformation of conceptual photography and structuralist film and art historian Norman Bryson who presents a compelling examination of Lockhart's nuanced approach to narrative and the gaze this richly illustrated volume focuses on Lockhart's photographic and cinematic work since 1994 including her major film projects Goshogaoka 1997 and Teatro Amazonas 1999 BOOK JACKET Sharon Lockhart Howard Singerman, 2020-02-18 A nuanced reading of an artwork that explores a place transitory and pastoral where childhood might be lived and imagined differently Sharon Lockhart's Pine Flat 2006 takes its name from a small hamlet in the foothills of the western slope of the Sierra Nevadas just inside the Giant Sequoia National Monument The work itself comprises three distinct parts a set of three photographs of landscapes a larger set of posed studio portraits of children and young teenagers and a 138 minute 16 millimeter film which is itself assembled from twelve ten minute scenes each a single immobile take divided in half by a ten minute intermission This volume in Afterall's One Work series offers a nuanced reading of Lockhart's work with color illustrations from both series of photographs and the film Art historian Howard Singerman sees in Pine Flat not a straightforward portrait of a community of children or ethnography of a place Rather the work explores the possibility of a space for childhood in which children have the right to intimacy innocence and interest outside adult narratives The children in Pine Flat are posed formally and conventionally but the space they occupy and the identities they construct are their own Youth culture has long been exploited to sell itself in order to be sold to today the rights of children to their own childhoods are constantly eroded In Pine Flat Singerman argues Lockhart proposes a place transitory and pastoral where childhood might be lived differently imagined under a different order of power and possibility Sharon Lockhart Sharon Lockhart, Sabine Eckmann, 2010 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at the Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum St Louis Mo Feb 5 Apr 19 2010 Colby College Museum of Art Waterville Me July 10 Oct 17 2010 and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art May 21 Sep 6 2011 Between Stillness and Motion Eivind Røssaak, 2011 Since the development of film as an artistic medium in the 1890s there has been an inherent tension between still photographic images and moving cinematic images from their form and function to the messages they convey and their impact on the beholder and on culture at large This volume one of the first book length works to analyze critique and further the international debate about the meaning and use of motion and stillness in film and photography takes these concepts out of the theoretical arena of cinematic studies and applies them to the wider and ever changing landscape of images and media With contributions from such acclaimed international scholars as Tom Gunning Thomas Elsaesser Mark B N Hansen George Baker Ina Blom and Christa Bluminger these collected essays examine the strategic uses of stillness and motion in art from the mid nineteenth century to the technologically driven present Lateness and Longing George Baker, 2023-05-23 How a generation of women artists is transforming photography with analogue techniques Beginning in the 1990s a series of major artists imagined the expansion of photography intensifying its ideas and effects while abandoning many of its former medium constraints Simultaneous with this development in contemporary art however photography was moving toward total digitalization Lateness and Longing presents the first account of a generation of artists focused on the work of Zoe Leonard Tacita Dean Sharon Lockhart and Moyra Davey who have collectively transformed the practice of photography using analogue technologies in a dissident way and radicalizing signifiers of older models of feminist art All these artists have resisted the transition to the digital in their work Instead in what amounts to a series of feminist polemics they return to earlier incomplete or unrealized moments in photography's history gravitating toward the analogue basis of photographic mediums Their work announces that photography has become not obsolete but late opened up by the potentially critical forces of anachronism Through a strategy of return of refusing to let go the work of these artists proposes an afterlife and survival of the photographic in contemporary art a formal lateness wherein photography finds its way forward through resistance to the contemporary itself

Women's Experimental Cinema Robin Blaetz, 2007-10-16 This volume offers introductions to the work of fifteen avant garde American women filmmakers

Expanded Visions Arnd Schneider, 2021-06-01 This book argues for a new anthropology of the moving image bringing together an important range of essays on time based media in the contemporary arts and anthropology It builds on recent attempts to develop more experimental formats and engages with debates on epistemologies of ethnography relational aesthetics materiality sensory ethnography and observational and participatory cinema Arnd Schneider critically revisits Baudrillard's idea of the simulacrum and the hyperreal engages with new media theory and elaborates on the potential of the Writing Culture critique for moving image practices bordering art and anthropology This collection of essays is essential reading for anybody working across the fields of visual anthropology film and media studies and visual studies Schneider ambitiously considers the complex relationship between the moving image and anthropology highlighting the potential for innovative approaches experimental methods and expanded perspectives in both fields

A Critical Cinema 5 Scott MacDonald, 2006-01-30 A Critical Cinema 5 is the fifth volume in Scott MacDonald's Critical Cinema series the most extensive in depth exploration of independent cinema available in English In this new set of interviews MacDonald engages filmmakers in detailed discussions of their films and of the personal experiences and political and theoretical currents that have shaped their work The interviews are arranged to express the remarkable diversity of modern independent cinema and the interactive community of filmmakers that has dedicated itself to producing forms of cinema that critique conventional media

In Place of a Show Augusto Corrieri, 2016-05-19 In Place of a Show is a compelling account of Western theatre buildings in the 21st century theatres stripped of their primary purpose lying empty preserved as museums or demolished Playfully combining first person narratives scholarly research and visual documents Augusto Corrieri explores the material and imaginative potentials of these places charting interconnections between humans birds vegetation and the beguiling animations of inanimate things such as walls curtains and seats Across four chapters we learn of the uncanny dismantling and reconstitution of a German Baroque auditorium during the Second World War the phantasmal remains of a demolished music hall in London s East End a Renaissance Italian theatre fleetingly transformed into an aviary by the appearance of a swallow and a lavish opera house emerging from the Amazon rainforest In these pages we are invited to discover theatres as sites of anomalous encounters and surprising coincidences places that might reveal the performative entanglement of human and nonhuman worlds Whitney Biennial Maxwell L. Anderson, Whitney Museum of American Art, Michael G. Auping, 2000 Since 1932 the Whitney Museum s Biennial Exhibitions have counted among the milestones in the history of American art and have played a leading role in presenting vanguard developments in art to the general public Countless prominent artists have made their museum debut at these diverse surveys of painting sculpture works on paper film and video performance and installation For the eagerly awaited first Biennial of the new millennium the Whitney has assembled a versatile team of curators from around the nation to select and invite the participating artists Once again the Whitney will help to establish a critical perspective on the latest creative achievements by American artists Intimate Frontiers Felipe Martínez-Pinzón, Javier Uriarte, 2019 A collection of multinational scholarly contributions on various cultural aspects of the Amazon region in the 20th century American Avant-garde Cinema's Philosophy of the In-between Rebecca Sheehan, 2020 Can films philosophize rather than simply represent philosophical ideas developed outside of the cinematic medium Taking up this crucial question for the emergent field of film philosophy American Avant Garde Cinema s Philosophy of the In Between argues that the films of the American avant garde do in fact do philosophy and illuminates the ethical stakes of their aesthetic interventions Author Rebecca A Sheehan contends that American avant garde cinema s characteristic self reflexivity is an interrogation of the modes and stakes of our engagement with the world on and beyond the screen The book demonstrates this with the theory of the in between a pervasive figure that helps clarify how avant garde cinema s reflections on the creation of images construct an ethics of perception itself a responsibility to perpetuate thought in an enduring re encounter with the world and with meaning s unfinished production The book is structured by a taxonomy of the multiple in betweens evident in American avant garde filmmaking Rather than systematically seeking reproductions of particular philosophers ideas in avant garde films Sheehan derives categories of analysis and the philosophical claims they disclose from close readings of the films themselves This methodology opposes mapping preconfigured philosophical concepts and values onto these films as too many philosophical approaches to cinema have done silencing the philosophies uniquely articulated by these films in the interest of making them ventriloquize philosophies advanced elsewhere The chapters of this book trace three modes of the in between that function philosophically in American avant garde cinema the material the dimensional and the conceptual Although the chapters are organized around discrete aesthetic and philosophical preoccupations that unify several filmmakers these three presentations of the in between cut through all the chapters allowing the subjects of each to converse over the course of the book
