Sharpening Conflict Management Religious Leadership And The Double Edged Sword:

Sharpening Conflict Management Joseph G. Bock, 2001-09-30 Bock begins with a description of ethnoreligious violence in the world today and then offers a case study about Hindu Muslim riots in India that illustrates how religion is used to engineer violence by those who gain from it The way that religion foments violence as compared to how it can be used to prevent it is analyzed in a chapter on the flash point asymmetry problem While religion in the direction of hatred seems to be sharp like a sword it is argued that in some respects it is more like a butterknife in the direction of understanding and tolerance The second part of Dr Bock s analysis identifies ways in which religious leaders seeking to prevent ethnoreligious violence might be more effective He argues that religious leaders must be prepared to respond assertively to ethnoreligious aggression at early stages not waiting for violence to erupt Further these leaders need to help people discipline their information processing so that they are not influenced by bigoted rumors They must also cultivate a sense of belonging among their followers and exercise their authority by speaking out on matters of theology He concludes that there are at least seven ways in which religious leaders have similar influence as their violence promoting counterparts This is an important resource for scholars researchers students and trainers involved with peace studies conflict resolution applied theology and South Asia and Middle East studies

The Ashgate Research Companion to Religion and Conflict Resolution Lee Marsden, 2016-03-23 A comprehensive overview of the latest research in religion and conflict resolution this collection of twenty three essays brings together leading scholars in the field examining the contribution religious actors have made and are making towards peace and resolving The Ashgate Research Companion to Religion and Conflict Resolution is primarily aimed at readerships with special interest in conflict resolution international security and religion and international relations and will also serve as a valuable resource for policy makers and conflict resolution practitioners The collection comprises five thematic sections each with chapters on vital and mainly contemporary topics in the field of religion and conflict resolution

Bock,2012 Towards an applied theory of violence prevention Reporting and warning about deadly possibilities Organizing against ethnoreligious violence in Ahmedabad Overcoming gang violence in Chicago Counteracting ethnoreligious violence in Sri Lanka Crowdsourcing during post election violence in Kenya Foisting tribal violence in East Africa Comparing the approaches How to intervene effectively What to do when violence prevention is unlikely to work Concerns about misallocation of resources Future directions and recommendations Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies Lois Edmund,2021-05-21 This book integrates research and theoretical findings from multiple disciplines to present a holistic approach to conflict resolution It highlights the wide ranging and compelling relevance of Conflict Resolution Studies by exploring the entire spectrum of applications in interpersonal relationships family and group functioning and national and international relations International Law and Peace Settlements Marc Weller,Mark Retter,Andrea Varga,2021-02-04 International Law and Peace Settlements provides a systematic and comprehensive assessment of the relationship between international law and peace settlement practice across core settlement issues e g transitional justice human rights refugees self determination power sharing and wealth sharing The contributions address key cross cutting questions on the legal status of peace agreements the potential for developing international law and the role of key actors such as non state armed groups third state witnesses and guarantors and the UN Security Council in the legalisation and internationalisation of settlement commitments In recent years significant scholarly work has examined facets of the relationship between international law and peace settlements through concepts such as jus post bellum and lex pacificatoria International Law and Peace Settlements drives forward the debate on the legalisation and internationalisation of peace agreements with diverse contributions from leading academics and practitioners in international law and conflict resolution Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan,2013-05-20 This 2 volume set within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move leadership in communities of faith leadership as taught in theological education and training religious leadership impacting social change and social justice and more Topics are examined from multiple perspectives traditions and faiths Features Benefits By focusing on key topics with 100 brief chapters we provide students with more depth than typically found in encyclopedia entries but with less jargon or density than the typical journal article or research handbook chapter Signed chapters are written in language and style that is broadly accessible Each chapter is followed by a brief bibliography and further readings to guide students to sources for more in depth exploration in their research journeys A detailed index cross references between chapters and an online version enhance accessibility for today s student audience

Pursuing Just Peace: An Overview and Case Studies for Faith-Based Peacebuilders Mark M. Rogers, Tom

Bamat, Julie Ideh, 2008-03-24 This book on faith based peacebuilding is a practical resource for peacebuilding practitioners and all others who are grappling with injustice and conflict Seven case studies describe concrete initiatives within highly diverse contexts Three case studies focus on strengthening internal church peacebuilding capacity through peace education one looks at the role of alliances and networks in advocacy for addressing gender based violence and three focus on ecumenical and inter religious collaboration An introductory essay provides a general overview and literature review for faith based peacebuilding discusses processes and describes key roles that faith based actors can play Crescent and Dove

Qamar-ul Huda, 2010 Crescent and Dove looks at the relationship between contemporary Islam and peacemaking by tackling the diverse interpretations concepts and problems in the field of Islamic peacemaking It addresses both theory and practice by delving into the intellectual heritage of Islam to discuss historical examples of addressing conflict in Islam and exploring the practical challenges of contemporary peacemaking in Arab countries Turkey Iran Pakistan and Indonesia The Little

Book of Trauma Healing: Revised & Updated Carolyn Yoder, 2020-06-02 How do we address trauma interrupt cycles of violence and build resilience in a turbulent world of endless wars nationalism othering climate crisis racism pandemics and terrorism This fully updated edition offers a practical framework processes and useful insights The traumas of our world go beyond individual or one time events They are collective ongoing and the legacy of historical injustices How do we stay awake rather than numbing or responding violently How do we cultivate individual and collective courage and resilience This Little Book provides a justice and conflict informed community approach to addressing trauma in nonviolent

neurobiologically sound ways that interrupt cycles of violence and meet basic human needs for justice and security In these pages you ll find the core framework and tools of the internationally acclaimed Strategies for Trauma Awareness and Resilience STAR program developed at Eastern Mennonite University s Center for Justice and Peacebuilding in response to 9 11 A startlingly helpful approach Integrated Peacebuilding Craig Zelizer, 2018-04-19 Integrated Peacebuilding addresses the importance of weaving peacebuilding methods into diverse sectors including development humanitarian assistance gender business media health and the environment areas where such work is needed the most Incorporating peacebuilding approaches in these fields is critical for transforming today s protracted conflicts into tomorrow s sustainable peace Covering both theory and practice Dr Zelizer and his team of leading academics and practitioners present original essays discussing the infrastructure of the peacebuilding field outlining key actors donors and underlying motivations as well as the ethical dilemmas created by modern conflict Exploring both the challenges and lessons to be found in this emerging field Integrated Peacebuilding is perfect for courses on peacebuilding conflict resolution international development and related fields

Little Book of Trauma Healing Carolyn Yoder, 2015-01-27 Following the staggering events of September 11 2001 the Center for Justice and Peacebuilding at Eastern Mennonite University was asked to help along with Church World Service to equip religious and civil leaders for dealing with traumatized communities The staff and faculty proposed Strategies for Trauma Awareness and Resilience STAR programs Now STAR director Carolyn Yoder has shaped the strategies and learnings from those experiences into a book for all who have known terrorism and threatened security A startlingly helpful approach A title in The Little Books of Justice and Peacebuilding Series When the Center Does Not Hold David R. Brubaker,2019-11-05 Over the past forty years congregations businesses other organizations and communities across the United States have become increasingly divided along political and ideological lines In When the Center Does Not Hold David R Brubaker with contributions by colleagues Everett Brubaker Carolyn Yoder and Teresa J Haase offers relevant practical mentorship on navigating polarized environments Through easily accessible stories they provide tools and processes that will equip leaders to both manage themselves and effectively lead others in highly polarized and anxious systems Coaching includes guidance on key characteristics of effective leadership in times of polarization refusing contempt honoring dignity broadening binaries seeking first to understand inviting disagreement and staying connected With years of combined experience in the fields of conflict transformation and organizational and leadership studies Brubaker and his colleagues offer hope Here readers learn from leaders and communities that continue to renew the covenants that bind them courageously address deeper needs that drive conflict and hold on to a moral center while navigating the storms of polarization Building Sustainable Futures Luc Reyhler,Julianne Funk Deckard,Kevin HR Villanueva,2009-01-01 The overall theme of the 2008 IPRA Global Conference focuses on the interaction between economic development environmental change conflict prevention and peacebuilding efforts in the 21st century The challenge is to re search new futures This collaborative book project ultimately reflects the constant evolution of Peace Studies as it is reflected in its expanding areas of research and the institutional structures which provide the vertebrae so that the former can develop with greater depth continuity and sustainability This is the reason why HumanitarianNet has teamed up with IPRA to produce this collection of articles The Review of Faith & International Affairs ,2009 Communicating Peace and Conflict Isaac Olawale Albert,Olusola O.
