of the Year and a Publishers Weekly Top Ten in Science Title Every person is unique but science has struggled to pinpoint where precisely that uniqueness resides Our genome may determine our eye color and even aspects of our character But our friendships failures and passions also shape who we are The question is How Sebastian Seung is at the forefront of a revolution in neuroscience He believes that our identity lies not in our genes but in the connections between our brain cells our particular wiring Seung and a dedicated group of researchers are leading the effort to map these connections neuron by neuron synapse by synapse It s a monumental effort but if they succeed they will uncover the basis of personality identity intelligence memory and perhaps disorders such as autism and schizophrenia Connectome is a mind bending adventure story offering a daring scientific and technological vision for understanding what makes us who we are as individuals and as a species This is complicated stuff and it is a testament to Dr Seung s remarkable clarity of exposition that the reader is swept along with his enthusiasm as he moves from the basics of neuroscience out to the farthest regions of the hypothetical
