Shattered Dreams Lonely Choices Birthparents Of Babies With Disabilities Talk About Adoption:

Shattered Dreams--Lonely Choices Joanne Finnegan,1993-07-13 Dreams of pregnancy include the expectation that nine months of waiting will end with a joyous event But each year a shattered dream occurs for thousands of couples who receive the news that their child will have a disabling condition severe enough that they may question if they are the best parents for their child Societal expectation is that parents will raise their child or if the condition of the child is detected prenatally abortion is offered as an alternative Parents who explore other options face scrutiny and sometimes condemnation lonely choices Joanne Finnegan shares her personal experience and that of several families she interviewed who like herself explored options other than raising their child with a disability Parents express with candor the overwhelming pain they felt when receiving the news the frustration when searching for options the no win feeling of decision making the resolve with a final decision and finally life after the decision Parent quotes also address issues such as spiritual dilemmas and interactions with friends family their other children and medical professionals Words of advice for new parents include how to build support systems and gather information how to search for an adoptive family and arranging the details of communication between adoptive and birth parents Interviews with adoptive parents poetry and extensive resource lists complete the book Written as a gift for other parents to help them cope with the pain and loneliness of decision making this book will also be a valuable resource for medical professionals adoption and social workers counselors and spiritual advisors and friends and family of the parents It is a helpful as well as a deeply therapeutic book providing a strong lesson in how to manage during this stressful time from receiving the news about the baby s condition and prognosis to weighing the factors involved in the various decisions Should one take the baby home from the hospital If not home then where Foster care respite care guardianship and other forms of substitute care are mentioned The author also examines decisions about finances and support services family issues finalizing an adoption plan living with the decision regrets and future pregnancies Let All the Children Come Phyllis Kilbourn,2013-03-19 In order to minister more effectively to children with disabilities we first must understand the context surrounding children with disabilities and the consequences of disability on them This book compiled by Phyllis Kilbourn provides helpful training to those who desire to engage in more informed ministry to disabled children

Reconstructing Motherhood and Disability in the Age of Perfect Babies Gail Landsman,2008-08-18 Examining mothers of newly diagnosed disabled children within the context of new reproductive technologies and the discourse of choice this book uses anthropology and disability studies to revise the concept of normal and to establish a social environment in which the expression of full lives will prevail Emma's Laugh: A Memoir Diana Kupershmit,2025-07-30 As Diana surveyed her newborn baby s face languid body and absent cry she knew something was wrong Then the doctors delivered devastating news her first child Emma had been born with a rare genetic disorder that would leave her profoundly physically and intellectually disabled Diana imagined life with a child with disabilities as a dark and insular one a life in which she would be forced to exist in the periphery alongside her daughter Convinced of her inability to love her imperfect child and give her the best care and life she deserved Diana gave Emma up for adoption But as with all things that are meant to be Emma found her way back home As Emma grew Diana watched her live life determinedly and unapologetically radiating love always Emma evolved from a survivor to a warrior and the little girl that Diana didn't think she could love enough rearranged her heart In her short eighteen years of life Emma gifted her family the indelible lesson of the healing and redemptive power of love This is a mother's requiem to her perfectly imperfect child a child who left too soon but whose lessons continue to inspire a life lived and loved

Adoption is a Family Affair Patricia Irwin Johnston, 2012 Previous ed published in 2001 by Perspectives Press Handbook of Women's Sexual and Reproductive Health Gina M. Wingood, Ralph J. Handbook of Psychological Treatment Protocols for Children and Adolescents Vincent B. Van Hasselt, Michel Hersen, 1998-03 Drawing together systematic empirically based guidelines for accountable clinical work with children and adolescents with varying presenting problems this book is a compendium of state of the art treatment manuals Specific instructions and relevant case illustrations facilitate the practitioner's efforts to replicate the approaches

Consuming Motherhood Janelle S. Taylor, Linda L. Layne, Danielle F. Wozniak, 2004 Consuming Motherhood addresses the provocative question of how motherhood consumption as ideologies as patterns of social action mutually shape constitute each other in contemporary life

Adoption Barbara A. Moe, 2007-03-29 This compilation of the best thinking about adoption by both historical and current authorities reveals a vital ever changing practice affecting the lives of millions of people around the globe The ancient practice of adoption has changed significantly through history In colonial America parents adopted out their unwanted children those who were rude stubborn and unruly to other families Today Americans go abroad looking for children to adopt and have adopted more than a quarter million internationally

Adoption A Reference Handbook Second Edition not only traces the development of expert thinking about adoption it also looks at both sides of the latest controversial issues Should adoptions be open or closed Should the government regulate adoptions more closely or less This updated second edition offers an international perspective with a new chapter on how countries outside the United States provide adoption services This work is an indispensable resource for those thinking about adoption or researching its history

Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, 2008 Hooyman and Kramer's starting point is that loss comes in many forms and can include not only suffering the death of a person one loves but also giving birth to a child with disabilities living with chronic illness or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach loss from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges the capacity of people to integrate loss into their lives and write sensitively about the role of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in a person's response to loss from publisher information      Launching a Baby's Adoption Patricia Irwin Johnston,1997 Getting ready to adopt a baby under a year of age takes physical emotional financial and practical preparation just as being pregnant does This new resource provides practical strategies for making choices about names child care breast vs bottle feeding etc promoting attachment through the senses taste much smell sight etc as well as through routine adjustments between parenting partners dealing with post arrival blues bringing family and friends on board dealing with a birthparent's change of heart figuring out what's an adoption issue and what's not and more      Journeys After Adoption Jayne E. Schooler,Betsie L. Norris,2002-07-30 What can we learn about the experience of adoption from those who have taken that journey How can those touched by adoption navigate successfully through the issues of search reunion and aftermath Will those answers have a positive impact on adoption today Drawing upon the experiences of dozens of triad members adopted persons birth parents and adoptive parents the authors offer insight into the concerns issues joys and pain experienced by those whose lives are framed by adoption The book explores such questions as How do I make the decision to search for my parents How do I prepare emotionally What are my adoptive parents feeling and thinking What if I am rejected encounter death or reach a dead end How do I develop a relationship with siblings I've never known The authors deal sensitively with these and many other issues Attention is also given to the needs and concerns of adoptive parents as their children grow into adults Practical advice helps prepare triad members to deal emotionally and psychologically with the process of search and reunion      Beating the Adoption Odds Cynthia D. Martin,Dru Martin Groves,1998 Comprehensive authoritative and proactive Beating the Adoption Odds is the indispensable manual for both those considering adoption and those working in the adoption field      Current Literature in Family Planning Katharine Dexter McCormick Library,1993      Journal of Visual Impairment & Blindness ,1993-06      Mental Retardation Lynda Crane,2001 Using the goal of community integration as a coherent unifying conceptual focus this book presents the applied research and information that readers can use as they work with the mentally retarded Additionally this is a book with heart built on the premise that the coverage is not designed simply to appeal to readers' intellect but to their emotional and relational experience as well      The Publishers Weekly ,1993      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1993
