Shattered Images Jennifer Ann Petlick, 1992 Colonizing Bodies Mary-Ellen Kelm, 1998 Recent debates about the health of First Nations peoples have drawn a flurry of public attention and controversy and have placed the relationship between Aboriginal well being and reserve locations and allotments in the spotlight Aboriginal access to medical care and the transfer of funds and responsibility for health from the federal government to individual bands and tribal councils are also bones of contention Comprehensive discussion of such issues however has often been hampered by a lack of historical analysis Colonizing Bodies examines the impact of colonization on Aboriginal health in British Columbia during the first half of the twentieth century Mary Ellen Kelm explores how Aboriginal bodies were materially affected by Canadian Indian policy which placed restrictions on fishing and hunting allocated inadequate reserves forced children into unhealthy residential schools and criminalized Indigenous healing She goes on to consider how humanitarianism and colonial medicine were used to pathologize Aboriginal bodies and institute a regime of doctors hospitals and field matrons all working to encourage assimilation Finally Kelm reveals how Aboriginal people were able to resist and alter these forces in order to preserve their own cultural understanding of their bodies disease and medicine

Kleinmeyer, 1993 Pictures of the Dead Justin Petrillo, 1999-12 Pictures of the Dead involves 14 random murders in which the victims had their eyes severed with precision and viciousness There were no indications of theft or sexual assault but these attacks were of such exactness brutality and cunning that the police knew that this could not be the work of a typical psychopath No this had to be someone more brilliant and sadistic Enter Dr Tyr Domino The beginning question is If there is a proven existence of Photographic Memory is it possible to actually photograph memory Can we remove a person's eyes and attempt to photograph their past visions And if we are to remove them How Dr Tyr Domino must know the answer to these questions He has taken the New York Art Society by storm with his incredible photographs of indescribable visions Two seasoned police detectives have been relentlessly pursuing this unknown attacker through the corporate and public maze of confusion and terror Will they become victims of this sadistic madman All the while a blind psychic Kelley Scotto living far away from the City and the escalating chaos sculpts the visions that haunt her constant nightmares These sculptures are the physical manifestations of the photographs that Tyr Domino now reproduces Can her psychic abilities aid her in ending the violence
