Fagan,2016-07-14 Chicana o literature frequently depicts characters who exist in a vulnerable liminal space living on the border between Mexican and American identities and sometimes pushed to the edge by authorities who seek to restrict their freedom As this groundbreaking new study reveals the books themselves have occupied similarly precarious positions as Chicana o literature has struggled for economic viability and visibility on the margins of the American publishing industry while Chicana o writers have grappled with editorial practices that compromise their creative autonomy From the Edge reveals the tangled textual histories behind some of the most cherished works in the Chicana o literary canon tracing the negotiations between authors editors and publishers that determined how these books appeared in print Allison Fagan demonstrates how the texts surrounding the authors words from editorial prefaces to Spanish language glossaries from cover illustrations to reviewers blurbs have crucially shaped the reception of Chicana o literature To gain an even richer perspective on the politics of print she ultimately explores one more border space studying the marks and remarks that readers have left in the margins of these books From the Edge vividly demonstrates that to comprehend fully the roles that ethnicity language class and gender play within Chicana o literature we must understand the material conditions that governed the production publication and reception of these works By teaching us how to read the borders of the text it demonstrates how we might perceive and preserve the faint traces of those on the margins

The Miniaturists Barbara Browning, 2022-10-10 In The Miniaturists Barbara Browning explores her attraction to tininess and the stories of those who share it Interweaving autobiography with research on unexpected topics and letting her voracious curiosity guide her Browning offers a series of charming short essays that plumb what it means to ponder the minuscule She is as entranced by early twentieth century entomologist William Morton Wheeler who imagined corresponding with termites as she is by Frances Glessner Lee the mother of forensic science who built intricate dollhouses to solve crimes Whether examining Honey I Shrunk the Kids the Schoenhut toy piano dynasty portrait miniatures diminutive handwriting or Jonathan Swift's and Lewis Carroll's preoccupation with tiny people Browning shows how a preoccupation with all things tiny can belie an attempt to grasp vast even cosmic realities     Ars Interpres: An International Journal of Poetry, Translation and Art: No. 2 Alexander Deriev, 2004     Women and Aging Jo Alexander, 1986 First and best anthology to address ageism from a feminist perspective     Knowledge, 1895     Knowledge & Illustrated Scientific News Baden Fletcher Smyth Baden-Powell, Edwin Sharpe Grew, Arthur Cowper Ranyard, Wilfred Mark Webb, 1895
