Plaskow Professor Religious Studies Manhattan College and author Standing Again at Sinai The Future has an Ancient Heart Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum, 2012-08 Feminist cultural historian Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum caps her previous work with The Future has an Ancient Heart a scholarly study of the transformative legacy of African origins and values of caring sharing healing and vision carried by African migrants throughout the world Birnbaum focuses on the long endurance of these values from the first human communities in south and central Africa ones that Africans manifested in the region of the African mediterranean landmass that later separated Africa from Europe and Asia when the ice melted and waters rose These migrants reached every continent and later became spiritual as well as geographical migrations back to Africa from ancient times to the transformative present Using the same methods as her teaching Birnbaum employs a mutual learning process in her work to help us think about our own ancestral story adding to the wisdom we need to surmount contemporary crises and give us the energy to help bring a more equal and just world into being Her methodologies are grounded on empirical techniques of science and the social sciences and yet leave openings for the liminal knowledge that resides underneath and beyond boundaries of established religions secular ideologies and conventional science A true work of transformation The Future has an Ancient Heart opens the door to new possibilities within our world Pagan Every Day Barbara Ardinger, 2006-08-01 Humorous and witty entries for every day of the year provoke new ideas and new ways of exploring paganism as a spiritual practice revealing how contemporary spiritual experiences show up in the most unexpected places Original The Beloved in Middle Eastern Literatures Alireza Korangy, Hanadi Al-Samman, Michael Beard, 2017-05-30 In the long literary history of the Middle East the notion of the beloved has been a central trope in both the poetry and prose of the region This book explores the concept of the beloved in a cross cultural and interdisciplinary manner revealing how shared ideas on the subject supersede geographical and temporal boundaries and ideas of nationhood The book considers the beloved in its classical modern and postmodern manifestations taking into account the different sexual orientations and forms of desire expressed From the pre Islamic Udhri romantic unrequited love to the erotic same sex love in thirteenth century poetry and prose the divine Sufi reflections on the topic and post revolutionary love encounters in Iran Egypt and Saudi Arabia The Beloved in Middle Eastern Literatures connects the affective and cultural with the political and the obscene In focusing on the diverse manifestations of love and tropes of the lover beloved binary this book is unique in foregrounding what is often regarded as a taboo subject in the region The multi faceted outlook reveals the variety of philological philosophical poetic and literary forms that treat this significant motif Women Transforming the Future of Higher Education Lauricella, Sharon, Sandill, Shubha, Moeke-Pickering, Taima, 2025-04-08 Women play a pivotal role when shaping higher education They drive change through leadership innovation and advocacy for inclusivity breaking barriers in academia and leading policy reforms Women are redefining what it means to lead in educational institutions and their contributions are advancing research teaching and administration while creating more equitable diverse and supportive environments for students and faculty As they rise in influence women help to challenge traditional structures foster greater access to education and ensure the future of higher education reflects the needs of all communities Women Transforming the Future of Higher Education explores the roles of women in higher education and addresses women s experiences as leaders scholars and administrators It helps navigate the challenges that women face explores barriers to progress and highlights women s roles in shaping the future of higher education This book covers topics such as indigenous education sociology and mediated relationships and is a useful resource for educators policymakers academicians sociologists and researchers

Seeking Wisdom in Adult Teaching and Learning Wilma Fraser, 2017-10-24 This book concerns the pursuit of wisdom in education and the argument that wisdom personified here as Sophia is tragically marginalised or absent in current Western epistemological discourses It includes a review of key historical and classical framings which have lost much potency and relevance as certain cultural narratives hold sway these include the reductionist technicist and highly instrumentalist discourses which shape the articulation and delivery of much education policy and practice whilst reflecting similar troubling framings from broader neoliberal perspectives Fraser argues that wisdom s marginalisation has had and continues to have profoundly deleterious consequences for our educative practices Through a compelling combination of narrative and autoethnographic techniques while also drawing on philosophical and cultural traditions the book pushes at the boundaries of emerging knowledge including how knowledge is generated It will be of interest to those who facilitate the learning of adults in a variety of settings as well as to students and supervisors seeking exemplars and justification for working in non traditional ways

Imagery, Ritual, and Birth Anna M. Hennessey, 2018-12-11 Every human being is born and has gone through a process of birth Yet the topic of birth remains deeply underrepresented in the humanities overshadowed by a scholarly focus on death This book explores how imagery is used ritualistically in religious secular and nonreligious ways during birth through analysis of a wide variety of art iconography poetry and material culture Objects central to the book s study include religious figurines paintings about birth and other items representative of pregnancy crowning or giving birth that have an historical or original meaning connected to religion Contemporary artists are also creating new art in which they represent birth and mothering as nonreligious events that are sacred or divine Framed through the concept of social ontology which examines the nature of the social world and studies how people create meaning out of the various objects images and processes that make up human social life the book theorizes a social ontology of birth focusing on how the meaning of imagery undergoes metamorphosis between the spheres of religion secularity nonreligion and the sacred when used during birth as a rite of passage Included in the study are more than thirty images of birth some of which have never been written about before
