Shea Butter An Indigenous Commodity Goes Global:

Shea Butter Republic Brenda Chalfin, 2004-06 This ethnographic study traces shea from a pre to post industrial commodity to provide a deeper understanding of emerging trends in tropical commoditization cosmopolitan consumption global economic restructuring and rural livelihoods Shea Butter Republic Brenda Chalfin, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Concrete City Armelle Choplin, 2023-04-03 CONCRETE CITY Armelle Choplin's Concrete City weaves a novel and engaging analysis of urbanization by tracing the journeys of cement and people making urban life in West Africa From post independence high modernist ambitions to building the opportunities to make a living the emerging transnational corridor along the West African coast provides a starting point for insights which will expand and inform understanding of both established and newly emerging urbanization processes in many different contexts Jennifer Robinson Professor of Geography University College of London UK In this very innovative and superbly illustrated book Armelle Choplin makes cement vibrant with affect politics economic interests and cultural meanings She takes us to a fascinating journey along the West African urban corridor following the social life of concrete and showing how this material shapes contemporary urbanization and everyday life Ola S derstr m Professor of Geography University of Neuch tel Switzerland Concrete City Material Flows and Urbanization in West Africa delivers a theoretically informed ethnographic exploration of the African urban world through the life of concrete Emblematic of frenetic urban and capitalistic development this material is pervasive shaping contemporary urban landscapes and societies and their links to the global world It stands and circulates at the heart of major financial investments political forces and environmental debates At the same time it epitomises values of modernity and success redefining social practices forms of dwelling and living and popular imaginaries. The book invites the reader to follow bags of cement from production plant to construction site along the 1000 kilometre urban corridor that links Abidjan to Accra Lom Cotonou and Lagos combining the perspectives of cement tycoons entrepreneurs and political stakeholders but also of ordinary men and women who plan build and dream of the Concrete City With this innovative exploration of urban life through concrete Armelle Choplin delivers a fascinating journey into and reflection on the sustainability of our urban futures The Twilight of Cutting Saida Hodzic, 2017 The last three decades have witnessed a proliferation of nongovernmental organizations engaging in new campaigns to end the practice of female genital cutting across Africa These campaigns have in turn spurred new institutions discourses and political projects bringing about unexpected social transformations both intended and unintended Consequently cutting is waning across the continent At the same time these endings are misrecognized and disavowed by public and scholarly discourses across the political spectrum What does it mean to say that while cutting is ending the Western discourse surrounding it is on the rise And what kind of a feminist anthropology is needed in such a moment The Twilight of Cutting examines these and other questions from the vantage point of Ghanaian feminist and reproductive health NGOs that have organized campaigns against cutting for over thirty years The book looks at these NGOs not as solutions but as sites of problematization The purpose of understanding these Ghanaian campaigns their transnational and regional encounters and the forms of governmentality they produce is not to charge them with providing answers to the question how do we end cutting Instead it is to account for their work their historicity the life worlds and subjectivities they engender and the modes of reflection imminent critique and opposition they set in motion Beauty around the World Erin Kenny, Elizabeth Gackstetter Nichols, 2017-06-22 Taking the concept of beauty seriously this encyclopedia examines how humanity has sought and continues to seek what is beautiful in a variety of cultural contexts giving readers an understanding of how to look at beauty both intellectually and critically Is beauty ever more than skin deep Arguably yes considering that the concept of beauty and the pursuit of it has shaped cultures worldwide across every time period and has even served to change the course of history Studying beauty practices yields insight into social status wealth political ideology religious doctrine and gender expectations including gender nonconformity A truly interdisciplinary text Beauty around the World A Cultural Encyclopedia presents an insightful perspective on beauty that draws from philosophy literature sociology anthropology psychology and feminist studies giving readers a unique view of world beauty practices. This volume offers information about beauty practices from the past to the present in alphabetical entries that address terms and topics such as beards dreadlocks Geisha moko tattoos and progressive muscularity Readers will better comprehend how beauty shapes many social interactions in profound ways worldwide and that the unspoken social agreements that shape ideals of attractiveness and desirability within any given culture can matter very much The encyclopedia's entries challenge readers to consider the questions What is beauty and Why does it matter A comprehensive bibliography is a valuable resource for further research

Green Consumption Bart Barendregt, Rivke Jaffe, 2020-05-15 Green lifestyles and ethical consumption have become increasingly popular strategies in moving towards environmentally friendly societies and combating global poverty Where previously environmentalists saw excess consumption as central to the problem green consumerism now places consumption at the heart of the solution However ethical and sustainable consumption are also important forms of central to the creation and maintenance of class distinction Green Consumption scrutinizes the emergent phenomenon of what this book terms eco chic a combination of lifestyle politics environmentalism spirituality beauty and health Eco chic connects ethical sustainable and elite consumption It is increasingly part of the identity kit of certain sections of society who seek to combine taste and style with care for personal wellness and the environment This book deals with eco chic as a set of activities an ideological framework and a popular marketing strategy offering a critical examination of its manifestations in both the global North and South The diverse case studies presented in this book range from Basque sheep cheese production and Ghanaian Afro chic hairstyles to Asian tropical spa culture and Dutch fair trade jewellery initiatives The authors assess the ways in which eco chic with its apparent paradox of consumption and idealism can make a genuine contribution to solving some of the most pressing problems of our time Outsourcing Border Control Federica Infantino, 2017-03-18 This book explores the everyday practices of border control and implementation of mobility policy in the European Schengen area by analyzing consular visas services on the edges of the territory Using an original case study private contractors that implement EU visa policy on governments behalf the author focuses on visa application centers located in Morocco and run by the two major contractors of European Member States the transnational corporations VFSGlobal and TLSContact The analysis builds on ethnographic research that encompasses the making of EU visa policy at the European national and local levels It aims at uncovering the reasons that have led to the adoption of outsourcing as a normal and legitimized mode to implement EU visa policy and the effects of that choice The Odds Revisited K. A. S. Murshid, 2022-11-10 This book looks at Bangladesh at and beyond its fifty years since its formation in 1971 A comprehensive holistic narrative is constructed to track key development dynamics at the sectoral sub sectoral and macro levels This much needed exercise dispels the notion that the Bangladesh surprise can be reduced to singular dimensions such as the trauma of the 1971 war or women s empowerment and micro credit The mixture of economic history political economy and institutional and actor analysis provide fresh insights to the themes addressed A well argued case to view emerging Bangladesh as the newest member of the Flying Geese club The Odds Revisited includes a detailed review of macro and sectoral developments over the last fifty years and provides new material and insights into the rise of Bangladesh's capitalist class a socio economic perspective of the role of Dhaka based urbanization and the rise of a new middle class Diversity, Social Justice, and Inclusive Excellence Seth N. Asumah, Mechthild Nagel, 2014-05-19 Winner of the 2016 NYASA Book Award presented by the New York African Studies Association When students are introduced to the study of diversity and social justice it is usually from sociological and psychological perspectives. The scholars and activists featured in this anthology reject this approach as too limiting insisting that we adopt a view that is both transdisciplinary and multiperspectival Their essays focus on the components of diversity social justice and inclusive excellence not just within the United States but in other parts of the world They examine diversity in the contexts of culture race class gender learned ability and dis ability religion sexual orientation and citizenship and explore how these concepts and identities interrelate The result is a book that will provide readers with a better theoretical understanding of diversity studies and will enable them to see and think critically about oppression and how systems of oppression may be challenged Islam in Africa South of the Sahara Pade Badru, Brigid M. Sackey, 2013-05-23 Islam in Africa South of the Sahara Essays in Gender Relations and Political Reform draws together contributions from scholars that focus on changes taking place in the practice of the religion and their effects on the political terrain and civil society Contributors explore the dramatic changes in gender relations within Islam on the continent occasioned in part by the events of 9 11 and the response of various Islamic states to growing negative media coverage These explorations of the dynamics of religious change reconfigured gender relations and political reform consider not only the role of state authorities but the impact of ordinary Muslim women who have taken to challenging the subordinate role assigned to them in Islam Essays are far ranging in their scope as the future of Islam in sub Saharan Africa falls under the microscope with contributors addressing such topics as the Islamic view of the historic Arab enslavement of Africans and colonialist ventures studies of gender politics in Gambia northern Nigeria and Ghana surveys of the impact of Sharia law in Nigeria and Sudan the political role of Islam in Somalia South Africa and African diaspora communities Islam in Africa South of the Sahara is an ideal reader for students and scholars of international politics comparative theology race and ethnicity comparative sociology African and Islamic studies Southern Anthropocenes Casper Bruun Jensen, 2025-09-24 This wide ranging volume addresses the changing landscape of problems challenges and possibilities that emerge once the macroscopic notion of the Anthropocene is replaced with Southern Anthropocenes It envisions Southern Anthropocenes as an opening towards forms and ends of life that exceed while remaining in partial relation with modern socio economic horizons and the determinations of the geo eco and climate sciences What happens if Southern Anthropocenes are allowed to multiply and room is made for practices of worlding and life that are impossible from within the singular Anthropocene Key issues include emergent interfaces between beings ways of living and worlds problems of co existence in and across pluriversal contact zones explorations of liveability under rapidly changing circumstances speculations about other futures and how to invent them investigations of more than human itineraries and entangled territories and explorations of how to collectively invent the portals between ways of thinking and acting on a planet in a critical state It will be essential reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in Sociology Anthropology Critical Education Environmental Humanities Science and Technology Studies Geography Shaping Tradition Jeff Grischow, 2006-11-01 Using Northern Ghana as a case study this book and Urban Studies challenges the invocation of civil society as a tool for building community in the name of development Far from equating civil society with community colonial officials used the doctrine of community against African civil society For colonial officers civil society represented the corruption of authentic development which could be avoided only by protecting traditional peasant communities in the face of economic transformation The book charts this colonial program from the creation of native states in the early twentieth century to an ambitious agricultural mechanisation scheme in the late 1940s In its challenge to current writing on civil society the study offers an important contribution to African history and development 'African Potentials' for Wildlife Conservation and Natural Resource Management Toshio Meguro, Chihiro studies Ito, 2021-10-01 This book focuses on two specific areas wildlife conservation policies and projects and the interaction between local societies and the surrounding environment in Africa Against the internationally dominant approach that regards Africa as being a state of deficiency this book demonstrates based on fieldwork concerning various natural resources e g wildlife forests fruit fish and land as well as many famous protected areas that African people are collectively and actively trying to solve the environmental problems they are facing by strategically utilising both indigenous means and new extrinsic opportunities Meanwhile it also becomes clear that wildlife conservation still continues to cause local societies a multitude of problems and the potentials of local people and societies are existing but unnoticed and suppressed by powerful outsiders and therefore remaining informal and invisible Traditional and Indigenous Knowledge for the Modern Era David R. Encounters Bianca Murillo,2017-10-16 In Market Encounters Bianca Murillo explores the shifting social terrains that made the buying and selling of goods in modern Ghana possible Fusing economic and business history with social and cultural history she traces the evolution of consumerism in the colonial Gold Coast and independent Ghana from the late nineteenth century through to the political turmoil of the 1970s Murillo brings sales clerks market women and everyday consumers in Ghana to the center of a story that is all too often told in sweeping metanarratives about what happens when African businesses are incorporated into global markets By emphasizing the centrality of human relationships to Ghana's economic past Murillo introduces a radical rethinking of consumption studies from an Africa centered perspective The result is a keen look at colonial capitalism in all of its intricacies legacies and contradictions including its entanglement with gender and race

Critical Terms for the Study of Africa Gaurav Desai, Adeline Masquelier, 2018-12-07 For far too long the Western world viewed Africa as unmappable terrain a repository for outsiders wildest imaginings This problematic notion has had lingering effects not only on popular impressions of the region but also on the development of the academic study of Africa Critical Terms for the Study of Africa considers the legacies that have shaped our understanding of the continent and its place within the conceptual grammar of contemporary world affairs Written by a distinguished group of scholars the essays compiled in this volume take stock of African studies today and look toward a future beyond its fraught intellectual and political past Each essay discusses one of our most critical terms for talking about Africa exploring the trajectory of its development while pushing its boundaries Editors Gaurav Desai and Adeline Masquelier balance the choice of twenty five terms between the expected and the unexpected calling for nothing short of a new mapping of the scholarly field The result is an essential reference that will challenge assumptions stimulate lively debate and make the past present and future of African Studies accessible to students and teachers alike Africa Toyin Falola, Daniel Jean-Jacques, 2015-12-14 These volumes offer a one stop resource for researching the lives customs and cultures of Africa's nations and peoples Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves The three volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa s 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading Monetary Transitions Karin Pallaver, 2021-11-16 This book uses money as a lens through which to analyze the social and economic impact of colonialism on African societies and institutions It is the first book to address the monetary history of the colonial period in a comprehensive way covering several areas of the continent and different periods with the ultimate aim of understanding the long term impact of colonial monetary policies on African societies While grounding an understanding of money in terms of its circulation acceptance and impact this book shows first and foremost how the monetary systems that resulted from the imposition of colonial rule on African societies were not a replacement of the old currency systems with entirely new ones but were rather the result of the convergence of different orders of value and monetary practices By putting histories of people using money at the heart of the story and connecting them to larger imperial policies the volume provides a new and fresh perspective on the history of the establishment of colonial rule in Africa This book is the result of a collaborative and interdisciplinary research project that has received funding by the Gerda Henkel Foundation The contributors are both junior and senior scholars based at universities in Europe Africa Asia and the US who are all specialists on the history of money in Africa It will appeal to an international audience of scholars and educators interested in African Studies and History Economic History Imperial and Colonial History Development Studies Monetary Studies The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

Shea Butter An Indigenous Commodity Goes Global: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Shea Butter An Indigenous Commodity Goes Global: Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best: Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Shea Butter An Indigenous Commodity Goes Global: Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
