extensive introduction to Moure's poetry a section of poetry by others translated by Moure and an afterword on translation by the poet An online reader's companion is available at wesleyan.edu/wespress/readerscompanions Hardcover is unjacketed

Furious, 2018-08-07 The poetry in the Governor General's Award winning collection Furious is charged with Erin Moure's characteristic energy and wit as she explores the limits of pure reason and the language of power There is too a fresh and often celebratory look at love and in an unusual finale The Acts Moure challenges us to explore a feminist aesthetic of thinking of the page of working life and the possibility of poetry

O Cadoiro, 2007-04-01 O Cadoiro is an astonishing exploration of lyricism by one of our greatest poets best known in recent years for her challenging experimental work But where experimental poets often disdain lyric Moure embraces it revelling in its beauty and its radical modernity Rooted in medieval Galician Portuguese cantigas her poems in O Cadoiro are a breathtaking passage through archive rhythm address and the mystery and wound of authorship itself From the author's postface O cadoiro is literally the place where falling is made In Galician cadoiro is one word for waterfall Cataract perhaps Thus the fall This to me is the place of poetry for whoever writes poetry must be prepared ever to fall The postface to O Cadoiro is freely downloadable by clicking on sample chapter via the House of Anansi product page It is not printed in the book

Search Procedures Erin Mour, 1996 Erin Mour traces a woman's poetic trajectory through the instability of any search and any procedure Everything touched upon is called into question as Mour explores the limits of our notions of language and plays with the power of words to convey meaning or intelligibility as well as their fallibility

Contemplative and Artful Openings Susan Walsh, 2017-07-06 Highlighting an arts based inquiry process that involves contemplation mindful awareness and artful writing this book explores women's difficult experiences in teaching It weaves a strong autobiographical thread with artifacts from several research projects with female teachers By linking innovative approaches to research that involve visual images and poetic writing with feminist poststructuralist theories and Buddhist inspired practices Walsh offers new understandings about what it means to be critical in research and teaching and also what transformation both social and personal might entail

Rooms Sina Queyras, 2022-05-31 SHORTLISTED FOR THE QWF MAVIS GALLANT PRIZE FOR NON FICTION THE GLOBE 100 THE BEST BOOKS OF 2022 From LAMBDA Literary Award winner Sina Queyras Rooms offers a peek into the defining spaces a young queer writer moved through as they found their way from a life of chaos to a life of the mind Thirty years ago a professor threw a chair at Sina Queyras after they'd turned in an essay on Virginia Woolf Queyras returns to that contentious first encounter with Virginia Woolf to recover the body and thinking of that time Using Woolf's A Room of One's Own as a touchstone this book is both an homage to and provocation of the idea of a room of one's own at the centre of our idea of a literary life How central is the room And what happens once we get one Do we inhabit our rooms Or do the rooms contain us Blending memoir prose tweets poetry and criticism Rooms offers a peek into the defining spaces a young queer writer moved through as they found their way from a life of chaos to a life of the mind and from a very private life of the mind to a public

life of the page and from a life of the page into a life in the Academy the Internet and on social media With Virginia Woolf alongside them Queyras journeys through rooms literal and figurative complicating and deepening our understanding of what it means to create space for oneself as a writer Their hard won language challenges us to resist any glib associations of Woolf's famous room with an easy freedom Inspiring and moving Queyras's memoir testifies to Woolf's continuing generative power Mark Hussey editor of Virginia Woolf's Between the Acts 2011 and author of Clive Bell and the Making of Modernism 2021 In this beautiful perceptive book Sina Queyras moves deftly between the words and wake of Virginia Woolf and their own formation as writer lover teacher friend and person Rooms is expert in its depiction of personal and literary histories and firmly aware of its moment of composition Reading these pages I was enticed by Queyras's curiosity and openness thrilled by the sharp edges of their anger Tight prose electric thinking self discovery it's all here all abuzz Rooms is alive Heather Christle author of The Crying Book It is impossible not to question the world as we thought we knew it by the end of this book Sina Queyras painstakingly aims their extraordinary nerve and talent at Virginia Woolf's idea of a room of one's own It's a mistake to consider the room without all of its entanglements Taking Woolf's cue Queyras explores writing that is not world building but something far more generous and transformative as Woolf wrote Literature is open to everybody CA Conrad author of AMANDA PARADISE Resurrect Extinct Vibration

We All Begin in a Little Magazine Arc Poetry Society, 1998 When Arc began publishing in 1978 it had one aim to publish the best work by Canada's new and established poets Celebrating Arc's first two decades We All Begin in a Little Magazine testifies to how fully the editors realized their aspirations It provides a rich cross section of Canada's poetry of the time the most vital years thus far in the history of Canadian Literature Read the work of your favourite poets just as they first made names for themselves Rediscover the excitement you felt when you came across their poems in Arc Canada's best little magazine Little Theatres, 2005-04-01

Erin Moure is one of the most consistently innovative radically imaginative poets at work in Canada With each book Moure seeks to re create writing from the ground up Little Theatres appears at a pressing historical crossroads when we most need our language to be made restive again Like the agua water running through the collection at once lingual exchange submersion balm and sustenance Moure's voices are as fluid clear animated and shimmering with light and life as ever Galician and English intermingle in this collection like currents of the same river How can we open the infinitely small spaces of Little Theatres in our own lives Can they take the place of war And who exactly writes them Erin Moure The unjustly ignored thinker Elisa Sampedrin Or a speaker inside us finally willing to give Little Theatres its due attention An intimate act of cultural and personal interflow this work from a major poet has the power to alter our perception of where and on what scale the action is taking place
