Retailing in the 21st Century Manfred Krafft, Murali K. Mantrala, 2009-12-17 Retailing in the new millennium stands as an exciting complex and critical sector of business in most developed as well as emerging economies Today the retailing industry is being buffeted by a number of forces simultaneously e g increasing competition within and across retailing formats the growth of online retailing the advent of radio frequency identification RFID technology the explosion in customer level data availability the global expansion of major retail chains like Wal Mart and METRO Group and so on Making sense of it all is not easy but of vital importance to retailing practitioners analysts and policymakers With crisp and insightful contributions from some of the world s leading experts Retailing in the 21st Century is a compendium of state of the art cutting edge knowledge for successful retailing today

Foods for Health National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute. Foods for Health Project Group, 1983 Abstract The description and findings of a 1 year nutrition education project conducted cooperatively by the US National Heart Lung and Blood Institute and by Giant Food are reported The project was conducted to increase consumer awareness and knowledge about the relationships of nutrition to cardiovascular risk and to provide practical ways for dietary improvement and cardiovascular disease prevention The primary nutrition information vehicles were a bi weekly brochure the Eater s Almanac of which over 2 million copies were distributed and shelf signs Program evaluation was made via telephone surveys of shoppers food purchase data from the computer assisted checkout system in 20 supermarkets and a completed questionnaire A gain in correct scores was noted for questions on fat and cholesterol in foods and on the relationship between dietary fat and serum cholesterol levels the scores appeared to be related to respondent characteristics of sex education age and having a family member on a special diet Changes in overall food sales trends were similar in the 2 study areas Washington D C and Baltimore MD wz
