

THIS MARRIAGE

by Rumi

May these vows and this marriage be blessed.
May this marriage be as sweet as milk and honey,
May this marriage be as intoxicating as old wine,
May this marriage be fruitful like the date palm,
May this marriage be full of laughter,
and everyday a paradise.
May this marriage be a seal of compassion,
for here and hereafter.
May this marriage have a fair face and a good name,
May this marriage be as welcome as the full moon in the night sky.
Listen lovers, now you go on,
as I become silent and kiss this blessed night.

Long Marriage Poems:

The Long Marriage: Poems Maxine Kumin, 2003-05-17 This luminous collection is Maxine Kumin's twelfth volume of poetry the first since her remarkable memoir Inside the Halo Themes of loyalty longevity and recovery appear here along with poems addressing the eminent dead Wordsworth Gorki Rukeyser and others Inescapably many poems come up out of the earth I live on and tend to Kumin says The Art of Love Poetry Erik Irving Gray, 2018 The first study to offer an integral theory of love poetry examining why it is that poetry even more than other arts is so consistently associated with romantic love Wait for Me Judith Viorst, 2015-10-20 A collection of poems that explores the peeves and pleasures of a long marriage and what lies beyond Judith Viorst began publishing poetry in the 1960s in New York magazine and since then her works have celebrated life's milestones with wit and poignancy Married for fifty five years she now casts a rueful experienced eye on the amusing annoyances and deep satisfactions of a long marriage and what a couple must inevitably confront together British Women Poets of the Long Eighteenth Century Paula R. Backscheider, Catherine E. Ingrassia, 2022-10-01 This anthology gathers 368 poems by 80 British women poets of the long eighteenth century Few of these poems have been reprinted since originally published and all are crucial to understanding fully the literary history of women writers Paula R. Backscheider and Catherine E. Ingrassia demonstrate the enormous diversity of poetry produced during this time by organizing the poems in three broad and deliberately overlapping categories by genre establishing that women wrote in all of the forms that men did with equal mastery and creativity by theme offering a revisionary look at the range of topics these writers addressed including war ecology friendship religion and the stages of life and by the poems more specific focus on the women's experiences as writers Backscheider and Ingrassia have selected poems that represent the best work of skilled poets creating a wonderful mix of canonical and little known pieces They include the complete texts of longer poems that are abridged or omitted in other collections Their substantial part introductions textual notes bibliographical information and biographical sketches situate the poets and their writings within the cultural and political milieu in which they appeared To generate further scholarship on this subject this essential anthology puts primary texts in front of students scholars and general readers It fills the persistent need to document women's poetic expression during the long eighteenth century and to rewrite the literary history of the period a history from which women have largely been excluded Where I Live: New & Selected Poems 1990-2010 Maxine Kumin, 2010-04-12 Where I Live is a collection celebrating the remarkable poetic range of one of America's greatest living poets Where I Live gathers poems from Maxine Kumin's five previous books The poems take as their concern rural life family and poetic legacy and they wrestle with political and social causes Also included is a generous selection of twenty three new poems which expand upon themes that have preoccupied Kumin and bring her record of poetic mastery up to the present Kumin's rare kinship with the natural world is again seen in this collection Book Jacket Romantic and Victorian Long Poems Adam Roberts, 2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this is a guide which provides easy access to a fairly complete range of the long poetry written in the Romantic and Victorian periods epics narrative poems verse novels and other work of over a certain length The format provides title author length of work and prosodic description Texts are then summarized according to the internal divisions Each poem is accompanied by an objective summary and the poems as a whole are preceded by an introduction which advances a particular argument as to why the nineteenth century was so fascinated with the length that was the ultimate aesthetic rationale for the long poem

My Business is Circumference Stephen Berg,2001 Twenty eight contemporary American poets reflect on the poems that have most influenced their own creative vision and offer their best new works in this examination of poetic expression Each entry includes a new poem from the author the text of a poem or poems that particularly influenced the development of the new poem and an essay about that influence The dialogue created between the new works of the poets and the poems that they love provides insight into the poetic process and speaks to the meaning and endurance of great art

Notational Experiments in North American Long Poems, 1961-2011 A. J. Carruthers,2017-01-28 This book is a critical experiment that tracks the literary and poetic uses of musical notation and notational methods in North American long poems from the middle of last century to the contemporary moment Poets have readily referred to their poems as scores Yet in this study Carruthers argues that the integration of musical scores in expansive works of this period does more work than previously thought offering both resolution and escape from the demands placed on long poem form The five case studies on Langston Hughes Armand Schwerner BpNichol Joan Retallack and Anne Waldman offer approaches to reading literary scores in what might be described as a critical stave or a critical fugue of instances In differing ways musical notation and notational methods impact the form time and sometimes the ethical and political stances of these respective long poems

The Poetics of Wrongness Rachel Zucker, 2023-02-07 The Poetics of Wrongness is a collection of essay talks that the poet Rachel Zucker expanded from lectures presented for the Bagley Wright Lecture Series in 2016. Devastating in their revelations yet hopeful in their endurance, these are lectures of protest and reckoning. Zucker declares, "I write against. My poetics is a poetics of opposition and provocation that I never outgrew. Against the status quo or the powers that be, writing out of and into wrongness." Thus, Zucker deftly dismantles the outdated paradigms of motherhood, aesthetics, feminism, poetics, and politics. Bringing Bernadette Mayer, Marina Abramovic, Alice Notley, Adrienne Rich, Audre Lorde, among many others, into the conversation, Zucker questions the categories that have been imposed on poetry as well as a poet's need to speak and the resulting responsibilities. Prescient in their original observations, these expanded talks seek to respond to and engage the many political events since their presentation, remaining timelessly persistent in their galvanizing force. Walt Whitman and the Making of Jewish American Poetry Dara Barnat, 2023-08-01 Walt Whitman has served as a crucial figure within the tradition of Jewish American poetry. But how did Whitman, a non-Jewish American-born poet, become so instrumental in this area of poetry, especially for poets whose parents and often they themselves were not born here? Dara Barnat presents a genealogy of Jewish American poets in dialogue with Whitman and with each other, and reveals how the lineage of Jewish American poets responding to Whitman extends far beyond the likes of Allen Ginsberg, Emma Lazarus, and Adah Isaacs Menken through twentieth-century poets such as Charles Reznikoff, Karl Shapiro, Kenneth Koch, Muriel Rukeyser, Adrienne Rich, Marge Piercy, Alicia Suskin Ostriker, and Gerald Stern. This book demonstrates that Whitman has been adopted by Jewish American poets as a liberal symbol against exclusionary and anti-Semitic elements in high modernist literary culture. The turn to Whitman serves as a mode of exploring Jewish and American identity. The Best American Poetry 2025 David Lehman, Terence Winch, 2025-09-02 Guest edited by Terence Winch, NEA Fellow and editor of the pick of the week on the Best American Poetry blog, the 2025 edition marks a poignant farewell to series editor David Lehman, celebrating more than three decades of poetic excellence.
