Visual Culture John A. Walker, Sarah Chaplin, 1997-12-15 This book is about the expanding realm of visual culture in architecture, art, design, advertising, photography, film, television, video, theatre, performance, computer imagery and virtual reality. It is also about Visual Culture Studies, a relatively new academic discipline or rather range of disciplines that scholars employ to analyse visual artefacts. Unlike many other texts on the same subject, it foregrounds the visual and is systematic and accessible. Visual culture provides an overview of the subject that pays heed to the achievements of both traditional and new theory whilst directing the reader to a large body of literature via references and an extensive bibliography. Walker and Chaplin discuss the concepts of the visual and of culture as well as the field and origins of Visual Culture Studies, coping with theory, models of production and consumption, institutions, pleasure, the canon and concepts of value, visual literacy and poetics, modes of analysis, culture and commerce and new technologies. This book is designed for those studying the history and theory of fine arts, design and the mass media.
