Love And Ideology In The Afternoon Soap Opera Women And Television Genre:

Love and Ideology in the Afternoon Laura Stempel Mumford,1995 A critical study of how soap operas reinforce dominant ideas of gender and sexuality and why soaps seem so pleasurable that women viewers including feminists keep coming back to watch It blends theory criticism and personal practice into an analysis of the genre and its viewers

Love and Ideology in the Afternoon Russell E. Mumford,1995-08-22 Why do I like soap operas Laura Stempel Mumford asks and her answer emerges in a feminist analysis of soap opera that participates in current debates about popular culture television and ideology She argues that the conventional daytime soap has an implicit and at times explicit political agenda that cooperates in the teaching of male dominance and the related oppressions of racism classism and heterosexism so that they seem inevitable All My Children General Hospital Another World One Life to Live Days of Our Lives The Young and the Restless a close reading of their texts will also answer some larger questions about television and its place in the broad landscape of popular culture

Genre and Television Jason Mittell,2013-05-13 Genre and Television proposes a new understanding of television genres as cultural categories offering a set of in depth historical and critical examinations to explore five key aspects of television genre history industry audience text and genre mixing Drawing on well known television programs from Dragnet to The Simpsons this book provides a new model of genre historiography and illustrates how genres are at work within nearly every facet of television from policy decisions to production techniques to audience practices Ultimately the book argues that through analyzing how television genre operates as a cultural practice we can better comprehend how television actively shapes our social world

Real To Reel Jacob Palaparambil,2016-11-25 It is a known fact that in India more than one sixth of women are hooked onto Indian television serials Nowadays these so called serials are taking the place of Indian cinema These shows have attracted a huge number of audiences towards itself and are growing at an alarming rate The mega serials broadcasted all across India depict an ideal woman who has been exploited tortured and suffered for a long time and is shown as an epitome of self righteousness The present study was done with a view to ascertain the responses from men and women about Indian television mega serials and to study the impact of these serials on them Regarding the image and the portrayal of women shown in these serials it can be said that women are mostly projected as housewives or a glamorous figure each time any woman's issue or a woman's story is presented two archetypes tend to emerge The stereotype is either that of a young professional beautiful super woman or of a relatively passive and traditional woman living mostly according to the rules set by her man

The Television Genre Book Glen Creeber,2015-08-16 Genre is central to understanding the industrial context and visual form of television This new edition of the key textbook on television genre brings together leading international scholars to provide an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the debates issues and concerns of the field Structured in eleven sections The Television Genre Book introduces the concept of genre itself and how it has been understood in television studies and then addresses the main televisual genres in turn

Mediated Images of the South Alison Slade, Dedria Givens-Carroll, Amber J. Narro, 2012-03-01 Mediated Images of the South The Portrayal of Dixie in Popular Culture edited by Alison F Slade Dedria Givens Carroll and Amber J Narro is an anthology that explores the impact of the image of the Southerner within mass communication and popular culture The contributors offer a contemporary analysis of the Southerner in the media In most cases previous literature situates these media images in the past most notably through historic analyses of the Southerner during the Civil Rights movement Mediated Images of the South breaks out of the box of the 1960s and 1970s by including the most recent and contemporary cultural examples of the Southerner This book represents a long overdue analysis of those images from both the past and the present In addition the discussions are not limited to one genre of media but provide the reader with an opportunity to see how far reaching the myth of the Southerner and the Southern image is in American society While there is a long list of successful southern politicians historical figures businessmen and women actors and actresses sports figures and other national and world leaders Slade Givens Carroll and Narro find that there is still work to be done to present southerners as capable and educated

Surrogacy and the Reproduction of Normative Family on TV Lulu Le Vay, 2019-05-23 This book examines the proliferation of surrogacy storylines on TV exploring themes of infertility motherhood parenting and family It investigates how despite reproductive technologies ability to flex contours of family the shows narratives work to uphold the white heterosexual genetically reproduced family as the ideal In dialogue with responses from a range of female viewers both mothers and non mothers the book scrutinises the construction of family ideology on television with studies including Coronation Street 1960 present Giuliana is homosexuality only acceptable when it echoes heterosexual norms Are female characters only fulfilled when they are genetic mothers Does heterosexual romance override technology in the cure for infertility While the answers to these questions may suggest that television still conforms to heteronormative narratives this book importantly demonstrates that audiences desire alternative happy endings that show infertile female characters more positively and recognise alternative kinship formations as meaningful

Literary Theory Julie Rivkin, Michael Ryan, 2017-01-23 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies eco criticism and ethics Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory from Formalism to Postcolonialism Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall Sara Ahmed and Lauren Berlant Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms Eating Together Jean Duruz, Gaik Cheng Khoo, 2014-12-18 Accepting the challenge of rethinking connections of food space and identity within everyday spaces of public eating in Malaysia and Singapore the authors enter street stalls hawker centers markets cafes restaurants food streets and ethnic neighborhoods to offer a broader picture of the meaning of eating in public places The book creates a strong sense of the ways different people live eat work and relax together and traces negotiations and accommodations in these dynamics The motif of rojak Malay meaning mixture together with Ien Ang's evocative together in difference enables the analysis to move beyond the immediacy of street eating with its moments of exchange and remembering Ultimately the book traces the political tensions of different people living together and the search for home and identity in a world on the move Each of the chapters designates a different space for exploring these cultures of mixedness and their contradictions whether these involve old and new forms of sociality struggles over meanings of place or frissons of pleasure and risk in eating differently Simply put Eating Together is about understanding complex forms of multiculturalism in Malaysia and Singapore through the mind tongue nose and eyes

Television and Postfeminist Housekeeping Elizabeth Nathanson, 2013 In this book Nathanson examines how contemporary American television and associated digital media depict women's everyday lives as homemakers career women and mothers Her focus on American popular culture from the 1990s through the present reveals two extremes narratives about women who cannot keep house and narratives about women who only keep house Nathanson looks specifically at the issue of time in this context and argues that the media constructs panics about domestic time scarcity while at the same time offering solutions for those very panics Analyzing TV programs such as How Clean is Your House Up All Night and Supernanny she finds that media's portrayals of women's time is crucial to understanding definitions of femininity women's labor and leisure in the postfeminist context
