A Midsummer Night's Dream William SHAKESPEARE,2018-09-13 A Midsummer Night s Dream is first mentioned by Francis Meres in 1598 leading many scholars to date the play between 1594 and 1596 It is likely to have been written around the same period Romeo and Juliet was created Indeed many similarities exist between the two plays so much that A Midsummer Night s Dream at times seems likely to degenerate into the same tragic ending that befalls Romeo and Juliet The play was first printed in quarto in 1600 following its entry into the Stationer s Register on October 8 1600 This quarto is almost surely taken directly from a manuscript written by Shakespeare A second quarto was printed in 1619 and falsely backdated to 1600 and attempted to correct some of the errors in the first printing but also introduced several new errors It is the second quarto which served as the basis for the First Folio in 1623 There is a myth that A Midsummer Night s Dream was first performed for a private audience after an actual wedding had taken place The play s three wedding and play within a play Pyramus and Thisbe certainly would seem to fit the scene with all the newlyweds retiring to their respective chambers at the end However no evidence of this imagined performance exists Rather A Midsummer Night s Dream was definitely performed on the London stage by the Lord Chamberlain s Men and the title page of the first Quarto indicates it was written by William Shakespeare
