The Third Spiritual Alphabet Francisco de Osuna OFM, 2016-05-15 For the first time in 35 years here is a complete analytical and comparative study of the only two English translations of this marvelous work This particular effort makes references back to our copy of the Spanish text for clarity More importantly this effort is coordinated with Teresa of Avila's works Thus an additional 400 notes in combination with comparatives between the variant references are supplied This work has been translated by the sisters of Stanbrook Francisco de Osuna draws on the ancient doctrine of the spiritual senses to describe the psychological experience that takes place as spiritual attentiveness is gradually deepening He takes up the traditional analogies of the darkness of blindness the silence in deafness the passivity in dumbness to draw out the ways that the prayer of recollection belongs to the apophatic way of contemplating the divine He connects and places his reflections in the context of the gospel beatitudes the vision of humanity described by Jesus Christ

So Longeth My Soul Joanna Collicutt, 2024-06-30 Students of Christian spirituality often have an ambivalent attitude to primary sources from the past On the one hand they are intrigued by the mysterious otherness of their and the promise that this very otherness may take them into exciting uncharted territory On the other hand they lack the confidence to navigate this territory so that what begins as strangely intriguing can quickly become just too weird The SCM Reader in Christian Spirituality not only offers a collection of readings from the classic texts of Christian spirituality but also gives the reader a way into these texts that enables them to be received as living and relevant for both personal spirituality and ministry An introductory section guides the student through the process and offers techniques for approaching these often ancient texts The Reader then presents readings from the patristic to the end of the early modern period encompassing both the Eastern and Western church traditions grouped around key themes and including extensive notes and contextual material The National Magazine Abel Stevens, James Floy, 1856 The National Magazine: Devoted to Literature, Art, and Religion ,1855 The Mystics of Spain E. Imagination Michael Scott, Michael J. Collins, 2024-09-24 What is the Christian literary imagination That question was put to the writers who have contributed to this collection of essays They were asked in answering it to choose and write about a work of literature that seemed to them to illustrate one of the varied ways in which the Christian imagination sees the world to define by example the meaning of the term A variety of beliefs or indeed unbeliefs are expressed by the contributors and authors they selected to discuss But what the essays have in common is an inquiry into the nature of belief and the means by which the reader's imagination can itself be stirred through the work of the author under discussion The book is structured chronologically with essays on literature ranging from Anglo Saxon England to 21st Century America but the contributors show a freedom of movement and reference across the centuries in their essays sometimes deliberately juxtaposing the historical with the contemporary What emerges from the collection is a shared inquiry into the enduring Christian vision of God's engagement with the world The Senses in Religious Communities, 1600-1800 Nicky Hallett, 2016-03-03 Offering a comprehensive analysis of newly uncovered manuscripts from two English convents near Antwerp this study gives unprecedented insight into the role of the senses in enclosed religious communities during the period 1600-1800 It draws on a range of previously unpublished writings chronicles confessions letters poetry personal testimony of various kinds to
