My Secret Camera:

Liveshot Tom Kranz, 2016-05-28 On one of the darkest days in the history Philadelphia men and women battled gunfire tear gas fire and angry mobs The men and women were journalists covering the MOVE disaster on May 13 1985 an eviction gone wrong that claimed 11 lives and left hundreds of people homeless after their entire neighborhood burned down This is the story of the resourceful journalists of WCAU TV who brought the story live to the people of Philadelphia despite danger and obstacles placed by both MOVE and the city The Secret Camera Terence Sumner Kirk, 1988 Hidden Cameras Joe Plomin, 2016-02-21 Providing authoritative information on the practicalities of using hidden cameras to expose abuse or wrongdoing this book is vital reading for anyone who may use or encounter secret filming It gives specific advice on using phones or covert cameras and unravels the complex legal and ethical issues that need to be considered My Mother's Voice Adrienne Kertzer, 2001-12-11 How do children's books represent the Holocaust How do such books negotiate the tension between the desire to protect children and the commitment to tell children the truth about the world If Holocaust representations in children's books respect the narrative conventions of hope and happy endings how do they differ if at all from popular representations intended for adult audiences And where does innocence lie if the children's fable of Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful is marketed for adults and far more troubling survivor memoirs such as Anita Lobel's No Pretty Pictures A Child of War are marketed for children How should Holocaust Studies integrate discourse about children's literature into its discussions In approaching these and other questions Kertzer uses the lens of children's literature to problematize the ways in which various adult discourses represent the Holocaust and continually challenges the conventional belief that children's literature is the place for easy answers and optimistic lessons Closer Reading, Grades 3-6 Nancy Boyles, 2014-02-19 Close Reading Not in a very long while has a term been freighted with so much responsibility to pull every student out of a reading tailspin and into a great future of college and career readiness Finally here's a book that tunes out all of the hubbub and gets down to the business of showing how exactly to get close reading right What makes Closer Reading such a have to have resource Nancy Boyles knows full well that we'll never realize the promise of close reading unless we figure out where it fits in with existing literacy practices So she magnifies all the planning that goes into powerful close reading lessons while providing a wide angle lens to answer our biggest questions top among them how close reading relates to text complexity and strategic reading comprehension Chapter by chapter Nancy delivers astoundingly practical ideas on how to import close reading into daily planning including how to Connect close reading with other instructional practices whole class read alouds guided reading conferring Select rich texts and plan for initial close reading lessons Deliver initial and follow up close reading lessons Engage students in peer practice after close reading Coordinate comprehension strategies and close reading Use close reading to deepen students independent reading Close closer closest Yes if we want our students to intimately understand a text's ideas we'll need to make some shifts in our instruction

Fortunately we now have Closer Reading to lean on as we go into higher gear A former classroom teacher and professor of reading Nancy Boyles is a literacy consultant who provides workshops model lessons and curriculum support to districts and organizations nationally regionally and locally Over the course of her career she has received numerous awards including New England Reading Association s Outstanding Literacy Leader Award and Connecticut Reading Association s Celebrate Literacy Award for exemplary service Closer Reading Grades 3 6 will become a treasured friend and guide as you will value every tip model lesson and complex book recommendation It is a must have book for your professional library and for professional learning communities LAURA ROBB Author of Unlocking Complex Texts Teaching about the Holocaust :
