Mystery We Proclaim Catechesis At The Third Millennium:

The Mystery We Proclaim, Second Edition Francis D. Kelly, 2008-01-01 Catechesis is a unique form of teaching that intends not merely to pass along facts but to hand on the faith received from Christ the apostles and the living magisterium of the Church The Mystery We Proclaim Second Edition is an invitation to all involved in this God ordained work to reflect and examine the importance of their ministry in light of the revealed mystery of faith we all profess Reflecting both the spirit and the content of the Catechism of the Catholic Church as well as the vision of the General Directory for Catechesis The Mystery We Proclaim Second Edition uses the riches of these resources to guide catechists into the third millennium with greater clarity confidence and effectiveness Today is as Monsignor Kelly points out a promising and exciting time in which the new evangelization offers many rich possibilities for catechesis Divided into five parts that analyze and evaluate the catechetical movement of the past as well as providing direction for the future The Mystery We Proclaim Second Edition helps consolidate and highlight themes of both the Catechism and the General Directory Its five major sections are as follows Catechesis in the New Context The Heritage and Challenge of Catechesis The Goals of Catechesis The Content of Catechesis and A Methodology for Catechesis Everyone from pastors to DREs to religion teachers catechists and principals in fact anyone involved in religious education will find The Mystery We Proclaim Second Edition an encouragement to continued vigor and renewed enthusiasm for transmitting the living faith from one generation to the next

Catechesis for the New Evangelization Brian Pedraza, 2020-06-12 Popes Francis Benedict XVI and John Paul II have called the present a time of New Evangelization for the Church and have stressed the importance of catechesis for this mission John Paul II claimed that this renewal of the Church's mission is grounded in the teachings of the Second Vatican Council Nevertheless approaches to catechesis in the conciliar and postconciliar era have varied greatly as evidenced by the shifts in catechetical practice effected by the modern catechetical movement Just as the dominant forms of theology changed from neo scholastic to anthropological approaches so too did catechesis move from catechism based approaches to more anthropological models based upon human experience In light of this context Catechesis for the New Evangelization examines the theological foundations of catechesis in the Church's understanding of divine revelation and its reception by the human person especially as found in the conciliar constitutions Dei Verbum and Gaudium et Spes After drawing norms on divine revelation from these documents it traces the history of the modern catechetical movement in order to compare this history with the conciliar norms highlighting the renewal's strengths and weaknesses These steps prepare the way for the main part of the book an examination of the anthropology of Karol Wojtya a Pope John Paul II Ultimately his anthropology provides an understanding of the person that can unite divine revelation and human experience in a way that takes what is best from the modern catechetical movement while developing the ministry in a way that can be fruitful for the New Evangelization Pedraza's book is not only an incisive look at modern catechetical history and theory It also touches upon some of the most important
