happening around us and inside us we become able to enhance our sense of connection with others and at the same time change for the better our individual and collective patterns of greed apathy and inattention The Road Home shows that in order to create a truly compassionate and enlightened society we must start with ourselves And this means beginning by working with our own mind in whatever state we find it One of Library Journal s Best Books of 2015 in Religion and Spirituality One of Tech Insider s Nine Books That Defined 2015 Praise for The Road Home The Road Home is a guidebook a compass a map and a trusted companion and as a wanderer I am forever grateful Ruth Ozeki author A Tale for the Time Being Nichtern is as gifted and compassionate a teacher in writing as he is in person I ve dog eared my copy so thoroughly it s swollen to twice its normal size Maud Newton Makes ancient Buddhist teachings and texts approachable contemporary and relevant Valuable for readers looking for an introduction to Buddhist teachings as they relate to meditation practice or for those searching for ways to live their lives in the here and now Library Journal starred review The Migration

Collective Memory, Trauma, and Nostalgia in European Cinema after the Second World War Michael

Baumgartner, Ewelina Boczkowska, 2019-09-23 In the wake of World War II the arts and culture of Europe became a site where the devastating events of the 20th century were remembered and understood Exploring one of the most integral elements of the cinematic experience music the essays in this volume consider the numerous ways in which post war European cinema dealt with memory trauma and nostalgia showing how the music of these films shaped the representation of the past The contributors consider films from the United Kingdom Poland the Soviet Union France Italy Germany Sweden Austria and the Netherlands providing a diverse and well rounded understanding of film music in the context of historical memory Memory is often underrepresented within scholarly musical studies with most of these applications found in the disciplines of ethnomusicology popular music studies music cognition and psychology and music therapy Likewise trauma has mainly been studied in relation to music in only a few historical contexts while nostalgia has attracted even less academic attention In three parts this volume addresses each area of study as it relates to the music of European cinema from 1945 to 1989 applying an interdisciplinary approach to investigate how films use music to negotiate the precarious relationships we maintain with the past Music Collective Memory Trauma and Nostalgia in European Cinema after the Second World War offers compelling arguments as to what makes music such a powerful medium for memory trauma and nostalgia
