Anderson, Mike Quarles, 2003-10-08 I have the desire to do what is good but I cannot carry it out. For what I do is not the good I want to do; no, the evil I do not want to do, this I keep on doing. Romans 7:18-19 NIV. A Message of Hope and a Plan of Action. Addiction forges its own chains of pain and problems that grow with each day and seem impossible to overcome. If you or someone you know are a captive of addictive behavior, Neil Anderson and Mike Quarles have both a message of hope and a plan of action. Anyone can be set free from addictive behavior, can experience victory in Jesus, and can become an overcomer in life. The key is to identify the root cause of your problem and instead of running away from it, run to God. Do this, and your mind and spirit will be renewed, and no matter what you struggle with, you will find your freedom in Christ. Themelios, Volume 44, Issue 3 D. A. Jesus, Disciple of the Kingdom Osvaldo D. Vena, 2014-01-08 That Jesus started his career as a disciple of John the Baptist is an idea that has gained almost universal recognition in the scholarly world His coming from Galilee to be baptized by John in the river Jordan is the most compelling proof of Jesus subordination to John But quickly after John was executed Jesus started his own career not as a disciple anymore but as a teacher in his own right In this book Osvaldo Vena makes the claim that throughout his ministry Jesus remained a disciple not of John but of a higher power God and God's kingdom Thus Jesus called men and women to join him as co-disciples as he went about proclaiming the nearness of the kingdom through word and action In this work Vena contends that in the Gospel of Mark Jesus is presented as a prototype of true and faithful discipleship a model to be followed and imitated by ancient as well as contemporary believers This presentation amounts to an emerging Christology espoused by the early Markan community on the verge of destruction from outside forces specifically the Jewish Roman war as well as internal divisions resulting from struggles for power in the community
