

The background of the image is a dramatic sky at sunset or sunrise. The sun is partially obscured by dark, heavy clouds, creating a bright, golden glow that filters through the lower parts of the clouds. The sky transitions from a deep orange near the horizon to a darker, more turbulent grey-blue at the top. In the lower-left foreground, the silhouette of a person's hands is visible, raised in a gesture of prayer or supplication. The hands are positioned with palms facing each other, fingers slightly spread, and are set against the bright, glowing part of the sky. The overall mood is one of spiritual contemplation and hope.

over nations that resist the angels from delivering God's answers to prayer. The prophet Daniel committed himself to fasting and prayer for twenty one days. The angel bringing Daniel's answer could not deliver the message because the prince of Persia, a satanic principality, hindered him. The angel had to call for backup from heaven. God sent Archangel Michael to take up the fight. The first angel slipped through the fight and conveyed the message to Daniel: Your prayers can do the same.

Praying Clear Through Will J. Harney, 2019-12-10. God needs giants today, and we receive giant strength by waiting on Him. Will J. Harney. Most believers do not rise to their full privilege in prayer. Successful prayer cannot be rushed. If we want to hear from heaven, we must allow time for God's voice to fully break through the din of life. When we have a tremendous amount of work to be done for the day, we dare not leave out prayer. As Martin Luther observed, "I have so much to do that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer." The real danger in not taking sufficient time to commune with God and implore Him for our requests is the slow erosion of the Spirit's voice when life's static distracts a believer from what is truly important and necessary for a successful life. In this classic work on effective prayer, Will J. Harney reminds us that there are vast rewards in store for those who make prayer a priority. Prayer does not need to be a chore for the growing Christian; for it is one of the highest privileges accorded us. But to receive our divine answer, we must pray clear through—that is, pray continually and with urgency until at last we hear from heaven. And this is the confidence that we have in him: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us, and if we know that he hears us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. 1 John 5:14-15.
