Holy Land? Andrew Mayes, 2012-04-10 Holy Land draws us into the evocative landscape of the Holy Land itself Sacred yet scarred the lands of the Bible stimulate us to think about a range of issues that are both urgent and timeless In Jerusalem a veritable melting pot of cultures we meditate on the question What is home At the River Jordan where John the Baptist delivered his radical call to repentance and baptism we ask Who am I In the cave of Christ's burial and resurrection in the Holy Sepulchre we wonder How can I face the darkness Confronted by the vast desolation of the desert we cry Dare I be alone with God And negotiating the obstacle strewn Road to Emmaus we consider Am I ready for change Holy Land will benefit those preparing to undertake a physical pilgrimage to the Holy Land and those seeking a spiritual resource to deepen the life of faith and discipleship Justice on the Cross Kathleen Christison, 2023-03-09 At its heart liberation theology is a modern theology of resistance to the oppression imposed by colonialist and post colonialist systems and even by churches that cooperate with secular centers of power to oppress the poor and disadvantaged It is a grassroots social justice theology a cri de c ur that seeks to give spiritual succor and hope to those living in seemingly hopeless circumstances Palestinians a people whose suffering has largely been forgotten by the world since Israel's establishment and who are most often stereotyped as extremists and enemies of Israel with no legitimate claim to their own homeland are among the world's most marginalized populations The small Palestinian Christian community an indigenous population descended from Jesus's first followers has created a liberation theology for the Palestinian context that reaches out to its own Christian faithful and their Muslim compatriots This is a nonviolent political theological resistance that follows Jesus's teaching that God is present with all God's children and heeds Jesus's gospel injunctions to comfort the suffering and let the oppressed go free For Palestinians their very survival in the land is resistance to Israel's efforts to remove them and liberation theology sustains their resistance Jesus was the first liberation theologian      The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index , 2004      From Historical to Critical Post-Colonial Theology Robert S. Heaney, 2015-11-06 What is post colonial theology How does it relate to theology that emerged in historically colonial situations These are two questions that get to the heart of Robert S Heaney's work as he considers the extent to which theologians predating the emergence of post colonial theology might be considered as precursory to this theological movement Heaney argues that the work of innovative theologians John S Mbiti and Jesse N K Mugambi important in their own right must now also be considered in relation to the continued emergence of post colonial theology When this is done fresh perspectives on both the nature of post colonial theology and contextual theology emerge Through a sympathetic and critical reading of Mbiti and Mugambi Heaney offers a series of constructive moves that counter the ongoing temptation toward acontextualism that continues to haunt theology both in the North and in the South

Security, Religion, and the Rule of Law Tania Pagotto, Joshua M. Roose, G. P. Marcar, 2023-12-22 Security Religion and the Rule of Law argues that true substantive and sustainable national security is only possible through respect for the rule of law human rights and religious freedom Despite the emphasis on national security and the war on terror that has preoccupied governments for over two decades nations and the world seem to be more divided than ever with a concomitant impact of increasing the risk of terrorism and religious and political violence The national security paradigm previously reserved primarily for foreign threats has been turned increasingly inwards focusing on a state s own citizens as potential threats This is often along religious lines threatening fundamental human freedoms This book provides a series of critical engagements on some of the most pressing issues at the interface of religion and security today including proposing a deeper engagement with theology when dealing with freedom of religious belief exploring a better understanding between domestic peace and international relations abiding by the rule of law while countering terrorism and developing a broader understanding of identities and of the nature of citizenship It provides the resources to further reflect upon and address these topics as well as stimulate further discussions on religion and security matters across a range of different disciplines Wide ranging case studies consider Australia China Europe the Kurdish people Nigeria Russia Ukraine the United Nations and the United States This book will appeal to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including international relations law philosophy political science religious studies security studies and theology It will also appeal to human rights lawyers judges NGO researchers governmental agency specialists and policy makers      New Directions in Mission and Evangelization 3 Stephen B. Bevans, James A. Scherer, 2015-03-11      The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb, 2006-11-09 The last two decades have seen the emergence of a new field of academic study that examines the interaction between religion and ecology. Theologians from every religious tradition have confronted world religions' past attitudes towards nature and acknowledged their own faiths' complicity in the environmental crisis. Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition, profound criticisms of the past, and ecologically oriented visions of God, the Sacred, the Earth, and human beings. The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments. Divided into three main sections, the book's essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field. Part one will explore traditional religious concepts of and attitudes towards nature and how these have been changed by the environmental crisis. Part II looks at larger conceptual issues that transcend individual traditions. Part III will examine religious participation in environmental politics.
