Prayer And Meditation Pelican S:

The Pelicans E. M. Delafield,1919 Of God and Pelicans Jay Byrd McDaniel,1989-01-01 Jay McDaniel s book discusses the understanding of God s relationship to all living things the foundations and guidelines for a life centered ethic the understanding of Christian spirituality and feminism It is a powerful statement on justice peace and respect for the integrity of all creation The Wisdom of Pelicans Donald W. McCullough,2004-01-03 Donald McCullough a respected Presbyterian pastor and president of San Francisco Theological Seminary watched his world tumble down around him when a private confession of an affair became public Writing with courage and absolute candor McCullough describes the pain of hitting bottom and how watching the pelicans at the ocean shore helped him to recover the hope and the faith he thought he had lost forever Revisioning the Sacred J. A. McLean,1997 The Three Pelicans Arthur Styron,1932 The Painted Closet of Lady Anne Bacon Drury H.L. Meakin,2017-07-05 Lady Anne Bacon Drury 1572 1624 was the granddaughter and niece of two of England s Lord Keepers of the Great Seal Sir Nicholas Bacon and Sir Francis Bacon Lady Anne was also the friend and patroness of John Donne and Joseph Hall however she deserves to be remembered in her own right Within her massive country house Lady Anne created a tiny painted room that she seems to have used as a kind of three dimensional book The walls consisted of panels of pictures and mottoes grouped under Latin sentences These panels can still be viewed in a Suffolk museum Christchurch Mansion in Ipswich Some panels point to classical and Biblical sources and to popular emblem books The sources of other panels are more recondite while still others are original compositions by Lady Anne The panels exhibit a contemptus mundi theme and reflect a struggle with ambition pride and even despair Some panels also appear to register carefully veiled but pointed critiques of political and religious events and figures Lady Anne s painted closet or architext is thus relevant to a wide range of early modern scholarship in various disciplines but is as yet largely unappreciated For the first time in four hundred years this book fully describes the closet and places it in its personal social intellectual and aesthetic contexts It argues for the painted closet s importance for understanding early modern conceptualizations of private and public spaces and for illuminating fundamental early modern habits of seeing and reading especially combinations of text and image Finally this book explores the closet as an example of the ingenious ways in which female subjectivity found ways to express itself even within the constraints of early modern patriarchal society in England

Abundance Karen Lloyd,2021-09-02 ONGLISTED FOR THE JAMES CROPPER WAINWRIGHT PRIZE FOR WRITING ON CONSERVATION How should we restore nature and species and why does it matter What is lost when we choose not to engage in restoration of the natural world And which parts of ourselves might we also lose if we choose not to help restore and renew the natural world before it s too late In this collection Karen Lloyd explores abundance and loss in the natural world relating compelling stories of restoration renewal and repair describing how those working on the front lines of conservation are challenging the inevitability of biodiversity loss as well as navigating her own explorations of the meaning of abundance in the Anthropocene In an era of urgent ecological challenge this timely book reveals the places that people are coming together to bring species and habitats back from the edge of extinction Yet elsewhere many other species are being allowed to disappear forever To understand why she examines how humans have chosen to entangle themselves in nature and considers the ways we perceive the natural world A book about ways of seeing as Lloyd explores attitudes towards meaningful restoration she weaves her insightful and joyous narrative through a diverse range of inspiring landscapes from Romania s Carpathian mountains and the Hungarian Steppe to Perthshire s rivers and the dune forests of the Netherlands

Shore-Goss,2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God s creation says Shore Goss we will fight against climate change The Living Church ,1979 British Books in Print ,1985
