

Devotional Prayer vs. Liturgical Prayer

Devotional prayer is a personal, more subjective type of prayer unique to each person.

Adaptable to individual needs and wants

Usually prayed alone or in small groups

Examples include the rosary, novenas, and Lectio Divina

Liturgical prayer is the official public worship of God by the Church as the Body of Christ.

Usually led by an ordained minister and done in community

More formal with prescribed structure, words, and rubrics

Examples include the Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours

Worship ,1929 Bible Missals and the Medieval Dominican Liturgy Innocent Smith, 2023-11-06 Bible Missals are manuscripts that integrate liturgical prayers for the Mass with the scriptural texts of the Latin Vulgate Long overlooked by scholars Bible Missals offer important evidence for the development of the medieval liturgy and the liturgical use of scripture by medieval Christians This monograph is the first comprehensive analysis of the codicology and contents of Bible Missals Mostly produced in the first half of the 13th century by professional book makers in centers like Paris and Oxford these hybrid manuscripts were customized for secular monastic and mendicant patrons This monograph focuses on Dominican Bible Missals the largest group within the repertoire providing detailed codicological descriptions of each manuscript and analyzing their texts for the Order of Mass and selected liturgical formularies including prayers for the feast of St Dominic For medieval Christians the words and events of scripture were continually called to mind and reenacted in the sacramental rites of the Mass Bible Missals provide important material evidence for this interplay between word and sacrament I Am With You Always Benedict C.F.R. Groeschel, 2011-02-18 A Study of the History and Meaning of Personal Devotion to Jesus Christ for Catholic Orthodox and Protestant Christians The devotional life of Christians over the two millennia since Jesus birth has been one of motion changing and growing in response to the challenges presented to the Church the temperaments of newly baptized nations and controversies about how we can and should relate to God And yet the core of authentic Christian devotion has not changed it remains today as it was in the time of the Church Fathers the trusting and personal encounter with Christ that is both open and foundational to the life of all Christian believers In this book the well known spiritual writer and teacher Fr Benedict Groeschel C F R surveys the development and trials of Christian devotion from the days of the martyrs until the twentieth century Tracking it through the centuries and among sadly divided branches of Christianity he finds a commonality of experience and even of language that is constantly ignored among Christians themselves By observing what image of Christ the canvas of common devotion portrays he hopes we will move not to discredit this image but to sharpen it and make it more consistent with the New Testament and the ancient Church Though the devotional life is sometimes brushed off as unimportant in comparison to a theological understanding of Christ Groeschel warns that such dismissal threatens to make distant unknown and obscure the Savior who said I am with you always The answer instead is to draw near to Jesus in devotion and with authentic expressions of that devotion which themselves help paint the image of Christ found concretely in revelation onto the minds and daily life of the devout Begun on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and the result of years of preparation and a whole life of guiding people as priest public preacher psychologist and spiritual director this book will help Catholic Orthodox and Protestant believers gain not only a comprehensive view of how pious Christians over the centuries have lived out their devotion to God but the examples and perspective they need to live more devoutly today Children's Liturgy of the Word 2014-2015 Maureen A.
