

Prayer For Hope For Prisoners

Father Lord in heaven,
We ask for hope for all prisoners.
Let each day start with brand new strength for them. Let them already picture their lives in a better state.
Show them visions of freedom.
Keep them focused on your glory.
Let them be reminded of your love every day. Let them never give up on themselves.
Teach them to not harm themselves.
Let them know that this is not the end for them. and let their hands be strengthened. against defeatist thoughts always.

Amen

Dahill, 2010-06-01 Despite Dietrich Bonhoeffer's earlier theological achievements and writings it was his correspondence and notes from prison that electrified the postwar world six years after his death in 1945 The materials gathered and selected by his friend Eberhard Bethge in Letters and Papers from Prison not only brought Bonhoeffer to a wide and appreciative readership especially in North America they also introduced to a broad readership his novel and exciting ideas of religionless Christianity his open and honest theological appraisal of Christian doctrines and his sturdy if sorely tried faith in face of uncertainty and doubt This splendid volume in many ways the capstone of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works is the first unabridged collection of Bonhoeffer's 1943-1945 prison letters and theological writings Here are over 200 documents that include extensive correspondence with his family and Eberhard Bethge much of it in English for the first time as well as his theological notes and his prison poems The volume offers an illuminating introduction by editor John de Gruchy and an historical Afterword by the editors of the original German volume Christian

Are you a prison officer who feels nervous about dealing with Muslims on the wings Are you a prison chaplain who wants to know how your chaplaincy affects the lives of prisoners Are you a policymaker who needs a robust base of evidence for Islam in prison Are you an academic or a journalist seeking ground breaking social science in a contentious field Based on original evidence from 279 Muslim prisoners and 79 prison officers we explore how Muslims come to be incarcerated how the practice of Islam affects prison life and rehabilitation the types of Islam and the effects of Islamic conversion in prison and the professional practice of officers and chaplains We also investigate the common belief that incarceration fosters Islamist extremism and suggest improvements to faith provision and rehabilitative opportunities for Muslim prisoners Prayers by a Prisoner Aubrey Lee Price, 2017-05-08 As disappointing and difficult as your incarceration may be there is always hope and a spiritual solution In your desperation take time to be still put your anxieties to rest and draw close to God He is very near and will meet you at your point of need This book will help you discover that the God of all comfort is near to the brokenhearted and discouraged God will turn your despair into hope your darkness into light and your doubts into faith What other prisoners have written about Prayers by a Prisoner Price puts our deepest questions about walking with God through this darkness into perspective Every prisoner must read this book Jason Chapman federal prisoner I've been arrested forty nine times and have read many books in jail and prison I've read this book three times already and I feel like I need to read it again and again This book on prayer helped me understand that God loves me no matter what I've done Terry Buck federal prisoner After struggling with years of depression bad decisions and lots of prison time chapter twelve has changed my entire thought process If you read nothing else read chapter twelve Chapters fourteen and fifteen are very powerful too David McNutt After over thirty arrests and being in and out of jail since I was thirteen this book helped me finally understand why I am making so many impulsive and irrational decisions I did not understand that God loved me this way My life is now being transformed Johnny Hill federal prisoner From the Introduction I want to explain that I am a fellow struggler in Christ I am not infallible and thankfully I have abandoned the God complex My flaws and mistakes are obvious and I say along with the apostle Paul that I am the chief of all sinners This book is not about any extra ordinary knowledge or insight that I have attained It is simply about the practices and habits that God has led me to develop to make the most of my time in prison and the remainder of my life I am a learner an avid reader and a lifelong student of contemplative prayer I am always asking God to make the necessary changes that He knows I need to implement in order for me to conform to the image of Christ Just because I am a Christian does not mean I am without troubles pain and suffering We all know the affliction and darkness we experience in prison We have been through the inhumane harsh and brutal process of eternal condemnation We are alienated isolated and despised by society Our names have become a reproach The odds of any kind of comeback are stacked against us The world looks upon us as pariah and with contempt Many of us are rejected and forsaken and we wrestle with feelings of deep loneliness abandonment and overwhelming regret We wonder if there is any hope The good news is that Jesus repeatedly gave dignity back to the despised Others may look at us with scorn but Jesus makes us human again Here is the bottom line God knows every thought we have ever had every step we've ever taken and every word we've ever spoken He knows the intentions of our hearts He knows all the things we've seen and done that make us want to run hide and even die And yet He still loves us Jesus is a friend and lover of sinners like you and me and there is nothing we can do to make Him stop loving us He meets us where we are He disciplines and corrects us when necessary He forgives our past He overwhelms us with His love and He gives us an eternal home in Heaven Nothing can separate us from His infinite love Because of this we can say along with the Psalmist I will not die but live and tell of the works of the Lord The Lord has disciplined me severely but He has not given me over to death Psalm 118 17-19 Included as a supplement is a five chapter preview of my memoir Hope Is Not My Enemy which details my life story and the failure of my securities business and MBT Bank
