Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology. It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence. Topics include intimate partner violence, sexual abuse and trauma, and clergy sexual misconduct. Controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and, as well, positive frameworks for fostering well-being in families, church, and society. Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice, these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology, care, and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice. Called to Preside Theresa

Cotter, 2005-07-29 Called to Preside is a complete guide to the art and craft of presiding at public prayer. Theresa Cotter lays a solid groundwork for those new to the study of liturgy and encourages novice presiders with numerous suggestions for practicing presiding skills. This handbook will serve as an invaluable reference and resource throughout your presiding ministry. Topics include the call to preside, common words with special meanings in the context of liturgy, the presider as a person of prayer, signs and symbols, liturgical essentials, methods to sharpen presiding skills, the public prayer of the faith community, tips for meeting ongoing presiding challenges, a wealth of resources for continued growth and learning. In the introduction, Cotter writes: We need to learn about liturgy, about symbols, rituals, and rites. We need to learn about presiding and practice its skills. We need to evaluate our own giftedness and remain open to the workings of the Holy Spirit. Above all, we need to pray. This handbook will help in both the discerning process and the learning process. It can enable us to respond with wisdom, courage, generosity, confidence, and enthusiasm. If our call to preside is authentic, the Spirit will ignite within us a desire to preside and to preside well. The most tentative maybe will be transformed into an enthusiastic yes. Digging Deep Michael Downey, 2003 Adolescent males crave guidance on how to integrate their spiritual selves into their rapidly changing bodies and lives.
