Praying With Dorothy Day Companions For The Journey:

Praying with Dorothy Day James Allaire, Rosemary Broughton, 1995 This is quite simply the best introduction I know to the life and spirit of Dorothy Day It helps the reader meet Dorothy Day and the people and the God she loved so much 15

Days of Prayer With Dorothy Day Michael Boover, 2013-12-25 Dorothy Day connected radical faith with doing radical deeds Beginning from her discovery of God in the Word when she was eight years old Michael Boover shares Dorothy's reflections about her pilgrimage to the daily discipline of readiness and openness to God in her life especially to God in her neighbor He shares her words on why and how she prays on her preference for frequent confession on her intentional choice of suffering and poverty and on her desire to imitate the saints and to make sanctity the norm of everyone's life In these 15 days we see how Dorothy's discipline gave her true freedom In particular it allowed her to give priority to Love to take the most direct route to God by loving her neighbor She recognized the paucity of her own best spiritual efforts and took refuge in the fact that God would do for believers what they could not fully do for themselves Boover's practical exercises emulate Day's own temperament They push you to live with more integrity and deeper love and they show a deep compassion for the difficulty of the challenge

Faith and Feminism Helen LaKelly Hunt, 2007-11-01 Why do so many women of faith have such a strong aversion to feminism And why do so many feminists have an ardent mistrust of religion These questions are at the heart of Helen LaKelly Hunt's illuminating look at the alliance between spiritual conviction and social action Intelligent and heartfelt Faith and Feminism offers a perceptive look at the lives of five spirited and spiritual women of history women who combined their undying faith with feminist beliefs and who made the world a better place by doing so St Teresa of vila a woman whose bravery in confronting her shadows gave her the strength to connect with the world and live a life of divine action Lucretia Mott a Quaker minister who rose from her quiet upbringing to become a passionate speaker and activist working tirelessly on behalf of justice and peace Sojourner Truth a Christian slave who spoke out with unwavering courage to claim her God given rightful place as an African American and a woman Emily Dickinson an extraordinary poet who touched the world with her ability to capture and transform the experience of suffering Dorothy Day a radical journalist who lived a life of voluntary poverty as a way of expressing her passion for the Christian faith and care for those in need A remarkable book that focuses on the idea that spirituality and feminism are really different expressions of the same impulse to make life more whole Faith and Feminism offers a powerful catalyst for reflecting on our sense of self and for living and loving according to our deepest values U.S. Catholic Historian, 1998 *Praying with C. Christian Spirituality

Lawrence Cunningham, Keith J. Egan, 1996 Christian Spirituality is a concise and accessible overview of the ways Christians over the centuries have approached God in prayer and practice. In ten chapters Lawrence Cunningham and Keith Egan explain the dynamics of spiritual life, each chapter exploring a single theme such as scripture, journeying, meditation, contemplation, asceticism, mysticism, solitude, community, friendship, eucharist. The themes are not mutually exclusive since believers frequently embrace several or all of these ways at once. But in different times and places people have tended to focus on one or another so that they have become discernible paths to the Holy. The authors explore each theme in depth, tracing its evolution over the centuries. Within this historical framework the book provides the reader with a taste of the different ways Christians have sought or lived in the presence of God. Each chapter concludes with a list of selected works for further reading and with exercises intended to provide a personal experience of the way. Blazing the Trail Vinita

Hampton Wright, 2025-02-07 Four remarkable women stand apart as women who boldly carried their faith into the heart of American life. Saints Elizabeth Ann Seton and Frances Xavier Cabrini and Servants of God Dorothy Day and Thea Bowman. Building on the success of Set the World on Fire, renowned spiritual author and retreat leader Vinita Hampton Wright now offers Blazing the Trail, a powerful four-week retreat with these American Women of the Church to help you connect personally with some of the Church's most influential female visionaries and activists. Spanning three centuries of American history, the dramatic lives of these women will inspire you to cultivate grit, humility, discernment, vision, courage, and strength. Each week of your retreat begins with weekend reading and prayer to introduce the woman and the spiritual theme of the week, followed by five days of morning and evening prayers. Much of the text comes from the women's own writings. Scripture reflection, questions, and action steps are thoughtfully crafted to help you engage personally with each woman and her wisdom for living out your faith. Week one: St. Elizabeth Ann Seton considered the mother of American Catholic education. Seton's pursuit of truth transformed her journey from Episcopal convert to Catholic founder, revealing how faith can redefine your calling. Week two: St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, a determined Italian immigrant whose missionary work brought hope and purpose to thousands of orphans and impoverished children in New York City during the late 1800s, offers a lesson in how perseverance and faith can change the world. Week three: Servant of God Dorothy Day, a social activist of the twentieth century who poured her heart out for the poor and the marginalized while unabashedly criticizing hypocrisy in the Church, dares us to match our bold declarations of faith with equally bold actions. Week four: Servant of God Thea Bowman, a Black religious sister and dynamic teacher who through her love, liturgy, and voice inspires us to embrace our full selves and to love others without reservation. This retreat goes beyond simply reading about saints; it invites you to integrate the wisdom of these extraordinary women into your everyday life. Through scripture, prayer, and their own words, Blazing the Trail calls you to grow spiritually and take meaningful action, guiding you toward a deeper, more courageous faith. Peace Behind Bars
