The Heart: The Key to Everything in the Christian Life Tim Rowe, 2016-03-10. We need to recover a truth that has been all but lost in modern day Christianity. It has been buried for too long and it is too valuable to be forgotten. This life-changing truth is that the heart is the key to everything in the Christian life. The heart is the wellspring of all our actions, emotions, motives, and character. Everything we are, everything we say, and everything we do flows directly from the heart. In The Heart: The Key to Everything in the Christian Life, believers will discover how the heart is central to spiritual growth and how it will help us better reflect the image of Christ in a fallen world. The heart is the key to our service and obedience to the Father. The heart is the key to the purity and depth of our worship, praise, and love of God. It is time the Christian church once again teaches a proper understanding of the heart so that we can fully embrace and manifest the life of Christ within us.

Faithful Deliberation T J Geiger, 2022-06-14. Investigates the rhetorical practices used by contemporary evangelical Christian women to confront theological and cultural issues that stymie deliberation within their communities. While often perceived as an insular enclave with a high level of in-group agreement about political and social issues, predominantly white evangelicalism includes prominent voices urging deliberation about appropriate responses to sexual abuse, domestic violence, and the discourses surrounding these traumas. In Faithful Deliberation: Rhetorical Invention, Evangelicalism, and MeToo Reckonings, T J Geiger II examines theologically reflective rhetorical invention that reconfigures trauma, minimizing commonplaces in order to facilitate community internal deliberation. Resting at the intersection of feminist rhetorical studies and religious rhetorics, this book contains four related theological rhetorical case studies that consider how figures such as Beth Moore, Jen Hatmaker, Rachael Denhollander, Karen Swallow Prior, and others engaged in rhetorical invention. Each juxtaposes differing approaches to contending with rape, domestic violence, sexual abuse, and other traumas. Each case contrasts an approach based on appeals to highly circumscribed understandings of grace, purity, and other denomination-specific traditions and values with approaches rooted in those same traditions and values but with an eye toward community transformation, healing through justice, and reinvigorated forms of forgiveness. Geiger skillfully argues that this faithful deliberation involves practices of thinking, reflecting, storytelling, and acting within a tightly bounded community that can foster change through a recommitment to core values. These rhetorical practices exemplify the kind of inventive listening, deliberative discourse, requires point to the sort of healing they may promote in response to trauma, and trauma discourses and occur within a range of genres including social media posts, blog entries, published interviews, victim impact statements, and petitions. This study of invention for evangelical to other evangelical deliberative discourse contributes to rhetorical studies by demonstrating the civic and social possibilities of rhetoric within religious enclaves. By locating the case studies as recent moments in longer US public and evangelical histories of activism, deliberative practice, and politics, Faithful

Deliberation brings into focus how enclaves and the dominant public sphere interact Praying God's Word: Devotional Journal Beth Moore, 2002-09-01 The blessing of Praying God's Word now appears in its most usable format yet a devotional journal that marries Beth's own thoughts with Scripture prayers that speak to dozens of real life situations leaving time for readers to personalize the prayers to their own lives This devotional is a comfortable balance between receiving and responding Each day's experience magnifies the Bible's relevance to everyday issues Sure to be a favorite for those who are seeking a deeper relationship with God through prayer Teach Us To Pray Travis Blake, 2023-06-12 Why should we pray if God is in control of everything If God wants us to pray why is prayer so hard Why is God saying no Prayer produces questions Over time these unanswered questions can become roadblocks in our communication with God They may tempt us to doubt the love of God or cause us to exchange a vibrant obedient relationship with Him for dry moral conformity Often well intentioned responses to these questions include blank stares prepackaged trite statements or admonitions toward blind trust Seekers are encouraged to navigate around instead of pressing through our doubts concerns and fears A detour may reveal truths about God but wrestling helps us know God In part 1 of Teach Us to Pray author Travis Blake invites the reader to wrestle through these and other common questions surrounding prayer With wit humor and Biblical insight Blake demonstrates the value of pressing into seemingly unanswerable questions In part 2 Blake moves from practical wrestling to practical application The Lord's Prayer is the most memorized yet underutilized text in Scripture It's recited on Sundays but oft ignored Monday through Saturday Though not intended to shape every communication we have with God its pattern helps focus our minds enhances our worship and shapes our asking When used as an outline it serves as a structure capable of restructuring us Teach Us to Pray is an invitation to wrestle laugh question and smile while improving our prayer lives and building stronger more intimate relationships with God The Conqueror's Tread Shandon L. Guthrie, 2022-02-02 For many Christians the concept of spiritual warfare involves scenarios that are often enchanting extravagant and even parapsychological Hard lined skeptics respond by treating it instead as an archaic and outmoded superstition a farce While we might think a simple reading of Scripture will settle the matter this has not been the case since those writing on the subject are tacitly influenced by dubious philosophical commitments and presuppositions left unchecked This groundbreaking book incorporates philosophical reasoning in formulating for the everyday Christian a robust biblical doctrine of spiritual warfare It is a serious but readable attempt to understand what spiritual warfare is by addressing both the theological and philosophical issues involved The Conqueror's Tread dares to take a reasoned approach to pressing questions such as Do supernatural beings really exist If so what are they and what can they do Are there territorial spirits Is exorcism a part of spiritual warfare Does spiritual warfare involve speaking aloud prayerwalking and breaking curses What can evil spirits do to Christians Can Christians be demon possessed Why would God allow his people to be in a state of conflict with evil spirits What is Christian holiness and how do we pursue it What role does apologetics have and many more
