Early Cinema Thomas Elsaesser,Adam Barker,2019-07-25 In the twenty years preceding the First World War cinema rapidly developed from a fairground curiosity into a major industry and social institution a source of information and entertainment for millions of people Only recently have film scholars and historians begun to study these early years of cinema in their own right and not simply as first steps towards the classical narrative cinema we now associate with Hollywood The essays in this collection trace the fascinating history of how the cinema developed its forms of storytelling and representation and how it evolved into a complex industry with Hollywood rapidly acquiring a dominant role These issues can be seen to arise from new readings of the so called pioneers Melies Lumiere Porter and Griffith while also suggesting new perspectives on major European filmmakers of the 1910s and 20s Editor Thomas Elsaesser complements the contributions from leading British American and European scholars with introductory essays of his own that provide a comprehensive overview of the field The volume is the most authoritative survey to date of a key area of contemporary film research invaluable to historians as well as to students of cinema

The Horizontal Effect Revolution and the Question of Sovereignty Johan van der Walt,2014-08-25 That the recent turn in European Constitutional Review has effectively brought about a revolution in European law has been observed before At issue are two major developments in European judicial review On the one hand the European Court of Human Rights has been collapsing traditional boundaries between constitutional law and private law with a series of decisions that effectively recognized the horizontal effect of Convention rights in the private sphere On the other hand the European Court of Justice has also given horizontal effect to fundamental liberties embodied in the Treaty on the Function of the European Union in a number of recent cases in a way that puts established boundaries between Member State and Union competences in question This book takes issue with these developments by bringing to the fore a key issue that the horizontality effect debate has hitherto largely overlooked namely the question of sovereignty It shows with detailed references to especially the American debate on state action and the German debate on Drittwirkung that horizontal effect cannot be understood consistently without coming to grips with the conceptions of state sovereignty that inform different approaches to horizontal effect

The Formation of Islamic Law Wael B. Hallaq, 2016-12-05 The fourteen studies included in this volume have been chosen to serve several purposes simultaneously At a basic level they aim to provide a general if not wholly systematic coverage of the emergence and evolution of law during the first three and a half centuries of Islam On another level they reflect the different and at times widely divergent scholarly approaches to this subject matter These two levels combined will offer a useful account of the rise of Islamic law not only for students in this field but also for Islamicists who are not specialists in matters of law comparative legal historians and others At the same time however and as the Introduction to the work argues this collection of distinguished contributions illustrates both the achievements and the shortcomings of paradigmatic scholarship on the formative period of Islamic law Preclassical Conflict of Laws Nikitas

Hatzimihail, 2021-07-22 Showcases a novel method for approaching private international law combining theoretical insight textual analysis and historical context The Buddha Image Yuvraj Krishan, 1996 Illustrations 247 b w illustrations

Description This book deals with crucial though controversial questions in Buddhist art the origin of the Buddha image and the iconography of the Buddha images The earliest Buddhist art of Sanchi and Bharhut is aniconic The Buddha is represented in symbols only In the later Buddhist art of Gandhara and Mathura the Buddha is represented in human form he is the principal subject of sculptural art The book seeks to explore the geographical area in which the image of the Buddha first emerged and whether the Buddhist doctrines Hinayana or Mahayana had anything to do with this transformation The Buddha image as developed eventually at Sarnath became the model for the Buddha images in whole of Asia south east central and eastern Asia The iconographic features of the Buddha image are superficially an aberration being in apparent conflict with the doctrine The Buddha had cut off his hair at the time of his renunciation the rules of the order enjoin that a monk must be tonsured and must discard and eschew all riches However in his images the Buddha has hair on his head later he is also endowed with a crown and jewels After an exhaustive examination of the views of various scholars the book answers these questions and resolves the controversies on the basis of literary numismatic and epigraphic sources More importantly it makes use of the valuable evidence from the contemporaneous Jaina art Aniconism of early Jaina art and the iconographic features of Jaina images The implications of this study are also important Does India owe idolatry to Buddhism Was this of foreign inspiration Was the Buddha image fashioned after the Vedic Brahma and whether the Buddha's usnisa and Buddhist art motifs are rooted in the Vedic tradition The book is profusely illustrated and provides rich and stimulating fare to students of Indian art in general and of Buddhist art in particular      Conflicted Power in Malawian Christianity Klaus Fiedler, 2015-12-01 The volume constitutes Klaus Fiedler's crowning contribution to scholarship Essays in the first half of the book focus on Malawian Christianity and how contrasting Powers Gospel and Secular engage each other creating social political and cultural conflict in the process In the second half Fiedler examines general missiological themes These essays provide a broader missiological background offering a theoretical framework necessary for appreciating the essays in the first half He concludes with a chapter that reviews selected seminal books on themes under study Throughout the volume Fiedler applies the restorationist revival theory he constructed in The Story of Faith Missions an earlier 1994 work putting emphasis on non classical missions and churches not systematically covered in earlier scholarship This volume the first of its kind on Malawian Christianity will long remain an indispensable text for those interested in Missiology and Malawian Christianity      A History of Sanskrit Grammatical Literature in Tibet Pieter C. Verhagen, 1994 The first comprehensive survey of the important corpus of Indic literature on Sanskrit grammar extant in Tibetan translation in the Buddhist canon A systematic study of the history of the Tibetans expertise in this central scholastic discipline in Buddhism      Annuario della Scuola Archeologica di Atene e delle Missioni Italiane in Oriente, Supplemento 13. Athens and Attica from the Late Bronze Age to the end of the Archaic period. The spatial roots of politics and society Alain Duploux, Nikolaos Arvanitis, 2024-12-27 This volume contains the proceedings of the international conference Attica from the Late Bronze Age to the End of the Archaic Period The Spatial Roots of Politics and Society organised by the Italian Archaeological School at Athens and the University Paris 1 Panth on Sorbonne on 10 and 11 June 2021 The venue was originally scheduled for 13 and 14 March 2020 in Athens but the event fell victim to the global COVID19 crisis and was eventually reorganised as an online conference in June 2021 The conference was organised in connection with the research project Lands of Meaning A GIS Study of Space and Social Praxis in Ancient Attica from the Mycenaean Age to the Birth of Democracy 1200 480 BC which was carried out as a Marie Skłodowska Curie Action MSCA between 2017 and 2019 at the University Paris 1 Panth on Sorbonne The Lands of Meaning project aimed to re-examine the Athenian territory from the end of the Bronze Age to the beginning of the Classical period by considering Attica as a space that was socially constructed through a constant dialogue between the landscape and the communities that inhabited it The aim of the project was to integrate the large amount of archaeological data collected throughout the 20th c into a heuristic and hermeneutic framework that considers the spatial and ecological dimensions of historical cultural political and social phenomena The Lands of Meaning project was originally conceived as a two year pilot project to introduce new digital methods and heuristic social theories of space The project will be further developed at the University Paris 1 Panth on Sorbonne as a long term endeavour to incorporate space into archaeological thinking and to consider the material and territorial conditions of the emergence of the city state in Athens and more broadly in ancient Greece The conference programme can be found below The presentations were not recorded to allow for a lively discussion Most of the speeches given online were then converted into the contributions collected in this volume supplemented by a chapter by Pavlos Karvonis on Roman Attica and a description of the Thorikos Archive by the Belgian team Unfortunately some of the lectures given at the conference could not be included in the volume First of all we would like to thank Emanuele Papi Director of the Italian Archaeological School at Athens who fully supported the project and proposed to host the conference which was to take place in March 2020 at the School's premises in Athens Our heartfelt thanks go to our Greek colleagues from the Hellenic Ministry of Culture and the Ephorates of Antiquities of Attica Eleni Andrikou Stella Chrysoulaki Anastasia Gadolou and Christina Merkouri who agreed to chair the conference sessions and led fascinating and disciplined discussions We also invited four titans as we amicably called them during the conference to a final round of talks Tonio Ho lscher Irene Lemos Robin Osborne and Francis de Polignac took up the challenge and drew fascinating conclusions from the presentations as well as some key ideas for the elaboration of ancient history from archaeological evidence As it would have been difficult to render these lively thoughts into formal papers we have decided to preserve them in our oral memory Finally we would like to thank the Italian Archaeological School at Athens for including the publication of the conference in its collections as well as the two anonymous reviewers whose comments have given the authors food for thoughts This book was published with the support of the Marie Skłodowska Curie Action the University Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne and the research unit Trajectoires UMR 8215 While Nikolaos Arvanitis was involved in the organisation of the conference as part of his MSCA scholarship Alain Duploux compiled and edited all the contributions on his own We are also indebted to Mariana Silva Porto who thoroughly re-read all contributions especially those written by non-native speakers and significantly improved the texts As a doctoral student working on the Paris project she deserves full credit for contributing to the edition of the volume

Ezekiel Henry McKeating, 1993-08-01 A much neglected prophet Ezekiel is nevertheless a key figure in Old Testament religion Standing where he does at the great crisis point of Israel's history the exile he confronts the basic questions can the nation survive and should it Ezekiel represents the priestly strand in Israel's thinking which lays such weight on the temple as the place of the presence of God How can the nation be sustained when it has been deprived of its traditional place of worship Ezekiel's reply is that the presence of God is still available even in the land of exile but that the presence is yet to be restored to its proper place in Jerusalem Like the other volumes in the Old Testament Guides series this compact study of Ezekiel will be much appreciated by the student turning to the study of the prophet for the first time

The Politically Incorrect Guide to English And American Literature Elizabeth Kantor, 2006-10-01 Citing declining coverage of classic English and American literature in today's schools a politically incorrect primer challenges popular misconceptions while introducing the works of such core masters as Shakespeare Faulkner and Austen in a volume that is complemented by a syllabus and a self study guide Original

Interdenominational Faith Missions in Africa Fiedler, Klaus, 2018-03-13 It was not the European and American churches which evangelised Africa but the mission societies The missions from the Great Awakening such as the London Missionary Society and Church Missionary Society or the Holy Ghost Fathers and the White Fathers which started the process of Sub Saharan Africa becoming a Christian continent are well known and documented Less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of Africa North Africa the Sudan Belt and the Congo Basin Missions such as the Africa Inland Mission or Sudan Interior Mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ECWA in Nigeria and Africa Inland Church in Kenya It is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched Africa

Prophecy in the Ancient Near East Jonathan Stökl, 2013-02-06 Since the 1990s there has been an emphasis on the study of ancient Israelite prophecy in its ancient Near East context Prophecy in the Ancient Near East is the first book length study that compares prophecy in the ancient Near East by focusing on texts from Mari the Neo Assyrian State Archives and the Hebrew Bible The author analyzes prophecy in each culture independently before comparisons are made This method demonstrates how prophecy is a part of the wider system of divination but also shows where scholarship has unduly imported concepts found in one corpus to the other two This method for example calls into question the supposed link between music and prophecy from the Hebrew Bible to the ancient Near East This work provides an up to date analysis of ancient Near Eastern including Israelite and Judean prophecy to scholars and students alike I thoroughly enjoyed reading the book and I can highly recommend it to anyone interested in prophecy in Israel and the ancient Near East Lena Sofia Tiemeyer University of Aberdeen Review of Biblical Literature The content of Jonathan Stökl's book testifies to the value of the book for the studies of prophecy in the ancient Near East Wojciech Pikor John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin The Biblical Annals

Phillip I.
