Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt, 2020-09-25 Love's Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard's discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean's Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger's South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan's Atonement

Keats and Philosophy Shahidha Kazi Bari, 2012-09-10 John Keats remains one of the most familiar and beloved of English poets but has received surprisingly little critical attention in recent years This study is a fresh contribution to Keats criticism and Romantic scholarship positioning Keats as a figure of philosophical interest who warrants renewed attention Exploring Keats's own Romantic accounts of feeling and thinking this study draws a connection between poetry and the phenomenological branches of modern philosophy The study takes Keats's poetic evocation of touching hands wandering feet beating hearts and breathing bodies as a descriptive elaboration of consciousness and a phenomenological account of experience The philosophical terms of analysis adopted here challenge the orthodoxies of Keats scholarship traditionally characterised by the careful historicisation of a limited canon The philosophical framework of analysis enhances the readings put forward while Keats's poems in turn serve to give fuller expression of those ideas themselves Using Keats as a particular case this book also demonstrates the ways in which theory and philosophy supplement literary scholarship

Preemptive Strike J.

Holmes,2005-02 The Green Berets always win In the late 1950 s and early 1960 s the ultimate training in fighting and self defense methods were the Green Berets When Matt Wilson was stationed in Okinawa he discovered Karate and found it to be the perfect compliment to his military training One summer Matt returns to the USA to visit a friend in Alabama When the KKK discovers Matt a Catholic visitor in their town they decide to get rid of him Unfortunately for them the local KKK chapter has no idea who they have decided to cross As the Klan unleashes a series of crimes including murder against Matt and his friends Matt sets up a well thought out defense against them When he realizes the Klan will not quit he decides the only solution to protect him and his friends is a definitive Preemptive Strike Preemptive Strike A Matt Wilson Novel

Chasing Heaven Crystal McVea,Alex Tresniowski,2016-03-22 The author recalls how after her near death visit to Heaven her life changed and she embraced a life of love faith and passion in this world and advises readers to adopt the path of faith in order to make the most of the time they have

Breaking Silence Chad R. Abbott,Everett Mitchell,2004 The aim of this book is not to provide absolutes or sure solutions to abolishing war Our aim is to begin a conversation in local churches In order to start this conversation we invited a panel of scholars pastors laypeople and activists to write on war and the Church

Preemptive Strike Phillip Torsrud,2007-11 In the turbulent 1990s in Russia eighteen year old Svetlana is about to graduate from high school She dreams of traveling and of becoming a Russian ambassador to the United States or England But when she meets Yuri a young ruffian working for the Russian Mafia her life takes a drastic turn Yuri wants to date Svetlana but she rejects him and Yuri swears vengeance When Svetlana is offered the chance to be a nanny to a loving English family in London she boards the plane without a second thought Only too late does she discover that Yuri has carried out a vicious plot against her Heathcliff an imposing Englishman certainly doesn t need a nanny but he does need more girls for his prostitution ring and beautiful exotic Svetlana will make the perfect addition Held hostage and forced to become a prostitute Svetlana becomes all too familiar with the seedy London underworld But Yuri didn t bargain on Svetlana s courageous inner spirit and she ll do whatever it takes to escape and seek her own revenge Relentless Love Edwin Carl Smith,2004 Ed Smith defines enchantment as that place where our life and our deepest dreams merge and he maintains that it is our true nature In Relentless Love he proposes that we can live lives of enchantment through the practice of relentless love He inspires us to create a world based on our intention to love and our faith in life and contends that evolution is propelling us to do so He defines evolution as events you do not like that converge to create a possibility you could not anticipate This is an original lucid voice with something very compelling and vital to say that can change all of our lives

Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities Sarah Jaquette Ray, Jay Sibara, 2017-06 Although scholars in the environmental humanities have been exploring the dichotomy between wild and built environments for several years few have focused on the field of disability studies a discipline that enlists the contingency between environments and bodies as a foundation of its scholarship On the other hand scholars in disability studies have demonstrated the ways in which the built environment privileges some bodies and minds over others yet they have rarely examined the ways in which toxic environments engender chronic illness and disability or how environmental illnesses disrupt dominant paradigms for scrutinizing disability Designed as a reader for undergraduate and graduate courses Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities employs interdisciplinary perspectives to examine such issues as slow violence imperialism race toxicity eco sickness the body in environmental justice ableism and other topics With a historical scope spanning the seventeenth century to the present this collection not only presents the foundational documents informing this intersection of fields but also showcases the most current work making it an indispensable reference

Waging Peace Diana Oestreich, 2020-09-01 Diana Oestreich a combat medic in the Army National Guard enlisted like both her parents before her But when she was commanded to run over an Iraqi child to keep her convoy rolling and keep her battle buddies safe she was confronted with a choice she never thought she'd have to make Torn between God's call to love her enemy and her country's command to be willing to kill Diana chose to wage peace in a place of war For the remainder of her tour of duty Diana sought to be a peacemaker leading to an unlikely and beautiful friendship with an Iraqi family A beautiful and gut wrenching memoir Waging Peace exposes the false divide between loving our country and living out our faith's call to love our enemies whether we perceive our enemy as the neighbor with an opposing political viewpoint the clerk wearing a head covering or the refugee from a war torn country By showing that us versus them is a false choice this book will inspire each of us to choose love over fear

Poetics of Loss Katharina Lempe, 2015 With the removal of death from the public sphere mourning has become a private matter At the same time particularly in poetry the trend is reversed An intensely elegiac quality and a focus on absence death and loss can be observed in contemporary Anglophone poetry This study examines the poetry of Andrew Motion in the context of the contemporary elegy a genre which is at a crossroads between the anti consolatory refusal to mourn the inability to move past grief and the strong wish for redemption from grief Motion's poetry which mainly deals with preemptive attempts to cope with loss can be seen as a typical example for the contemporary melancholy mood in poetry Series Erlanger Studies of English and American Studies Erlanger Studien zur Anglistik und Amerikanistik Vol 15 Subject Poetry Death Studies Literary Criticism
