The Archaeology of Seafaring in Ancient South Asia Himanshu Prabha Ray, 2003-08-14 Prior to European expansion communities of the Indian subcontinent had a strong maritime orientation In this new archaeological study Himanshu Prabha Ray explores seafaring activity religious travel and political economy in this ancient period By using archaeological data from the Red Sea to the Indonesian archipelago she reveals how the early history of peninsular South Asia is interconnected with that of its Asian and Mediterranean partners in the Indian Ocean Region The book departs from traditional studies focusing on the communities maritime history rather than agrarian expansion and the emergence of the state Rather than being a prime mover in social economic and religious change the state is viewed as just one participant in a complex interplay of social actors including merchants guilds boat builders sailors pilgrims religious clergy and craft producers A study that will be welcomed by students of Archaeology and Ancient History particularly those interested in South Asian Studies

Merchants of Maritime India, 1500-1800 Ashin Das Gupta, 2024-10-28 The focus of this volume is the rise and fall of the Indian maritime merchant in the early modern period the heyday of Moghul Surat the appearance of a group of independent merchant shipowners and their eclipse at the end of the period in the face of European competition and monopolies Much of the evidence for the activity of these Indian merchants comes from the records of the Dutch and English East India Companies as well as the papers of English private merchants and this is carefully assessed by Professor Das Gupta in these articles He is also concerned to set the picture thus gained in the context of the trade of the Indian Ocean region as a whole and to relate it to the questions of continuity and change raised by Van Leur Seas and Waterways of the World John Zumerchik, Steven L. Danver, 2009-11-12 This is the first comprehensive encyclopedia on the history of the vast and varied ways human beings have used the world's waterways for business protection and recreation Seas and Waterways of the World An Encyclopedia of History Uses and Issues offers a comprehensive introduction to humanity's historical reliance on the world's seas and waterways and how that reliance continues to evolve Over the course of two volumes this extraordinary resource describes the world's major nautical features the wide variety of uses for those waterways and a number of essential issues arising from water borne commerce The encyclopedia marks the emergence of the aquarium cruise energy fishing insurance mining trade transportation recreation and sport industries and includes entries on harbors ports and coastal development that play a part in the economics of commercial water use Also included is coverage of a number of significant themes such as the rise and fall of the Erie Canal as the gateway to the Midwest and the declining popularity of the Panama Canal Religion, Landscape and Material Culture in Pre-modern South Asia Tilottama Mukherjee, Nupur Dasgupta, 2023-02-10 This book highlights emerging trends and new themes in South Asian history It covers issues broadly related to religion materiality and nature from differing perspectives and methods to offer a kaleidoscopic view of Indian history until the late eighteenth century The essays in the volume focus on understanding questions of premodern religion material culture processes and their spatial and environmental contexts through a study of networks of commodities and cultural and religious landscapes From the early history of coastal regions such as Gujarat and Bengal to material networks of political culture from temples and their connection with maritime trade to the importance of landscape in influencing temple building from regions considered peripheral to mainstream historiography to the development of religious sects this collection of articles maps the diverse networks and connections across regions and time The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of history archaeology museum and heritage studies religion especially Hinduism Sufism and Buddhism and South Asian studies

The Routledge Handbook of the State in Premodern India Hermann Kulke, Bhairabi Prasad Sahu, 2022-01-13 This handbook presents a multilayered and multidimensional history of state formation in premodern India It explores dense and rich local and subregional historiography from the mid first millennium BC to the eighteenth century in South Asia Shifting the focus away from economic and political factors this handbook revises the conventional understanding of states and empires and locates them in their quotidian conduct and activity on socio cultural and concomitant factors Comprehensive in scope this handbook addresses a range of themes connected with the idea of state formation in the subcontinent It includes discussions and debates on ritual practices and the Brahmanical order in early India the Delhi Sultanate and role of Sultans among the Hindu kings the cosmopolitan Islamicate cultural influences on Puranic Hinduism cultural background of the

Mughal state The handbook examines new questions and ideologies of state formation such as facets of violence and resistance the significance of the autonomous spaces and forests regional elites including Little kings tribal background of some famous cults trade and maritime commerce royal patronage courtly manners lineage formation imperial architecture monuments and temple among others Featuring case studies from different part of the India subcontinent and with contributions by renowned historians this authoritative handbook will be an indispensable reading for teachers scholars and students of early India medieval India premodern India South Asian history Asian history historiography economic history historical sociology and South Asia studies The Political Economy of Commerce: Southern India 1500-1650 Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2002-07-18 Explores the relationship between long distance trade and the economic and political structure of southern India Muslim Merit-making in Thailand's Far-South Christopher M. Joll, 2011-11-02 This volume provides an ethnographic description of Muslim merit making rhetoric rituals and rationales in Thailand s Malay far south This study is situated in Cabetigo one of Pattani s oldest and most important Malay communities that has been subjected to a range of Thai and Islamic influences over the last hundred years The volume describes religious rhetoric related to merit making being conducted in both Thai and Malay that the spiritual currency of merit is generated through the performance of locally occurring Malay adat and globally normative amal ibadat Concerning the rationale for merit making merit makers are motivated by both a desire to ensure their own comfort in the grave and personal vindication at judgment as well as to transfer merit for those already in the grave who are known to the merit maker While the rhetoric elements of Muslim merit making reveal Thai influence its ritual elements confirm the local impact of reformist activism The Muslim Merchants of Premodern China John W. Chaffee, 2018-08-23 In this major new history of Muslim merchants and their trade links with China John W Chaffee uncovers 700 years of history from the eighth century when Muslim communities first established themselves in southeastern China through the fourteenth century when trade all but ceased These were extraordinary and tumultuous times Under the Song and the Mongols the Muslim diaspora in China flourished as legal and economic ties were formalized At other times the Muslim community suffered hostility and persecution Chaffee shows how the policies of successive dynastic regimes in China combined with geopolitical developments across maritime Asia to affect the fortunes of Muslim communities He explores social and cultural exchanges and how connections were maintained through faith and a common acceptance of Muslim law This ground breaking contribution to the history of Asia the early Islamic world and to maritime history explores the networks that helped to shape the pre modern world Corporate Social Responsibility and Economic Responsiveness in India Damien Krichewsky, 2019-05-23 Since the early 2000s corporate social responsibility CSR has rapidly gained significance in India both among large companies and as a policy instrument formally intended to foster corporate contributions to the country s development goals This book analyses this phenomenon in relation to broader political and economic changes induced by India s pro business development strategy Using a systems theoretical approach the analysis shows that pro business policies have led profit driven economic processes to increasingly override collective aspirations for social welfare environmental protection and democracy In order to decipher how CSR changes the interplays between profit making and developmental aspirations the book provides detailed analyses of CSR in the cement industry and in regulatory policies adopted by the central government It shows that CSR operates as an intermediary institution which further enhances the autonomy of the economic system as it makes profit making more responsive to risks arising from competing collective values and interests

The Enigmatic South Samuel C. Hyde, Jr.,2014-11-03 The Enigmatic South brings together leading scholars of the Civil War period to challenge existing perceptions of the advance to secession the Civil War and its aftermath The pioneering research and innovative arguments of these historians bring crucial insights to the study of this era in American history Christopher Childers Sarah L Hyde and Julia Huston Nguyen consider the ways politics religion and education contributed to southern attitudes toward secession in the antebellum period George C Rable Paul F Paskoff and John M Sacher delve into the challenges the Confederate South faced as it sought legitimacy for its cause and military strength for the coming war with the North Richard Follett Samuel C Hyde Jr and Eric H Walther offer new perspectives on the changes the Civil War wrought on the economic and ideological landscape of the South The essays in The Enigmatic South speak eloquently to previously unconsidered aspects and legacies of the Civil War and make a major contribution to our understanding of the rich history of a conflict whose aftereffects still linger in American culture and memory

The Southern Middle Class in the Long Nineteenth Century Jonathan Daniel

Wells, Jennifer R. Green, 2011-12-12 Jonathan Daniel Wells and Jennifer R Green provide a series of provocative essays reflecting innovative original research on professional and commercial interests in the nineteenth century South a place often seen as being composed of just two classes planters and slaves Rather an active middle class made up of men and women devoted to the cultural and economic modernization of Dixie worked with each other and occasionally their northern counterparts to bring reforms to the region With a balance of established and younger authors of antebellum and postbellum analyses and of narrative and quantitative methodologies these essays offer new ways to think about politics society gender and culture during this exciting era of southern history The contributors show that many like minded southerners sought to create a New South with a society similar to that of the North They supported the creation of public schools and an end to dueling but less progressive reform was also endorsed such as building factories using slave labor rather than white wage earners The Southern Middle Class in the Long Nineteenth Century significantly influences thought on the social structure of the South the centrality of class in history and the events prior to and after the Civil War

The Archaeology of Early Medieval and Medieval South Asia Swadhin Sen, Supriya Varma, Bhairabi Prasad Sahu, 2022-11-30 This book looks at the ways in which archaeological methods have been used in debates concerning the early medieval and medieval periods in South Asia Despite the incorporation and use of archaeological data to corroborate historical narratives the theories and methods of archaeology are largely ignored in and excluded from the dominating institutionalized and hegemonic disciplinary discourses The volume offers contesting insights polemical narratives and new data from archaeological contexts to initiate a debate on many foundational premises of archaeological and historical narratives It focuses on the much neglected region of the Eastern Ganga Brahmaputra Basin as a spatial frame to do this and studies themes such as spatial and temporal scales of concepts and methods multi scalar factors and processes of continuity and changes the settlement archaeology of the alluvial landscape changing patterns of agrarian transformation and material cultures including coins inscriptions pottery and sculptures in their contexts in sub regional regional and supra regional intersections Dedicated to historian Brajadulal Chattopadhyaya this volume presents a crucial and unprecedented intervention in the study of the early medieval and the medieval periods It will be useful for scholars and researchers of archaeology ancient history medieval history water history earth sciences palaeoecology historical ecology epigraphy art history material culture studies Indian history and South Asian studies in general

The Ottoman Empire and Early Modern Europe Daniel Goffman, 2002-04-25

Despite the fact that its capital city and over one third of its territory was within the continent of Europe the Ottoman Empire has consistently been regarded as a place apart inextricably divided from the West by differences of culture and religion A perception of its militarism its barbarism its tyranny the sexual appetites of its rulers and its pervasive exoticism has led historians to measure the Ottoman world against a western standard and find it lacking In recent decades a dynamic and convincing scholarship has emerged that seeks to comprehend and in the process to de exoticize this enduring realm Dan Goffman provides a thorough introduction to the history and institutions of the Ottoman Empire from this new standpoint and presents a claim for its inclusion in Europe His lucid and engaging book an important addition to New Approaches to European History will be essential reading for undergraduates The Evolution of Human Sociality Stephen K. Sanderson,2001 This text attempts a broad theoretical synthesis within the field of sociology and its closely allied sister discipline of anthropology It draws together these disciplines theoretical approaches into a synthesized theory called Darwinian conflict theory Penitence in the Age of Reformations Katharine Jackson Lualdi,Anne T. Thayer,2017-07-28 This volume is comprised of thirteen essays that explore penitential teachings and practices from the late fifteenth to the early seventeenth centuries in Western Europe and its colonies Together the essays reveal that in this period penitence was an increasingly important force shaping the individual and society Consequently the authors argue penitence is central to our understanding of early modern Christianity as it was taught and experienced in everyday life From Germany to France and to the Americas Catholics turned to traditional forms of penitence not only to save individual souls but also to assert their confessional identity For their part Protestants established distinctive penitential approaches and institutions in accordance with their own understandings of sin and salvation In thus examining the treatment of post baptismal sin across chronological and confessional boundaries the volume breaks new ground in the history of penance The volume concludes with a postscript assessing the ways in which the essays enrich the current state of scholarship on penitence and encourage further research Katharine Jackson Lualdi is an independent scholar Anne T Thayer is Assistant Professor of Church History at Lancaster Theological Seminary Lancaster Pennsylvania
