Robert R. Seyda,2024-05-16 Here John advises us that loving one another is not an option or a suggestion it is a commandment John doesn't want any believer to become like Adam and Eve's firstborn Cain That happened because Cain was under the influence of Satan This is therefore a warning not to mess with the world So what if they hate us We are bound for everlasting life in the presence of God That's why death has no power over us And that's why if our thoughts do not tell us that we are guilty we will not be afraid to come to God We can pray to God and we can ask Him to help us He will give us what we ask Him for That is because we obey His commands and we do the things that please Him Furthermore we should all love each other because God makes us able to love other people Everyone who loves other people confirms our claim to be a child of God If anyone says clearly that Jesus is the Son of God God lives in that person And that person lives together with God We know the kind of love that God has for us That's why if we love God we will not be afraid of Him So how do we know that we love God's children We know it when we love God and we do what He tells us to do      Connections: A Lectionary Commentary for Preaching and Worship Joel B. sheds light on how social groups are formed through ideas occasioned by texts Petersen s study provides a fascinating look at the theological significance of how we read biblical texts and offers new insights on the development of culture the Christian movement and its churches The book has added importance for understanding the assumptions behind the ways in which the book of Revelation is read and used in our own day
