Preaching As Local Theology And Folk Art:

Preaching as Local Theology and Folk Art Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 1997 Showing that good sermons are really local theology and folk art Princeton s Leonora Tubbs Tisdale tells how to analyze a congregation to fit a sermon to the audience The book then gives practical help for preparing and delivering sermons that are meaningful and appropriate Tisdale draws from contextual theology and congregational studies A Sermon Workbook Leonara Tubbs Tisdale, Thomas H.

Troeger, 2013-10-15 Both experienced and novice preachers need a new approach for sermon development skill building A Sermon Workbook offers a unique and flexible resource that is instantly accessible and useful for anyone tasked with the proclamation of the Word The workbook format can be used in a linear fashion beginning to end Or readers can pick and choose the chapters to tailor fit their own needs In either case readers build skill upon skill working through inventive and engaging exercises first developed and taught at Yale Divinity School The book addresses the skills and arts that are essential for effective preaching in our multi tasking multi ethnic sound bite society It offers theological clarity about why we preach and what matters most The creative collaborative and charming authors present the principles as they do in their classroom in two voices one male and one female with the two complementing and supporting one another Prophetic Preaching Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 2010-08-09 Where have all the prophets gone And why do preachers seem to shy away from prophetic witness Astute preacher Leonora Tisdale considers these vexing questions while providing guidance and encouragement to pastors who want to recommit themselves to the task of prophetic witness With a keen sensitivity to pastoral contexts Tisdale s work is full of helpful suggestions and examples to help pastors structure and preach prophetic sermons considered by many to be one of the most difficult tasks pastors are called to undertake Preaching and the Other Ronald J. Allen, 2008-11-01 Preaching and the Other introduces the reader to six major themes characteristic of the postmodern era that are important for preaching and explains their implications Themes discussed include perception as interpretation deconstruction otherness transgression pluralism and the importance of apologetics Sent and Gathered (Engaging Worship) Clayton J. Schmit, 2009-10-01 Historic changes are occurring in the convergence of worship styles throughout the Christian church Christians across the theological spectrum are seeking to learn from their own tradition s roots and from the liturgical expressions of believers in other times and places Here worship expert Clayton Schmit examines worship in church settings around the globe and provides a practical manual for shaping liturgies that are informed by and relevant to contemporary missional contexts The book broadens current ecumenical worship conversations reveals insights drawn from the church at worship in the world and argues for a common understanding of a theology of worship

Preaching in Place Mark R. Rigg, 2022-06-29 Why is preaching so often bad Why is worship so often dull Why do Sunday mornings so often fail to help the folks in the pews live a faithful life from week to week And what can be done about it Many will tell us that there are easy and purchasable fixes More technology Less tradition Virtual worship Thinking big The land and the farm model for us a different path As Mark Rigg shows in this concise introduction to Wendell Berry the themes that have illuminated the Kentucky farmer s essays fiction and poetry for fifty years have a great deal to say to the church They offer an agrarian model of church where the focus is on the local the tangible and the communal Out of such a model emerges a new approach to preaching Both congregation members and preachers themselves will find themselves called to turn away from sermons that echo the promises of an individualistic consumer culture and to proclaim instead Jesus Christ in the midst of the local community Preaching and the Personal J Dwayne Howell,2014-07-31 Preaching is a very personal process a minister or speaker prepares his or her own sermon and presents it to the congregation Sermons draw upon the Bible as a central source and the source provides a basis of faith for the believing community The preaching event is also personal for the individual members of the congregation who receive the preacher s words based on a biblical text in their own unique way In the synthesis of Biblical text sermon and listener response many testimonies are present Preaching and the Personal is a collection of papers that have been presented at the Society of Biblical Literature These papers encourage and nurture dialogue among scholars who share an interest in the unique theological problems inherent to the relationship between biblical interpretation and proclamation Preaching and the Personal opens a stimulating dialogue in the field

Sermon Listening Enoh Šeba,2021-06-30 Preaching is an integral part of every church service and its purpose has always been to edify encourage and to emphasize the positive effects of coming together as a people of God Yet there remains an inconsistency between the intended goals of preaching and the subjective perception of the listeners In this homiletical study Dr Enoh eba provides fresh insight into the turn to the listener model and offers a theologically sustainable warrant mandate for the transformation of the preaching practice through a stronger involvement of the congregation While grounding the research in the experience of Croatian Baptists Dr eba highlights practical suggestions for both listeners and preachers that are transferrable across contexts This important work reveals that preaching can and should be transformed into a truly congregational practice that will affirmatively affect the dynamics of ecclesial life This book will spark conversations and induce small scale changes on a variety of levels while bridging the gap between preachers and their listeners

Schmit,2008-11-01 This volume which launches the Engaging Worship series from Fuller Theological Seminary s Brehm Center for Worship Theology and the Arts offers a unique study of sermon delivery While many books offer advice on how to prepare write and preach a sermon this volume is distinctive in approaching the subject from the perspective of performance The authors who teach at a variety of seminaries and divinity schools across the nation examine how the sermon can bring God's word to life for the congregation In that sense they consider the idea of performance from a wide range of theological artistic and musical viewpoints These thoughtful essays will engage clergy and students with new ways of looking at the art of preaching

Preaching in an Age of Globalization Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2010-01-01 There are many books on the market that address how culture race gender or economic status affect the way preachers preach and congregations hear sermons This is the first book to address preaching that promotes solidarity across these differences Preaching needs to be targeted to specific contexts But how can a preacher handle specific contexts when we live in a globalized world What does local context mean and who defines it Kim develops the concept of trans contextual preaching to show how preachers can respect diversity and global connections She develops a new theology of preaching examines the modes of biblical interpretation appropriate for trans contextual preaching and explores designs for sermons Sample sermons from the author provide excellent illustrations

What's the Shape of Narrative Preaching? Mike Graves, 2012 They are there after an urgent need a moment of desperation Like Ellen Cardwell's telling of a highway angel who helped Ellen and her husband resume their trip after car trouble on California's desolate Highway 1 Or Delores Topliff's memory from her childhood when on the brink of starvation an angel on a bicycle dropped off bags of groceries These stories will challenge and reward your faith in God a God Who tells us to entertain strangers and possibly Heavenly Company Contained within this book is an exclusive collection of real life encounters with God's angels and mysterious helpful strangers Best selling author Cecil Murphey coauthor of 90 Minutes in Heaven and more than one hundred other books and his cowriter Twila Belk masterfully bring together brand new reports from all over the world that share one thing in common the way in which God uses messengers to touch our lives Filled with hundreds of pages of stories that will excite your spirit and touch your heart you'll travel from Africa to Texas to Russia and back again Curl up with this powerful book and read amazing true accounts of individuals who have encountered angels both seen and unseen

Conversations with Barth on Preaching Bishop William H. Willimon, 2010-09-01 One of today's greatest preacher theologians engages one of the twentieth century's greatest teacher theologians on the meaning of preaching Readers of William H Willimon's many books have long found there the influence of Karl Barth probably the most significant theologian of the twentieth century In this new book Willimon explores that relationship explicitly by engaging Barth's work on the pitfalls and problems glories and grandeur of preaching the Word of God The Swiss theologian says the author expressed one of the highest theologies of preaching of any of the great theologians of the church Yet too much of Barth's understanding of preaching lies buried in the Church Dogmatics and other sometimes obscure sources Willimon brings this material to light introducing the reader to Barth's thought not just on the meaning but the practice of preaching as well

Jacobsen,2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and
