Singing and Suffering with the Servant David M. Stark, 2022-10-10 The Old Testament is transformed from problem to ally when preachers attend to power at work in ancient and modern contexts by mirroring Second Isaiah's proclamation listening to contemporary servant Israel and learning from African American preaching in context of domination This book analyses the impact of domination on Old Testament proclamation and thus leads to several unique contributions Firstly it reads Second Isaiah as a homiletic model for proclaiming older pre-exilic texts in response to exilic domination Secondly it treats the Old Testament as a rich resource for confronting racism and anti-Semitism through teaching and it introduces contemporary Christian Jewish dialogue in Germany as a model for the Church Lastly it highlights preaching traditions within the African American Church as instructive for formulating an effective Old Testament preaching strategy

An Intertextual Analysis of Zechariah 9-10 Suk Yee Lee, 2015-02-26 This book conducts an in-depth study on the ideas about future salvation in Zechariah 9-10 In accommodation of the allusive character of the text Lee uses the methodology of intertextual analysis to examine the markers in the text Having established the moments of intertextuality Lee investigates the sources and their contexts analyzing how the intertexts are used in the new context of the host and exploring how the antecedents shape the reading of the later text Thus Lee argues that Zechariah 9-10 leverages earlier biblical material in order to express its view on restoration which serves as a lens for the prophetic community in Yehud to make sense of their troubled world in the early Persian period ca 440 B C These two chapters envision the return of Yahweh who inaugurates the new age ushering in prosperity and blessings The earlier restoration expectations of Second Zechariah anticipate the formation of an ideal remnant settling in an ideal homeland with Yahweh as king and David as vice regent reigning in Zion The new commonwealth is not only a united society but also a cosmic one with Judah Ephraim and the nations living together in peace

The Evangelical Quarterly, 2000 Community Rick Wadholm Jr., Meghan D. Musy, 2022-04-12 Community provides a constructive collection of essays offering biblical and theological reflections on the topic of community in honor of the Mennonite Old Testament scholar August H Konkel s seventieth birthday As such Community follows the trajectory of Gus s own myriad contributions to scholarship that have been intentionally engaged both on behalf of and as a lively and constructive member of such community These essays present forays across the spectrum of biblical and theological studies that intersect with the many contributions of Gus s life work Bad Boys of the Bible: Barbara J. Essex, 2002-05-01 Barbara Essex reveals a side of the Bad Boys of the Bible not usually reflected upon or even considered in most preaching and teaching Adam Cain Abraham Lot Jacob Jephthah and Samson are well known men of the Bible who were strong and faithful yet also weak and challenged In Bad Boys of the Bible Essex takes readers on a journey to explore these male giants of faith Includes seven Bible study units reflection questions suggestions for using this resource in preaching and teaching and a bibliography for further study Joel, Obadiah, Micah Daniel Epp-Tiessen, 2022-08-30 Although each is quite different the books of Joel Obadiah and Micah are all survival literature All three address the community that survived the crushing Babylonian destruction of Judah in 586 BCE And all three seek to help this community cope by giving voice to its disorientation trauma anxiety and rage Each book insists that God will wrestle a positive future out of catastrophe granting both physical and spiritual renewal No matter how dire the circumstances Israel can trust in the gracious God who will never abandon the faith community In this thirty fifth volume in the Believers Church Bible Commentary series Old Testament scholar Daniel Epp Tiessen explores the diverse yet related content of these three prophetic books always paying attention to how they might speak words of grace and healing into the disorientation exile and challenges of our own time He also confronts the theologically problematic features of these books especially their conviction that the salvation of God s people requires that God obliterate their enemies This volume explores how we might read Joel Obadiah and Micah in light of the larger biblical story of God s saving purposes that reach their fulfillment in Jesus Christ Covenant-Making Charles J. Conniry, Laura K. Simmons, 2014-05-29 This collection explores the central theological notion of covenant It has been produced in honor of Dr R Larry Shelton respected scholar and beloved husband father colleague and friend Covenant the unifying theme of this book is a subject to which Dr Shelton devoted considerable attention over his forty five year career as a scholar and teacher His 2006 book Cross and Covenant Interpreting the Atonement for 21st Century Mission stands as one of the most incisive treatments of the atonement from a covenantal perspective The contributors of this volume consist of Shelton s current colleagues at George Fox Evangelical Seminary those with whom he served in other institutions and friends and former students whose vision of covenant Shelton inspired These writers demonstrate that whether one considers such diverse subject matter as atonement theory the church s mission the discernment of prophetic spirits non western ontologies soteriology biblical interpretation sanctification theodicy family life or theology proper one s understanding is deficient without giving due consideration to the role of covenant relationality
