A History of Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century

Dominican Women and Renaissance Art Ann Roberts, 2016-12-05 Starting from an inventory and other documents Ann Roberts has identified some 30 works of art that originated from the convent of San Domenico of Pisa She here examines those objects commissioned for and made by the nuns during the fifteenth century some of the objects included have never before been published One of her goals in this study is to bring into the discussion of Renaissance art a body of images that have been previously overlooked because they come from a non Florentine context and because they do not fit modern notions of the development of Renaissance style She also analyzes the function of the images social as well as religious within the context of a female Dominican convent Finally she offers descriptions of and documentation for the process of patronage as it was practiced by cloistered women and the making of art in such enclosures The author presents a catalogue of works which gives basic data and bibliography for the objects described in the text Roberts offers other valuable resources in the appendices including unpublished C19th inventories of the objects in the convent at various moments documents regarding the commission of works of art for the convent letters written by the nuns a list of the Prioresses of San Domenico lists of nuns at different points in the fifteenth and early sixteenth century and a list of the relics owned by the convent in the sixteenth century Roberts firmly grounds her interpretation in the values of the Order to which the nuns belonged and in the political and social concerns of their city     "Gendered Perceptions of Florentine Last Supper Frescoes, c. 1350?490 " Diana Hiller,2017-07-05 Despite the large number of monumental Last Supper frescoes which adorn refectories in Quattrocento Florence until now no monograph has appeared in English on the Florentine Last Supper frescoes nor has any study examined the perceptions of the original viewers This study examines the rarely considered effect of gender on the profoundly contextualized perceptions of the male and female religious who viewed the Florentine Last Supper images in surprisingly different physical and cultural refectory environments In addition to offering detailed visual analyses the author draws on a broad spectrum of published and unpublished primary materials including monastic rules devotional tracts and reading materials the constitutions and ordinazioni for individual houses inventories from male and female communities and the Convent Suppression documents of the Archivio di Stato in Florence By examining the original viewers attitudes to images their educational status acculturated pieties affective responses levels of community degrees of reclusion and even the types of food eaten in the refectories Hiller argues that the perceptions of these viewers of the Last Supper frescoes were intrinsically gendered     The Common Good in Late Medieval Political Thought M. S. Kempshall,1999-05-20 This study offers a major reinterpretation of medieval political thought by examining one of its most fundamental ideas If it was axiomatic that the goal of human society should be the common good then this notion presented at least two conceptual alternatives Did it embody the highest moral ideals of happiness and the life of virtue or did it represent the more pragmatic benefits of peace and material security Political thinkers from Thomas Aquinas to William of Ockham answered this question in various contexts In theoretical terms they were reacting to the rediscovery of Aristotle s Politics and Ethics an event often seen as pivotal in the history of political thought On a practical level they were faced with pressing concerns over the exercise of both temporal and ecclesiastical authority resistance to royal taxation and opposition to the jurisdiction of the pope In establishing the connections between these different contexts The Common Good questions the identification of Aristotle as the primary catalyst for the emergence of the individual and a secular theory of the state Through a detailed exposition of scholastic political theology it argues that the roots of any such developments should be traced instead to Augustine and the Bible     "Non enim fuerat Evangelii surdus auditor..." (1 Celano 22): Essays in Honor of Michael W. Blastic, O.F.M. on the Occasion of his 70th Birthday ,2020-11-16 This volume is a collection of essays written by colleagues and friends in honor of Michael W Blastic O F M on the occasion of his 70th birthday The contributing scholars endeavored to address significant issues within the academic areas in which Fr Blastic has taught and published Three essays are devoted to the Writings of Saint Francis seven are dedicated to particular issues in Franciscan history hagiography spirituality and several texts five deal specifically with women during the Middle Ages and three final essays explore aspects of Franciscan theology and philosophy Fr Michael Blastic has taught at the Washington Theological Union the Franciscan Institute at St Bonaventure University and Siena College and served as a widely respected retreat master Contributors are Maria Pia Alberzoni Luciano Bertazzo O F M Conv Joshua C Benson Aaron Canty Joseph Chinnici O F M Michael F Cusato O F M Jay M Hammond J A Wayne Hellmann O F M Conv Timothy J Johnson Lezlie Knox Pietro Maranesi Steven J McMichael O F M Conv Benedikt Mertens O F M Catherine M Mooney Luigi Pellegrini Michael Robson and William J Short O F M      Women of the Humiliati Sally Brasher, 2004-11-23 This book examines the contribution of women to the Humiliati movement providing original archival evidence indicating that women dominated the group s membership These findings have implications for both women s spirituality and women s work correcting the received opinion that the patriarchal nature of Italian society and of the church limited the institutional options available to women It also suggests that women found innovative ways to participate in the increasingly restrictive textile industry of the region This work provides a glimpse at the novel ways in which women in medieval Italy were able to satisfy their spiritual and economic needs within the confines of a male dominated church and society      A History of Preaching Otis Carl Edwards, 2004 Accompanying CD ROM contains the full text of volume one and two Volume two contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church s twenty centuries Each chapter in volume two is geared to its companion chapter in volume one s narrative history
