Willimon,2010-09-01 One of today s greatest preacher theologians engages one of the twentieth century s greatest teacher theologians on the meaning of preaching Readers of William H Willimon s many books have long found there the influence of Karl Barth probably the most significant theologian of the twentieth century In this new book Willimon explores that relationship explicitly by engaging Barth s work on the pitfalls and problems glories and grandeur of preaching the Word of God The Swiss theologian says the author expressed one of the highest theologies of preaching of any of the great theologians of the church Yet too much of Barth s understanding of preaching lies buried in the Church Dogmatics and other sometimes obscure sources Willimon brings this material to light introducing the reader to Barth s thought not just on the meaning but the practice of preaching as well      Religious Involvement in Hearing

Schleiermacher's Preaching, Dogmatics, and Biblical Criticism Catherine L. Kelsey, 2007-05-25 Friedrich Schleiermacher the father of modern theology found his voice first in preaching This book demonstrates how Schleiermacher moved between the critical reading of Scripture the proclamation of Christian faith to congregations over a forty five year period and eventually the work of theology in all its disciplines Schleiermacher's Preaching Dogmatics and Biblical Criticism is the first work to fully unveil this interaction by focusing on Schleiermacher's 228 known sermons on the Gospel of John Kelsey shows in detail 1 how the central insights of his theology emerged first in his preaching and 2 that his dogmatic writings provided a context within which these insights could be related to all the major doctrinal themes of Christian faith The study concludes by drawing implications for theological reflection and its relation to worship life in our own time A Handbook for Catholic Preaching Edward Foley, 2016 While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for catholic preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching the challenges of preaching in a digital age sermonizing in an interfaith context and the need for a liberative and prophetic word that cuts across denominations and even faith traditions Intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies Every article is a self contained overview of a particular historical period genre of preaching homiletic theory or contemporary issue This more encyclopedic approach devoid of footnotes yet supported by pertinent bibliography and an extensive index provides a sufficiently rich yet thoroughly accessible gateway to major facets of the preaching arts at this stage of the twenty first century General Editor Edward Foley Associate Editors Catherine Vincie Richard N Fragomeni Contributors Herbert
