Preaching the New Lectionary Dianne Bergant, Richard Fragomeni, 1999      Preaching the New Lectionary Dianne Bergant, Richard N. Fragomeni, 1999 2000 Catholic Press Association Award Winner The Lectionary is made up of selected passages from the Bible placed within a literary and liturgical context This new context calls for a consideration of the liturgical character and setting of the Lectionary readings Preaching the New Lectionary Year B offers readers that interpretation Preaching the New Lectionary is unique First it employs a literary liturgical way of interpreting all the readings of each Sunday and major feast of the liturgical year including the often overlooked responsorial psalm Second it explicitly situates the interpretation of each day within the theology of its respective liturgical season This theology is drawn from the specific themes of the readings that comprise that particular year rather than from more general themes associated with the season The meaning of the entire season becomes the context for understanding the individual parts of it Third the lections are also read in sequential order from the first Sunday of that season to the last This reading interprets the function of the literary forms thus providing yet another way of interpreting the riches of the readings This way of reading and understanding the Lectionary has potential for liturgical ministry It can quicken the religious imagination of homilists thus providing fresh new possibilities for liturgical preaching It offers creative insights for those involved in the liturgical preparation for the celebration of feasts and seasons It can also act as a valuable resource for liturgical catechesis The insights included in Preaching the New Lectionary contribute toward enhancing the liturgical lives of the faithful
