The National union catalog, 1968-1972, 1973 The Value of Time in Early Modern English Literature Tina Skouen, 2017-10-02 The stigma of haste pervaded early modern English culture more so than the so called stigma of print The period's writers were perpetually short on time but what does it mean for authors to present themselves as hasty or slow or to characterize others similarly This book argues that such classifications were a way to define literary value To be hasty was in a sense to be irresponsible but in another sense it signaled a necessary practicality Expressions of haste revealed a deep conflict between the ideal of slow writing in classical and humanist rhetoric and the sometimes grim reality of fast printing Indeed the history of print is a history of haste which carries with it a particular set of modern anxieties that are difficult to understand in the absence of an interdisciplinary approach Many previous studies have concentrated on the period's competing definitions of time and on the obsession with how to use time well Other studies have considered time as a notable literary theme This book is the first to connect ideas of time to writerly haste in a richly interdisciplinary manner drawing upon rhetorical theory book history poetics religious studies and early modern moral philosophy which only when taken together provide a genuinely deep understanding of why the stigma of haste so preoccupied the early modern mind The Value of Time in Early Modern English Literature surveys the period from ca 1580 to ca 1730 with special emphasis on the seventeenth century The material discussed is found in emblem books devotional literature philosophical works and collections of poetry drama and romance Among classical sources Horace and Quintilian are especially important The main authors considered are Robert Parsons Edmund Bunny King James 1 Henry Peacham Thomas Nash Robert Greene Ben Jonson Margaret Cavendish John Dryden Richard Baxter Jonathan Swift Alexander Pope By studying these writers expressions of time and haste we may gain a better understanding of how authorship was defined at a time when the book industry was gradually taking the place of classical rhetoric in regulating writers activities National Union Catalog

What's Right with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, Andre Resner, 2021-03-09 In 1928 when Riverside Church NYC pastor Harry Emerson Fosdick asked the question in Harpers Magazine What's the Matter with Preaching Today he did not know that one response to that question had just entered the world in Humboldt Tennessee Fred B Craddock revolutionized preaching theory and practice by flipping pulpit logic from deductive to inductive often called the preaching as storytelling revolution and in so doing brought renewed interest and impact to the practice of preaching effectively rescuing it from an often tedious and moralizing fate With Fred preaching was anything but boring Rather it was an exciting and enlightening ride that led to the renewal of faith To honor Craddock's legacy Mike Graves and Andr Resner invited ten leading voices in homiletics to identify something that is right about preaching today In addition they issued a call to a wide variety of people to contribute stories about Fred's impact on their lives and ministries Twenty seven remembrances of Fred are included here throughout the book If you appreciate effective and engaging preaching as either a preacher or listener the essays and remembrances here will speak to you and provide encouragement about preaching's present and future With contributions from Ronald J Allen Barbara K Lundblad Alyce McKenzie Debra J Mumford Luke Powery Andre Resner Richard Ward Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm Paul Scott Wilson
