Preaching And Crisis Of Faith:

What Shall We Say? Thomas G. Long, 2014-03-11 Tsunamis earthquakes famines diseases wars these and other devastating forces lead Christians to ask painful questions Is God all powerful Is God good How can God allow so much innocent human suffering These questions taken together have been called the theodicy problem and in this book Thomas Long explores what preachers can and should say in response he offers biblically based approaches to preaching on theodicy guided by Jesus parable of the wheat and the tares and the greatest theodicy text in Scripture The book of Job from book jacket

The Coming Evangelical Crisis John Harper Armstrong, 1996 A compelling and challenging book this is a valuable resource for pastors teachers leaders and anyone who is concerned about the effectiveness of the church in this generation

Preaching and the Human Condition Prof O. Wesley Allen JR., 2016-10-18 In the wake of Enlightenment emphasis on the individual and confidence in human progress ability sermons often suffer from a lack of adequate analysis and presentation of the human condition The result is that preachers either 1 intentionally or unintentionally offer self help type messages or 2 fail to help hearers experience the breadth of the good news of Jesus Christ because the bad news of the world is not presented with weight In this work the author proposes to use the pericope in which Jesus is asked about the greatest commandment Mk 12 28 31 as a lens for preachers exploring the human condition cumulatively from three different perspectives across the course of their preaching week in and week out Love God suggests a perspective in which the human condition is seen in relation to a broken relationship between humanity and God vertical Love neighbor suggests a perspective in which the broken relationship is between humans and others horizontal And as yourself suggests a brokenness in relationship to one's self inner While different theological schools have emphasized these perspectives differently as the starting points for their anthropology views of sin etc all schools include all three perspectives In individual chapters the author will unpack these three perspectives theologically move to suggest practical homiletical approaches to preaching in relation to each perspective and provide a sample sermon dealing with that perspective

Conversations with Great Teachers Bill Smoot, 2010-05-17 In the spirit of Studs Terkel's Working Bill Smoot interviews master teachers in fields ranging from K 12 and higher education to the arts trades and professions sports and politics The result suggests a dinner party where the most fascinating teachers in America discuss their various styles as well as what makes their work meaningful to them What is it that passes between the best teachers and their students to make learning happen What are the keys to teaching the joys of literature shooting a basketball alligator wrestling or how to survive one's first year in the U S Congress Smoot's insightful questions elicit thought provoking reflections about teaching as a calling and its aims frustrations and satisfactions

Faith Crisis Ron Dunn, 2013-06 Late pastor Ron Dunn's acclaimed book clarifies the differences between true and counterfeit faith showing faith's rewards to be more about experiencing God's presence than in earthly blessings

The Christian Doctrine of the Church, Faith, and the Consummation Emil Brunner, 2014-10-10

Christianity in Crisis Hank Hanegraaff, 2012-06-18 Nearly two decades ago Hank Hanegraaff's award winning Christianity in Crisis alerted the world to the dangers of a cultic movement within Christianity that threatened to undermine the very foundation of biblical faith. But in the 21st century there are new dangers, new teachers who threaten to do more damage than the last. These are not obscure teachers that Hanegraaff unmasks. We know their names. We have seen their faces, sat in their churches and heard them shamelessly preach and promote the false pretexts of a give to get gospel. They are virtual rock stars who command the attention of presidential candidates and media moguls. Through make believe miracles, urban legends, counterfeit Christs and twisted theological reasoning, they peddle an occult brand of metaphysics that continues to shipwreck the faith of millions around the globe. God cannot do anything in this earthly realm unless we give Him permission. Keep saying it. I have equality with God. Talk yourself into it. Being poor is a sin. The Jews were not rejecting Jesus as Messiah; it was Jesus who was refusing to be the Messiah to the Jews. You create your own world the same way God creates His. He speaks and things happen; you speak and they happen. Christianity in Crisis 21st Century exposes darkness to light, pointing us back to a Christianity centered in Christ. From the Preface: Having lost the ability to think biblically, postmodern Christians are being transformed from cultural change agents and initiators into cultural conformists and imitators. Pop culture beckons and postmodern Christians have taken the bait. As a result, the biblical model of faith has given way to an increasingly bizarre array of fads and formulas.

Preacher, Can You Hear Us Listening? Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-02-03 Everyone knows that pulpits are for preaching and pews are for listening to sermons. This obvious scenario, however, masks an essential prerequisite for faithful, fruitful preaching: namely, that preachers listen to God and to their people before they speak. Roger Van Harn here puts forth pointed questions that sermon listeners really ask of preachers: Why should we listen to sermons? Does every sermon need a Bible text? How can a sermon be the word of God? Do you preach for the church or the world? Van Harn grapples with and discusses such questions, giving preachers fresh insights into the needs and desires of congregations. Preacher Can You Hear Us Listening will foster an ongoing dialogue between pulpit and pew and sharpen listening skills in both directions.

The Sword of the Lord: Musings of a Country Preacher Volume Two Robert Coward, 2019-10-23 Musings of a Country Preacher are the internal thoughts exposed by Robert Coward, a minister, sinner, backslider, and recaptured prisoner of God, to do his bidding once more. Robert Coward, with his life experiences including world travels and education in four institutes of higher learning, has given him a perspective on Christian ideology that is unique, eye-opening, and quite controversial in today's post-modern world. Claiming to be a pre-modern man who holds fast to conservative fundamental Christianity, Coward tells it like he believes it is and pulls no punches. Not even when it comes to his personal life. Enter the mind of a man who has been to the far reaches of the planet and back to the highest highs of a life with God to the lowest lows of what it's like to be a prodigal son that has now returned to his God. His Facebook group site, The Sword of the Lord, was begun to help others in their walk with God, to stand firm when life goes awry, and to not make the same mistakes as he      Confessing the Faith Douglas John Hall, This bold work culminates Hall's three volume contextual theology the first to take the measure of Christian belief and doctrine explicitly in light of North American cultural and historical experience Hall is deeply critical of North American culture but also of sidelined Christian churches that struggle to gain dominance within it We must stop thinking of the reduction of Christendom as a tragedy he says The disestablishment that the churches reluctantly enjoy can enable them to develop genuine community uncompromised theology and honest engagement with the larger culture To a failed culture and a struggling church Hall shows the radical implications of a theology of the cross for the shape and practice of church preaching ministry ethics and eschatology Hall's frank and prophetic volume is the trilogy's most practical and the most sustained probe to date of Christian life in a post Christian context      Faith and Science in the 21st Century Peter M. Wallace, 2018-08-17 With contributions from eight noted theologians this book builds on popular videos from the Day 1 radio Science or faith The battle rages from millennials and GenXers questioning the relevance of religion to older adults who doubt the validity of science and vice versa but these two are not mutually exclusive They can in fact be mutually enriching and complimentary once their proper domains are understood and respected The Episcopal Church with its tradition of the via media offers an ideal setting for conversations seeking to bridge the often antagonistic perspectives on both sides Faith and Science in the 21st Century presents a way to start that conversation Built on existing videos produced by the popular Day 1 program with assistance from a John Templeton Foundation grant this series features notable faith leaders across the denominational spectrum in 3 to 5 minute video presentations on scientific topics in which they are experts Intended for use in a variety of settings including congregations schools and campus ministries it can be presented as an eight session series of studies but each session can also stand on its own for a one time formation offering A single video download will offer all video presentations This Leader Guide enables facilitators to foster fruitful discussions of each session topic It includes an introduction about the program and how it can be used and eight detailed session plans to utilize with a downloadable video sold separately on the Day 1 website      The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching , 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homiletics preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice The Oxford Handbook of the British Sermon 1689-1901 Keith A. Francis, William Gibson, 2012-10-04 This Handbook accesses historical theological rhetorical literary and linguistic studies to demonstrate the interdisciplinary strength of the field of sermon studies and to show the centrality of sermons to private and public life in this golden age of the British sermon Preacher as Risk Taker Richard Hart, 2003 Many individuals take risks in life such as mountain climbers magicians farmers and gamblers But do we ever include preachers in that category Preachers have opportunities to be some of the greatest risk takers In Preacher as Risk Taker Richard Hart O F M Cap challenges preachers to be on the cutting edge by taking risks resulting in better preaching How many preachers are willing to submit their homilies to an editor or have their homilies taped Are poetic preachers ready to preach in a changing Church How often do preachers discuss social sin the environment ageing the reign of God or Paul's epistles Do today's preachers realize how important it is to preach through healing or Jesus as a wisdom figure Finally do preachers know the true difference between a eulogy and a homily Hart offers insight to each of these questions for preachers interested in improving their homilies Preachers might not be asked to scale a mountain or act as a magician But preachers are asked to take similar risks when preaching on challenging topics In Preacher as Risk Taker Father Hart provides answers for those interested in becoming spirited preachers Religious Involvement in Hearing Sermons Theo Pleizier, 2010 A History of Preaching Otis Carl Edwards, 2004 Accompanying CD ROM contains the full text of volume one and two Volume two contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries Each chapter in volume two is geared to its companion chapter in volume one's narrative history Faith of Our Fathers Richard C. Allen, Joan Allen, 2009-03-26 The study of popular culture has been an abiding preoccupation of historians and other academics not just in the British Isles but elsewhere too This volume of essays explores the manifestations of popular culture and belief in England Ireland and Wales from the Reformation onwards As an interdisciplinary collection it brings together specialists in English Literature History Celtic and Religious Studies It offers new insights thematically via a selection of diverse contributions The nexus between religion and popular culture links the contributions together while the geographical spread of the topic facilitates a dynamic comparative methodology What emerges from these explorations of rites of passage festivals revivalism print culture and gender is the remarkable resilience of popular culture and the extent to which all levels of society were prepared to compromise United by Faith Curtiss Paul DeYoung, Michael O. Emerson, George A. Yancey, 2004 Presents an argument for multiracial Christian congregations in breaking down racial barriers in the United States Preaching With Confidence James Daane, 2001-07-20 Speaking the Word of God confidently is the obligation of the preacher insists James Daane for the Word is not merely advisory it is efficacious When God speaks the world does more than listen it changes But in far too many contemporary pulpits Daane charges the mysterious power of God's word is no longer proclaimed with confidence and authority Too often the person in the pulpit functions only as a discussion leader too often sharing has replaced the sermon In this brief but pointed essay on the theology of preaching Daane calls ministers back to their fundamental task as proclaimers of the Word The comfort and strength of those who preach and those who believe the Word of God he writes is rooted in the fact that God has identified his name and his reputation with the power of his Word There can be no better reason for preaching with confidence Setting the World on Fire Laura R.

Dejmek, 2014-08-19 Laypersons receiving a divine call to preach in the Roman Catholic Church may feel caught between a rock and a hard place both figuratively and ecclesiastically They may feel constrained between the Rock of Peter and the hard place of resistance to the preaching gift they believe they have and their desire to share it At first glance the Roman Catholic Church with its two millennia of Sacred Tradition seemingly offers little that favors the inclusion of lay preachers In addition many lay preachers may experience the bias of clergy and assembly members who unconsciously presume there is no role for laity to preach within the Roman Catholic Church Preaching does not occur solely within liturgical settings or only via pulpit preachers All Dominicans as members of the Order of Preachers are called to embody the Sacra Praedicatio the Sacred Preaching In fact canon law does permit laity to preach in certain liturgical settings Setting the World on Fire details one Roman Catholic woman's experience of her own call to preach the grace and gifts brought to both the preacher and the assembly as well as her desire to help all Dominicans and indeed all Christians embrace their rightful role as preachers
