Preaching On Suffering And A God Of Love:

Preaching on Suffering and a God of Love Henry J. Young, 1978 Preaching on Social Suffering Jeremy Kangsan Kim, 2023-03-01 In this book Jeremy Kim criticizes current Korean and Asian American homiletical strategies for their lack of a theological point of view on social suffering. He argues that preachers must develop an alternative theological homiletical viewpoint on social suffering, one that has pastoral and prophetic approaches. These two approaches offer people a refuge and a voice not only in the church community but also in the larger social community. Thus the author suggests that preachers adopt the biblical lament, highlighting its dual tasks of compassion (the pastoral dimension) and resistance (the prophetic dimension). The author, who is a non-Western Asian American preacher, also incorporates East Asian philosophical and hermeneutical research on ren, a positive element of Confucianism, into his argument. He applies this core concept of Confucianism to the preacher's homiletical strategy toward social suffering. Thus the author proposes that Korean preachers should recover ren, which contains sincere compassion for others as well as a voice of resistance that reveals unjust social structures as the cause of social suffering and expresses both within Uri (we) the community. Suffering and God's Redemptive Love Parrish W. Jones, 2014-05-01 Suffering and God's Redemptive Love resulted from conversations Dr. Jones had with his wife during her final painful days of dying from cancer. Through the Bible they were able to find redemption in the midst of the suffering. Jones emphasizes the Jewish-Christian theme of Immanuel (God with us) and the Christian theme of incarnation. Jones brings out the grand narratives of the biblical literature focusing on personal suffering and God's engagement with us in our suffering to deal with the common conceptions of why people suffer. How Job shatters those views, the way in which God comes to us, suffers with us, suffers for us, and takes us beyond suffering. The final chapter deals with God's Redemptive Love and Ministry to the Suffering, seeking to give practical application of the themes of the book. Jones added an Epilogue dealing with suffering communities based on his engagement with persons living in extreme poverty in Mexico and Colombia, growing out of the testimonies of the people. Foundations for Preaching and Teaching®: Scripture Backgrounds for 2013, 2011 Connections: A Lectionary Commentary for Preaching and Worship Joel B. Green, Thomas G. Long, Luke A. Powery, Cynthia L. Rigby, Carolyn J. Sharp, 2020-04-14 Designed to empower preachers as they lead congregations to connect their lives to Scripture, Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary. This nine-volume series offers creative commentary on each reading in the three-year lectionary cycle by viewing that reading through the lens of its connections to the rest of Scripture and then seeing the reading through the lenses of culture, film, fiction, ethics, and other aspects of contemporary life. Commentaries on the Psalms make connections to the other readings and to the congregations' experience of worship. Connections is published in partnership with Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. Preaching Christ from Ecclesiastes Sidney Greidanus, 2010-05-03 As Sidney Greidanus points out, the biblical book of Ecclesiastes is especially relevant for our contemporary culture because it confronts such secular enticements as materialism hedonism cut throat competition and self sufficiency But how can preachers best convey the ancient Teacher s message to congregations today A respected expert in both hermeneutics and homiletics Greidanus does preachers a great service here by providing the foundations for a series of expository sermons on Ecclesiastes He walks students and preachers through the steps from text to sermon for all of the book s fifteen major literary units explores various ways to move from Ecclesiastes to Jesus Christ in the New Testament and offers insightful expositions that help the preacher in sermon production but omit the theoretical and often impractical discussions in many commentaries SCM Studyguide: Preaching Peter K. Stevenson,2017-01-31 Peter

Stevenson provides an introduction to the practice of preaching It is designed for people from various church traditions in the early stages of ministerial formation Preaching is a complex and challenging business requiring a demanding mixture of skills People listening to a sermon have the right to expect that a person who stands up to preach can interpret the Bible competently has a grasp of core Christian beliefs and believes what they preach They also expect someone who has the necessary range of communication skills to put the message across in an accessible way Such a range of expectations presents daunting challenges to the most experienced preacher Including practical exercises which could be used by individuals or by groups this book is suitable for introductory courses in preaching or for modules which consider preaching within an overall focus upon leading public worship Sermons for the Christian Year John Keble,1876 Radio

Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 6 Hughes Oliphant Old,2007 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series VI, Cycle a E. Carver McGriff, 1998 With these introductory words E Carver McGriff sets forth to provide some of the most timely and thought provoking research on the lectionary texts ever made available Included for each Sunday in the lectionary are A listing of the applicable Revised Common Roman Catholic and Episcopal lectionary texts Commentary that is more than academic exegesis McGriff brings to the forefront those points in the text that relate most poignantly to our contemporary reality Suggested sermon titles for each of the three texts for each Sunday Themes and suggested directions for preaching on each text Several additional illustrations to enliven your preaching A description of the Psalm of the day A prayer for the day E Carver McGriff is one of America s premiere preachers His introduction details the personal tragedy he has suffered But through it all Dr McGriff was able to expand his congregation from 900 members to 4 400 members Sunday attendance increased from 300 to over 1 850 As a teenager Carver McGriff was wounded and captured by a German SS parachute battalion during World War II He received a Bronze Star and two Purple Hearts and returned home to earn a degree in business administration from Butler University Following a career as a salesman and business owner McGriff entered Garrett Theological Seminary where he was voted Best Preacher by the faculty and graduated with distinction He was then appointed by the Bishop of Indiana to start a new congregation on the northeast side of Indianapolis During his ministry at St Luke s McGriff received an honorary degree from the University of Indianapolis and the Outstanding Alumnus award from Butler University and was voted the Distinguished Alumnus of the year by Christian Theological Seminary McGriff was also honored with the Sagamore of the Wabash by Indiana Governor Evan Bayh His sermons have been distributed nationwide by the Methodist Publishing Company Preaching God's Compassion LeRoy Aden, Robert G. Hughes, 2001-12-01 Centering on five particular situations of suffering loss illness violence fear and failure this book suggests ways in which a pastor can preach to parishioners who are experiencing trauma Three sample sermons illustrate how to preach on God s gracious activity while avoiding psychologizing the text and reducing the gospel to cheap therapy for individual problems Preaching the New Lectionary Dianne Bergant, Richard N. Fragomeni, 1999 This commentary which uses the lectionary approved by the NCCB in 1998 is a literary liturgical reading of the four lections including the psalm response of each Sunday and major feast of the liturgical year cycle C It explicitly situates the interpretation of each day within the theology of its respective liturgical season theology that is drawn from the specific themes of the readings of that particular year rather than from general theological themes otherwise associated with the season The lections are also read in sequential order from the first Sunday of that season to the last thus providing another way of interpreting the riches of the readings Book jacket The Transforming Fire of Divine Love John H. Armstrong, 2025-03-01 Most Bible readers know God is love 1 John 4 8 16 And most have heard the words of John 3 16 God so loved the world perhaps the best known verse in the entire Bible But few readers realize that these are perhaps the most daring verses in all the Scripture Why They tell us who God is and why we can trust him Yet very few Christians realize how much of what they believe about the nature of God is rooted in ideas foreign to divine love How did this happen What can be done to change how we can relate to the God who is perfect and inexhaustible love John Armstrong shares a deeply personal story of his long slow journey to know and experience God as a compassionate and loving Father As a pastor trained in evangelical theology he came to know and experience the teaching of the whole church about God thus the story he tells will inform how you can know the God who is amazing love This readable primer will help you develop a doctrine that can free you from guilt fear and many misconceptions we have about God You will see that what you believe about God will truly affect everything else you believe God's Love Compels Us D. A. Carson, Kathleen Nielson, 2015-04-16 With contributions from popular Bible teachers including David Platt John Piper D A Carson Andy Davis Mack Stiles Michael Oh and Stephen Um this collection of biblical expositions explores how God's love for us is meant to drive Christians out into the world on mission for him Addressing hot topics that are actively discussed today such as whether or not people without Christ are really lost and the Christian's responsibility to fight for social justice this book sketches the biblical basis for missions based on the apostle Paul's words in 2 Corinthians equipping Christian men and women to think carefully about their own role in taking the good news about Jesus to the world Indicative of Grace - Imperative of Freedom R. David Nelson, 2014-09-25 This volume is a collection of essays in honour of Tübingen theologian Eberhard Jüngel and is presented to him on the occasion of his 80th birthday Jüngel is widely held to be one of the most important Christian theologians of the past half century The essays honour Professor Jüngel both by offering critical interlocutions with his theology and by presenting constructive proposals on themes in contemporary dogmatics that are prominent in his writings The Festschrift introduces a new generation of theologians to Eberhard Jüngel and his theology The volume also includes an exhaustive bibliography of Jüngel's writings and of secondary sources that deal extensively with his thought Connections: A Lectionary Commentary for Preaching and Worship, 2018-12-25 Designed to empower preachers as they lead their congregations to connect their lives to Scripture Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary For each worship day within the three year lectionary cycle the commentaries in Connections link the individual lection reading with Scripture as a whole as well as to the larger world In addition Connections places each Psalm reading in conversation with the other lections for the day to highlight the themes of the liturgical season Finally sidebars offer additional connections to Scripture for each Sunday or worship day This nine volume series is a practical constructive and valuable resource for preachers who seek to help congregations connect more closely with Scripture
