Jan Holton, 2016-06-28 What is it about the concept of home that makes its loss so profound and devastating and how should the trauma of exile and alienation be approached theologically M Jan Holton examines the psychological social and theological impact of forced displacement on communities in the Congo and South Sudan and on indigenous Batwa tribespersons in Uganda as well as on homeless U S citizens and on U S soldiers returning from the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq She draws on ethnographic work in Africa extensive research in practical theology sociology and psychology as well as on professional work and personal experiences in America and abroad In doing so she explores how forced displacement disrupts one's connection with the home place and the profound characteristics it fosters that can help people lean toward flourishing spiritually and psychologically throughout their lifetime Displacement invites a social alienation that can become deeply institutionalized threatening the moral well being of us all Longing For Home offers a frame for understanding how communities can respond to refugees and various homeless populations by cultivating hospitality outside of their own comfort zones This essential study addresses an urgent interreligious global concern and Holton's thoughtful and compelling work offers a constructive model for a sustained practical response Introduction to Christian Worship Third Edition James F. White, 2010-09-01 Introduction to Christian Worship Third Edition traces the development of the major forms of Christian worship and includes discussion of the newest service books of the principal churches of North America and the British Isles This staple of liturgical history is used widely in Protestant seminaries and is read by clergy and laity alike as an accurate informative and accessible introduction to all aspects of Christian worship This revision keeps pace with the latest scholarship and includes more maps tables woodcuts and photographs We Aren't Broke Mark Elsdon, 2021-06-01 What if everything you need is already there Many Christian churches and related institutions in the United States are struggling or in some cases facing imminent crisis especially in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic Attendance is down Funding is harder to come by People are no longer drawn to traditional church services and programming in the ways that they once were Often we feel broke and powerless to do much about it We settle for doing more with less Less money Fewer people Fewer churches But if we reexamine our perceived limits and our assumptions about how resources are supposed to be used then something remarkable and beautiful comes into view we aren't broke at all but have enormous resources at our disposal Church and missional organizations nationwide own billions of dollars of prime property and investment assets which when combined with social enterprise and new expressions of mission can be put to work for innovation and transformation And these resources are often available to us right now This book is an invitation to envision a different way of putting God s gifts to work in the world It draws upon a remarkable story of rebirth at a Presbyterian affiliated campus ministry center at the University of Wisconsin along with profiles of other creative social enterprises to describe how church property and investment assets can be put to work for innovation transformation and financial sustainability Theologically rooted but practically minded it provides guidance and tools for church and nonprofit leaders entrepreneurs and investors of all kinds who are seeking new ways to fund and participate in God s work in the world
